Heavy Fighting Erupts Anew In Viet Highlands

FIRST DAY in first grade at East Liverpool's new multi-million-dollar centralized school complex will be an event to be remembered by Mark Faloon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Faloon of 912 Avondale St., shown being greeted by Mrs. Phoebe Giambroni at the North Elementary School this morning.

Some Inconveniences

Classes Opened In City Schools

Classes got under way today in the East Liverpool school system, with students attending the new multi-million-dollar complex for the first time.

The opening was marred by a bus transportation dispute in the LaCroft area, by lack of cafeteria systems pending the arrival of new equipment and by lack of electricity in one building because of a continuing labor dispute against the Ohio Power Co.

Students in all schools except Westgate will carry lunches until all the cafeteria equipment arrives.

A CARLOAD of furniture which has not yet arrived contains cafeteria and library equipment, Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini explained. He said the equipment could arrive momentarily and cafeterias put into operation within a day or two. It could be longer, however, he cautioned.

While there are temporary inconveniences in each new building, Pelini said that through "juggling," every student has been seated.

At East Elementary there is no electricity due to a lack of transformers — the result of the power dispute.

Pelini said also that the vocational rooms at the high school will not be ready for use before the end of the month, possibly longer.

THE LaCROFT area situation resulted from the feeling of some families that their children should be provided bus transportation on the claim that they reside more than a mile from school.

Thomas Bratt of Valley St. and John Muschweck Jr. of Simmons Ave., spokesmen for the group, said a meeting was held this morning with Board President Samuel Brown after getting their children to school and they agreed to transport their children to school the remainder of the week pending the board of education meeting next Monday night.

Muschweck and Bratt said they have petitions signed by LaCroft area residents protesting the matter. They plan to contact Gov. James A. Rhodes, Rep. Wayne L. Hays and the transportation department of the

Watch School Buses, Police Warn Drivers

Opening of the 1968-69 term means that motorists must drive with redoubled caution and be watchful for halted school buses and youngsters walking to and from classes, police cautioned today.

Both state laws and city ordinances require traffic moving in both directions to halt for school buses picking up or discharging passengers, officers warned.

7 Primaries To Be Held On Tuesday

Barry Goldwater Making Comeback In Arizona Politics

By The Associated Press

Primary elections Tuesday in several states include a comeback by Barry Goldwater, who is unopposed for the Arizona Republican senatorial nomination.

Goldwater, who lost to President Johnson in 1964, hopes to succeed the retiring Democratic incumbent, 90-year-old Carl Hayden. Three Democrats are on the primary ballot, the winner to face Goldwater in November.

U.S. Senate and House of Representative seats are at stake also in Colorado, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Maryland, Vermont and Utah.

All but Colorado and Maryland will see party choices for governor.

In Colorado, former Gov. Steve McNichols, 52, is competing for the Democratic senatorial nomination against 39-year-old Ken Monfort, a cattleman and a comparative newcomer to politics. The winner's opponent will be Republican Sen. Peter Dominick. McNichols backs the Johnson administration policy on Vietnam while Monfort is considered a dove on the issue.

Candidates are unopposed for most other Colorado nominations.

Vietnam also is an issue in Vermont, where Republican Sen. George D. Aiken is oposed for renomination by William K. Tufts, a hawk on Vietnam. The present lieutenant governor, John J. Daley, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination to succeed Democratic Gov. Phillip Hoff. The gubernatorial nomination is being sought by two Republicans.

In Wisconsin, Bronson C. La Follette, 32-year-old heir to the state's famous political name, seeks the Democratic nomination for governor.

La Follette will be opposed by Floyd Wills, a political unknown, and La Follete is expected to win handily. The incumbent governor, Republican Warren P. Knowles, is unopposed.

In New Hampshire, Democratic Gov. John W. King is running unopposed for the Senate. The race to succeed him is wide open: five Democrats and seven Republicans are on the ballot.

Rhode Island Gov. John H. Chaffee is unopposed for renomination on the Republican ticket and in November he'll face Democrat Frank Licht also unopposed in the primary.

In Maryland, incumbent Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster

'Cease-Fire' Arranged In Israel, Egypt

Both Sides Level Accusations After Sunday's Fighting

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council today called on Israel and Egypt to stick to their 1967 cease-fire after 10 Israelis and 11 Egyptians were reported killed in a four-hour gun battle across the Suez Canal Sunday.

In a meeting that began Sunday and lasted past midnight, the 15-member council agreed on a "statement of consensus" read by the council president, Canadian Ambassador George Ignatieff.

The meeting followed requests from both countries that the council give its urgent attention to the battle that at one point reportedly ranged along most of the canal from El Qantara in the north to Port Taufiq in the south.

Cease-Fire Arranged

A U.N. truce team finally arranged a cease-fire by early evening. One member of the team was reported wounded and two U.N. observation posts were hit. Israel said the Egyptians violated one agreement with the observers to stop the shooting.

The canal front was reported calm today.

The battle was the fourth and most serious incident along the canal since Aug. 26. An Israeli charge of Egyptian provocations was already before the Security Council, but the battle Sunday and the council's response put the earlier complaint on the shelf, at least for the time being.

Israel and Egypt each accused the other of starting the shooting. Lt. Gen. Odd Bull of Norway, chief of the U.N. cease-fire teams, said one of his groups reported the Israelis fired first in the team's area of observation, while three other observer teams said the Egyptians shot first in their areas.

Each Charges The Other

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah told the council that Egyptian forces opened fire first on Israeli engineers who had just detonated an antivehicle mine the Egyptians had planted north of Port Taufie, on the east bank of the canal.

Enemy Kills South Viet Commander

Helicopter Downed Near Site Of One Of Several Battles

SAIGON (AP) - Heavy fighting returned to South Vietnam's central highlands over the weekend, and a South Vietnamese brigadier general was killed shortly after one of his battalions repulsed an attack on the Duc Lap Special Forces camp and killed 47 North Vietnamese.

Forty miles north of Duc Lap, near Ban Me Thuot, South Vietnamese militiamen backed by a U.S. armored column reported another 47 North Vietnamese killed. Other American force claimed they killed 82 enemy in two battles south and northwest of Saigon.

The slain South Vietnamese commander, Brig. Gen. Truong Quang An, 36, was the first South Vietnamese general killed in combat since 1961. Three American generals have been killed in action since that time.

Gen. An, his wife, his two chief American advisers and two U.S. helicopter pilots were killed when their helicopter was shot out of the air by North Vietnamese gunners eight miles northeast of the Duc Lap camp. Two American door gunners were rescued from the burning wreckage.

Identities Withheld

The American advisers were a colonel and a sergeant major. Their identities were withheld.

Gen. An was on an inspection tour of the Green Beret camp at Duc Lap a few hours after a battalion from his 23rd Infantry Division had beaten back North Vietnamese troops on the camp's fringes. Two South Vietnamese were killed.

Party Newspaper Reports

Soviet Occupation Slows Czechs' Heavy Industry

PRAGUE (AP) — Production from Czechoslovakia's heavy industry, the mainstay of the economy, may be curtailed for "a long time to come" as a result of the Soviet occupation, the Czechoslovak Communist party newspaper reported today.

Rude Pravo said that during the first week of the occupation production losses in heavy industry alone amounted to 1,626-million crowns, or $227,640,000.

"In many plants it may be possible to compensate the losses," the paper said, "but the data prove that the smooth flow of production in heavy industry is threatened for a long time to come.

The Soviet Union has given a half promise to compensate Czechoslovakia for all damages caused by the invasion, and a parliamentary committee is compiling a report.

Supplies A Factor

Rude Pravo said failure by Moscow and some of its hardline allies to meet their supply obligations to Czechoslovakia was one of the adverse factors. It said five large export shipments could not be readied on schedule because supplies did not arrive from the Soviet Union, East Germany and Hungary.

At the same time, Rude Pravo added "the trade representatives of these countries insisted on adhering to delivery schedules" by Czechoslovakia in other industrial branches.

Meanwhile, reliable informants reported the country's embattled Communist leaders have agreed to the stationing of Soviet-bloc troops indefinitely along their country's border with West Germany.

These border forces are not among those the Soviet Union has promised to withdraw from occupied Czechoslovakia when the situation "normalizes," the sources said.

Neither Prague nor Moscow has announced the agreement, but sources said it was one of seven concessions in the Moscow accord signed by Czechoslovak and Soviet leaders Aug. 28, a week after the Soviet invasion.

Vasily Kuznetsov, a Soviet first deputy foreign minister, is in Prague, reportedly to secure more speedy compliance with the secret agreements. Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, said Sunday Czechoslovakia was "taking the first steps toward normalization," but that its leaders still had failed to strike a decisive blow to "hostile forces" in the country.

Transplants Are Expected To Increase

NEW YORK (AP) — With the number of heart transplant operations throughout the world edging near 50, a scientist predicts an even greater upsurge in the number of operations over the coming months.

Dr. F. C. Spencer of the New York University Medical Center also said that despite the obvious success of the heart transplants so far, a great number of questions remain.

One problem that needs exploring, Spencer said, is why many recipients seem to respond either "extremely badly or extremely well."

He told the second International Congress of the Transplantation Society Sunday that the next year will provide major and needed information about long-term survival of recipients, adding, "I predict a great increase in frequency in the next several months."

The society held its first meeting last year in Paris.

Dr. Theodore Cooper, director of the U.S. National Institutes of Health, told the hundreds of researchers Sunday that the United States is setting up a cardiac transplantation registry to record treatment and results on all heart transplants for the use of the world's scientists.

Cooper also cited the problem of supply and demand in heart transplants. Government statistics show that there are 200,000 deaths each year in the United States from acquired heart disease, he said.

"For the 30,000 or so of these which occur before the patient can reach the hospital," he said, "only prevention will provide a cure."

Hubert Humphrey Opens His Tour In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey launched his first coast-to-coast barnstorming tour today by calling on the nation to reject what he termed the "Old Era" of conflict and hatred for a "New Day" of hope, equality and unity.

"I appeal not to your fears, but to your reason," Humphrey said. "I ask you to vote your hopes, not your hates."

His speech, prepared for a midday Philadelphia rally, reiterated the themes he introduced in his formal presidential campaign opener in Washington Sunday.

Hits On Nixon

The vice president charged that his Republican opponent, Richard M. Nixon—who was not mentioned by name in the text—"is openly competing for the same votes as George Wallace—for the votes of people who want at best to slow things down when it comes to programs that offer the way out of tension and trouble in America."

Humphrey fired a double-barreled attack at Nixon Sunday, picturing himself a "peace man" and Nixon as a hawk—and accusing the GOP nominee of trying to exploit the fears and tensions of many Americans.

"The choice, he went on, is "between one America and an America of apartheid ... between the America of the Old Era and the America of the New Day."

"Turn away from the Old Era when an American boy who fought in an integrated bunker at Khesanh could come home to a segregated slum in America," Humphrey said. "Choose the New Day when that boy can come home to a job, to training, to equality before the law and in his neighborhood.

Richard Nixon Promotes Strong Anti-Soviet Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon says the United States must take a careful look at peacemaking moves with the Soviet Union. And, he wants America to assure technological military superiority for Israel to offset the Russian buildup of Arab nations.

In the final day Sunday of a campaign trip that stretched from San Francisco to New York, the Republican presidential candidate called for a stronger stand against the Soviets on three fronts.

Nixon is resting today in his New York apartment.

Speaks On Israel

In Washington, he told the triennial convention of B'nai B'rith, an international Jewish organization, that he supports a policy that would give Israel a technological military margin that would more than offset her hostile neighbors numerical superiority."

Nixon, accusing the Soviet Union of giving arms to the Arabs to promote its own interest in the Middle East conceded "some may call this a hard line." But he said such talk was needed to convince potential aggressors not to make "a miscalculation."

Nixon's speech was interrupted by applause 10 times.

At a news conference in Pittsburgh earlier in the day, Nixon spelled out two areas where he indicated a tougher U.S. policy might be needed.

Moore Accused In Damage Suit

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — U. S. Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. has been accused of giving false testimony during a 1967 Common Pleas Court case concerning the alleged mishandling of a $20,000 accident damage suit.

Moore testified he had little law business in 1957 and none at all in 1966 and 1967. He was cleared of any responsibility for the conduct of James Arnold, the attorney plaintiffs claim mishandled their suit.

The damage suit arose out of a 1959 automobile mishap. The plaintiffs charged Arnold was Moore's associate and Moore should be responsible for the $20,000 claim lost because of Arnold's alleged mishandling.

Moore testified Arnold had never been a member of the Moore law firm.

Attorney for the plaintiffs, John McOwen, made the accusation about Moore's testimony in filing a motion for new trial. A hearing on the motion is set for Sept. 24.

Columnist Looks At Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Americans now gulp 30 pounds of aspirin every minute around the clock—more than 21½ tons daily—to cure headaches and calm jittery nerves. Is all that worry really worthwhile?

The United States now has more than 100 million telephones, or one for every two persons. This nearly half of all the telephones in the world. What would it sound like if, at a given moment, all the telephones everywhere rang at once?

Speeding costs money as well as increasing the possibility of accidents. Checks show that a car that gets 20 miles a gallon at 40 miles an hour gets only 12 miles a gallon at 80.

Time has outdated the idea that women must choose between matrimony and a career. Some 15 million U.S. married women now hold jobs outside the home.

Looking for an interesting new hobby? Why not take up dendrochronology, the science of dating past events by the growth rings of dead and living trees? The idea of using trees as calendars of history goes back to Leonardo da Vinci, the Italian universal genius of the 15th and 16th centuries.

Our cat-and-dog lovers now spend $1.5 million a day for pet foods, double the amount spent for prepared baby foods. It's nice we don't keep elephants instead of watchdogs. An elephant can munch 800 pounds of fodder between dawn and dusk.

Quotable notables: "The fear of ridicule causes our worst cowardice."—Andre Gide.

No bull: If you get bored with all the sophisticated chatter at a cocktail party, you can break it up by standing on a chair and asking how many guests know whether a cow's ears are in front or behind its horns. Just to keep you from tossing restlessly tonight yourself, the answer is—behind the horns.

Geographical oddities: Long before paleface politicians pitched their marble tepees in Washington, D.C., the Algonquin Indians gave an apt name to the Potomac river. Potomac means "trading place."

Sh-h-h-h: Medical science has found that too much noise can make you ill physically as well as tire you mentally. It is estimated that more than six million Americans work in areas so noisy they are a health hazard.

As of Jan. 1, 1968, there were 10.6 million automobiles registered in Great Britain.

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — American colleges are drawing "our finest generation of students," President James A. McCain of Kansas State University said Sunday. McCain greeted about 5,000 new students and their parents at the opening convocation in Memorial Stadium. Students have had a major part in more than a score of new developments at Kansas State during the last two years, he said.

After efforts to drill open the safe failed, the burglars carried it 468 feet outside from the rear entrance where they "peeled" it with a sledge hammer and ax.

They crawled under a fence to leave, police said.

Safe 'Peeled' At Oil Plant

Burglars caused some $300 damage to a safe in a robbery that netted only $20 at the Mobil Oil Co. bulk plant on Route 68 in Industry sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Pennsylvania state police at Chippewa said entrance was made by breaking a window in the front door and unlatching the lock.

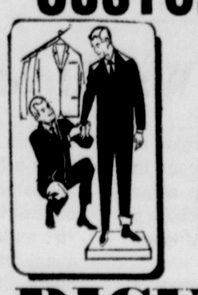

After efforts to drill open the safe failed, the burglars carried it 468 feet outside from the rear entrance where they "peeled" it with a sledge hammer and ax.

They crawled under a fence to leave, police said.

Cold War Heats Up

Although President Johnson, in the opinion of many observers, would like to achieve peace in Vietnam and a relaxation of tensions in other trouble spots of the world — before he leaves office — it appears his counterparts in Moscow and Hanoi will not allow it.

No relaxation is detected in the enemy's war effort in Vietnam and there is a definite heightening of tension in Europe and the Middle East in recent days.

It is felt in some government circles in Western Europe that, as a lame-duck leader, the President's main objective is to go down in history as a "peace president" if at all possible.

THIS IS CAUSING CONCERN among the ruling bodies of some of the West European nations that would like to see the American president take a stronger position in opposition to recent actions directed from Moscow.

West German Chancellor Kurt Kiesinger sees the Soviet military menace in Central Europe growing steadily in the wake of the invasion of Czechoslovakia. Romania is fearful of a similar invasion and Yugoslavia is preparing militarily for any eventuality.

His intelligence agency has told the German leader that the Soviets have moved seven divisions into East Germany during the last few days. Allowing for the replacement of troops shunted to Czechoslovakia, the move still represents a buildup on the German frontier.

The Soviet belligerence has been manifested diplomatically as well. Earlier this week the Soviet ambassador handed Chancellor Kiesinger a memorandum which demanded that West Germany change its policies "radically" or "take the consequences."

Following this, Mr. Kiesinger called in U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, apparently in an effort to get the United States to take firmer measures to cool off the Russians' new adventurism.

In response to developments in Europe, the President summoned the National Security Council for a 2½-hour session in which a reassessment of U.S. policies was made and consideration was given to bolstering reduced NATO forces.

IT BEGINS TO APPEAR that those who thought the Cold War was over were mistaken. Unfortunately, the Russians have decided to heat it up again, perhaps in the belief that the United States has no stomach for more military involvement in other lands at this time.

Uncle Sam needs to don his asbestos gloves and handle the new "hot potato" with confidence, peacefully if possible — with force only if necessary.

Return To Bikini Island

The troubles man causes his fellow man are often difficult to comprehend.

One man's action triggers another man's reaction in an escalatory progression which all too often culminates in a circumstance deplored by all.

Nations do the same thing with the same results.

BECAUSE OF THIS fact the natives of Bikini Island were banished from their island homes for two decades. It was deemed necessary to use the island for atomic bomb tests which, in turn, were deemed necessary as a reaction to military actions by enemies of the United States.

That was in 1946.

Today, 22 years later, nine Bikinians returned to their island to find it much changed but still desirable. The United States is planning to redevelop the atoll now, for scientists for habitation.

Remnants of the nuclear blasts are in evidence on the island, stark realism against the beauties of nature.

There is dense jungle growth although most of the trees are gone. The beaches are beautiful and the sea, with its great abundance, is usually quiet.

MOST OF SOME 300 BIKINIANS have indicated they want to return to their island and President Johnson has said they may do so. The United States, as least, no longer tests its nuclear weaponry above ground.

Gradually, in time, nature will almost completely heal the scars of the nuclear age left on Bikini. If only, somehow, it could heal the madness in man which makes such scars necessary.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

It is rather strange that if Nixon and Humphrey have dogs hardly anything has been heard of them. But, then, the campaign is just starting and we may hear a great deal about their dogs yet.

"Man's best friend" is too good a campaign asset to be hidden under a bushel. But sometimes dogs do not gain much publicity until it is either to the master's advantage or disadvantage.

The master often uses his dog to further his own purposes with the public while his enemies may try to use the dog against him.

FOR INSTANCE there was a great public outcry against President Franklin Roosevelt during World War II when it was reported that a Navy destroyer was used to haul around his famous dog Fala.

So what did President Roosevelt do? He went on the radio and proclaimed to our nation of dog lovers, "I don't care what people say about me but I won't stand for their picking on my dog."

Then there was another report that Roosevelt's son's dog had bumped a serviceman off a high priority airliner. More public clamor.

Later, in the 1950s, there was Nixon's famous "Checkers speech" on television when Nixon explained his personal finances to the satisfaction of a majority of the American people and used his dog Checkers as a prop.

President Johnson was making a lot of hay publicitywise with his little hounds until he picked one of them up by the ears and its bark reverberated across the land, to Johnson's discomfiture.

Ordinarily a dog is considered an asset for a public figure but sometimes all it does is provide a doghouse for the master to crawl into. We will watch the campaign to see how doggy it gets.

Dogs have figured in politics much longer than most of us realize. Take Alcibiades (450-404 B.C.), an Athenian statesman in ancient Greece. He was a leader in Athens' struggle against Sparta in the Peloponnesian War.

Poor old Alcibiades sure had his ups and downs. The Athenians turned against him, he fled to Sparta and later to Persia. But he had a dog.

HE DIDN'T STOP at picking the dog up by the ears. He cut off the dog's tail, apparently in the hope this would so outrage his enemies and the populace that they would forget whatever else they had against him and only talk about the way he mistreated his dog.

Here is the way Plutarch told the story: "Alcibiades had a very handsome dog, that cost him seven thousand drachmas; and he cut off his tail, 'that,' he said, 'the Athenians may have this story to tell of me, and many concern themselves no further with me.' "

How his plan worked out is not recorded but it is doubtful if cutting off his dog's tail made him any more popular.

One thing is sure, the campaign between now and November will be a dog-eat-dog affair.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Letter To The Editor

To the Members of Beaver Local School District:

I would like to share with you my personal observations concerning the need for our passing the 2-mill bond issue Tuesday.

It has been my privilege during the past three years to spend several days observing at our schools, to discuss concerns and needs with the administrators, and to attend 75 per cent of the school board meetings. Such a first-hand exposure to the situation readily leads me to the conclusion that the approval of the bond issue is an absolute necessity.

The proposed enlarged and added facilities are urgently needed to solve the crowded classrooms created by our rapidly growing area and to improve the quality of the programs offered.

The school board and administrators are very much aware that this bond issue is a must as are those who teach and work at the schools. Any citizen who will take the time and effort to do so will soon come to the same conclusion that I have reached. You would be most welcome to actually visit the schools and study the situation.

But if you cannot do that at this time, please take my word for it and cast your ballot on Tuesday in favor of the bond issue.

VICTOR RIESEL

Labor Giants In Civil War

WASHINGTON — Walter Reuther, having served his time in Chicago like the rest of us, celebrated his 61st birthday last Sunday by proving that he still was sufficiently young in heart to take a whack at the politics of confrontation.

Victor Riesel

It was easy. The rusty-haired maverick simply declared war on other labor giants. The struggle could be bloodier than the battles of Lincoln Park. Reuther simply crossed labor's Rubicon by tearing up his nonagression pact with the million-member International Assn. of Machinists (IAM), one of George Meany's favorite unions.

So strongly fraternal towards the IAM is AFL-CIO president Meany, that he hedgehopped for it as he never has for any other organization.

Last week Meany waited in Chicago just long enough to get Hubert Humphrey's telephone call early Thursday, Aug. 29, during which the Vice President confided to the cigar-chewing number one union chief that Sen. Ed Muskie would be the vice presidential candidate.

Meany was delighted. He then took a train east. Monday morning, the labor prexy marched with Mr. Humphrey, sat alongside him in the reviewing stand for several hours, and then raced for a plane back to Chicago.

There he spoke at the massive Machinist convention in the Conrad Hilton. For those who know of Meany's distaste for travel, this was a great demonstration of solidarity with Machinists' president Roy Siemiller — now Walter Reuther's prime target.

ON THIS LABOR BEAT you can insult a man to his face and walk away unbloodied. But you don't raid his territory unless you want open war.

Well, Reuther has begun invading the Machinists' territory. The auto union has joined with the Teamsters in a raid on the Machinists' jurisdiction over the McDonnell Douglas aircraft plant in St. Louis. There are more than 21,000 members at stake. For years the Machinists have had them under contract at the Phantom jet plant there. Now Reuther seeks to dump the Machinists union from this, one of IAM's biggest, most famous installations.

This is civil war. It will spill over into the West Coast aerospace industry where both unions have major contracts. There will be counter raids by the Machinists and their allies.

And Reuther knows these are not flabby allies. Not the least of them is that one-man "stonewall" Paul Hall, the Seafarers' International Union chief. Hall can whip up a storm orate like an old-style medicine man, argue like a college-bred transportation economist, and swear like an infuriated cleaver-wielding galley cook. He's used all these techniques on President Johnson, several White House aides, scores of congressmen — and especially on Walter Reuther and Jimmy Hoffa.

Though it has gone unnoticed during the current political heat, it was Paul Hall who pulled the Chicago taxi strike right smack during the Democrats' national convention, though he's one of Mr. Humphrey's most active supporters and heaviest contributors.

That was the strategic moment for Hall's Chicago taxi union to strike. So it did. Paul Hall plays it hard. He's had to. He's been the prime target of the communist underground and the mob's underworld. He fought Hoffa all the way from Puerto Rico to California, and beat him.

Now Hall has replaced Walter Reuther (who was suspended from the AFL-CIO last spring) as chairman of the big federation's national Organizing Committee.

HALL TELLS ME he plans to revamp the Organizing Committee.

"I want to give it a shot in the arm," says Hall," by remodeling it on the style of the Committee On Political Education (COPE.) This means that we must involve in our new drives everybody in the federation. And all the unions too. And their officers, just the same as we go down to the firing-line on politics. Reuther made this committee one of the AFL-CIO's most dormant bodies. Since 1965, he turned in only one report. But now we'll get it moving."

Hall always says what he means. He's one of the strong men in Meany's inner circle. It may take a few months, but the counter drive will start. It may take the form of raids on Reuther's territory. It may be a campaign into new fields. Whatever the strategy, the tactic will be to hem in Reuther, the auto workers, and the Teamsters if necessary.

This makes it the battle of the giants. Insiders know that it can get bloody as organizing squads move against each other.

We'll know better during the week of Sept. 16 where all this feuding is heading. On that Monday the AFL-CIO high command gathers in New York City for its late summer session.

The decision must be made whether to hold off or to haul off at Reuther during the presidential campaign.

Obviously Reuther has moved on the theory that the AFL-CIO is so heavily committed to Hubert Humphrey's drive that the federation will not be able to spare time, money or energy while he swoops in. He may be right. But the campaign is over on the night of Nov. 5.

After that it will be a long hot winter on the labor front.

DAVID LAWRENCE

True Enemies

Why has President Johnson's "popularity" slipped to a low point of 35 per cent?

The latest Gallup Poll reveals that while 13 per cent express no opinion, 52 per cent "disapprove" of his administration. This, the pollsters say, is closely related to the public's attitude toward the war in Vietnam.

Mr. Johnson's decline in the poll is due to the failure of his administration to make crystal clear that the true enemies of the United States in the Vietnam War are the Soviet Union and Red China as well as North Vietnam.

Without the aid to North Vietnam of its two Communist allies, America's forces would long ago have been able to win a decisive victory over the aggressors.

The Moscow government has supplied billions of dollars' worth of airplanes, arms and munitions, and has also sent officers to train the pilots and ground armies of North Vietnam.

MEANWHILE, THE UNITED NATIONS has remained silent, and the American people as a whole have not been given by their government the facts about Soviet participation in the Vietnam War.

They have heard only one side of the story — namely, that the war has not been getting results and that North Vietnam, though a small country, has managed to maintain a strong hold on a substantial portion of South Vietnam and to conduct guerrilla warfare effectively throughout that country.

The Vietnam War is, of course, unpopular in the sense that every war has been. But the position of the United States in striving to protect all the nations of Southeast Asia against aggression has never been convincingly explained to peoples everywhere.

It has been assumed that the holding of "peace talks" in Paris might lead to an armistice agreement. Both Moscow and Peking, however, are instructing the North Vietnamese envoys in Paris to prolong the negotiations.

Also, the United States, having restricted its bombing in the north, has relieved the adversary of most of the strain within its own borders and has permitted the intensification of operations in the south.

Certainly while the presidential campaign is going on in this country, it is unlikely that the North Vietnamese will agree to any settlement. The Soviets and the Red Chinese have told them not to do so.

It is taken for granted here that nothing can possibly be accomplsihed at the Paris parleys until after our election is over and the president-elect announces what his policies are to be.

Mr. Johnson expects his successor to adhere to the present bombing strategy. The probability is that this will be done, as both candidates have pledged themselves to an "honorable peace," which phraseology, however, the Communists have mistakenly interpreted as a willingness ultimately to surrender.

The chief negotiator for the North Vietnamese said at Paris on Wednesday that both presidential candidates in their campaign speeches favor "bellicose" politics toward North Vietnam. There is little likelihood that the Hanoi government will alter its attitude until after the November election, when Americas policy will be outlined in detail.

It is believed in official circles here that a new administration will have to take a firm position and make clear that it is not going to withdraw from Vietnam until the enemy actually ceases its aggression.

Maybe the next president will not be as reluctant as Mr. Johnson has been to denounce the role the Soviets and Red Chinese are playing in the Vietnam War.

FOR IT IS EVIDENT the government in Moscow is convinced that the United States is so frustrated in Vietnam that it will not take any active steps to defend Europe in the new crisis, and that the time has come for Communist imperialism to assert itself more than ever before in other lands.

It looks as if, after the inauguration of a new president here, America's international policy will have to be reaffirmed in unequivocal terms.

Perhaps the new president not only will be able to clarify the Vietnam problem for the American people but will begin to impress other governments in Europe and Asia that their own security and safety are also endangered unless they take an active part in thwarting aggressors and is helping end the Vietnam War.

Cold War Heats Up

Although President Johnson, in the opinion of many observers, would like to achieve peace in Vietnam and a relaxation of tensions in other trouble spots of the world — before he leaves office — it appears his counterparts in Moscow and Hanoi will not allow it.

No relaxation is detected in the enemy's war effort in Vietnam and there is a definite heightening of tension in Europe and the Middle East in recent days.

It is felt in some government circles in Western Europe that, as a lame-duck leader, the President's main objective is to go down in history as a "peace president" if at all possible.

THIS IS CAUSING CONCERN among the ruling bodies of some of the West European nations that would like to see the American president take a stronger position in opposition to recent actions directed from Moscow.

West German Chancellor Kurt Kiesinger sees the Soviet military menace in Central Europe growing steadily in the wake of the invasion of Czechoslovakia. Romania is fearful of a similar invasion and Yugoslavia is preparing militarily for any eventuality.

His intelligence agency has told the German leader that the Soviets have moved seven divisions into East Germany during the last few days. Allowing for the replacement of troops shunted to Czechoslovakia, the move still represents a buildup on the German frontier.

The Soviet belligerence has been manifested diplomatically as well. Earlier this week the Soviet ambassador handed Chancellor Kiesinger a memorandum which demanded that West Germany change its policies "radically" or "take the consequences."

Following this, Mr. Kiesinger called in U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, apparently in an effort to get the United States to take firmer measures to cool off the Russians' new adventurism.

In response to developments in Europe, the President summoned the National Security Council for a 2½-hour session in which a reassessment of U.S. policies was made and consideration was given to bolstering reduced NATO forces.

IT BEGINS TO APPEAR that those who thought the Cold War was over were mistaken. Unfortunately, the Russians have decided to heat it up again, perhaps in the belief that the United States has no stomach for more military involvement in other lands at this time.

Uncle Sam needs to don his asbestos gloves and handle the new "hot potato" with confidence, peacefully if possible — with force only if necessary.

Return To Bikini Island

The troubles man causes his fellow man are often difficult to comprehend.

One man's action triggers another man's reaction in an escalatory progression which all too often culminates in a circumstance deplored by all.

Nations do the same thing with the same results.

BECAUSE OF THIS fact the natives of Bikini Island were banished from their island homes for two decades. It was deemed necessary to use the island for atomic bomb tests which, in turn, were deemed necessary as a reaction to military actions by enemies of the United States.

That was in 1946.

Today, 22 years later, nine Bikinians returned to their island to find it much changed but still desirable. The United States is planning to redevelop the atoll now, for scientists for habitation.

Remnants of the nuclear blasts are in evidence on the island, stark realism against the beauties of nature.

There is dense jungle growth although most of the trees are gone. The beaches are beautiful and the sea, with its great abundance, is usually quiet.

MOST OF SOME 300 BIKINIANS have indicated they want to return to their island and President Johnson has said they may do so. The United States, as least, no longer tests its nuclear weaponry above ground.

Gradually, in time, nature will almost completely heal the scars of the nuclear age left on Bikini. If only, somehow, it could heal the madness in man which makes such scars necessary.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

It is rather strange that if Nixon and Humphrey have dogs hardly anything has been heard of them. But, then, the campaign is just starting and we may hear a great deal about their dogs yet.

"Man's best friend" is too good a campaign asset to be hidden under a bushel. But sometimes dogs do not gain much publicity until it is either to the master's advantage or disadvantage.

The master often uses his dog to further his own purposes with the public while his enemies may try to use the dog against him.

FOR INSTANCE there was a great public outcry against President Franklin Roosevelt during World War II when it was reported that a Navy destroyer was used to haul around his famous dog Fala.

So what did President Roosevelt do? He went on the radio and proclaimed to our nation of dog lovers. "I don't care what people say about me but I won't stand for their picking on my dog."

Then there was another report that Roosevelt's son's dog had bumped a serviceman off a high priority airliner. More public clamor.

Later, in the 1950s, there was Nixon's famous "Checkers speech" on television when Nixon explained his personal finances to the satisfaction of a majority of the American people and used his dog Checkers as a prop.

President Johnson was making a lot of hay publicitywise with his little hounds until he picked one of them up by the ears and its bark reverberated across the land, to Johnson's discomfiture.

Ordinarily a dog is considered an asset for a public figure but sometimes all it does is provide a doghouse for the master to crawl into. We will watch the campaign to see how doggy it gets.

Dogs have figured in politics much longer than most of us realize. Take Alcibiades (450-404 B.C.), an Athenian statesman in ancient Greece. He was a leader in Athens' struggle against Sparta in the Peloponnesian War.

Poor old Alcibiades sure had his ups and downs. The Athenians turned against him, he fled to Sparta and later to Persia. But he had a dog.

HE DIDN'T STOP at picking the dog up by the ears. He cut off the dog's tail, apparently in the hope this would so outrage his enemies and the populace that they would forget whatever else they had against him and only talk about the way he mistreated his dog.

Here is the way Plutarch told the story: "Alcibiades had a very handsome dog, that cost him seven thousand drachmas; and he cut off his tail, 'that,' he said, 'the Athenians may have this story to tell of me, and many concern themselves no further with me.' "

How his plan worked out is not recorded but it is doubtful if cutting off his dog's tail made him any more popular.

One thing is sure, the campaign between now and November will be a dog-eat-dog affair.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Letter To The Editor

To the Members of Beaver Local School District:

I would like to share with you my personal observations concerning the need for our passing the 2-mill bond issue Tuesday.

It has been my privilege during the past three years to spend several days observing at our schools, to discuss concerns and needs with the administrators, and to attend 75 per cent of the school board meetings. Such a first-hand exposure to the situation readily leads me to the conclusion that the approval of the bond issue is an absolute necessity.

The proposed enlarged and added facilities are urgently needed to solve the crowded classrooms created by our rapidly growing area and to improve the quality of the programs offered.

The school board and administrators are very much aware that this bond issue is a must as are those who teach and work at the schools. Any citizen who will take the time and effort to do so will soon come to the same conclusion that I have reached. You would be most welcome to actually visit the schools and study the situation.

But if you cannot do that at this time, please take my word for it and cast your ballot on Tuesday in favor of the bond issue.

VICTOR RIESEL

Labor Giants In Civil War

WASHINGTON — Walter Reuther, having served his time in Chicago like the rest of us, celebrated his 61st birthday last Sunday by proving that he still was sufficiently young in heart to take a whack at the politics of confrontation.

Victor Riesel

It was easy. The rusty-haired maverick simply declared war on other labor giants. The struggle could be bloodier than the battles of Lincoln Park. Reuther simply crossed labor's Rubicon by tearing up his nonagression pact with the million-member International Assn. of Machinists (IAM), one of George Meany's favorite unions.

So strongly fraternal towards the IAM is AFL-CIO president Meany, that he hedgehopped for it as he never has for any other organization.

Last week Meany waited in Chicago just long enough to get Hubert Humphrey's telephone call early Thursday, Aug. 29, during which the Vice President confided to the cigar-chewing number one union chief that Sen. Ed Muskie would be the vice presidential candidate.

Meany was delighted. He then took a train east. Monday morning, the labor prexy marched with Mr. Humphrey, sat alongside him in the reviewing stand for several hours, and then raced for a plane back to Chicago.

There he spoke at the massive Machinist convention in the Conrad Hilton. For those who know of Meany's distaste for travel, this was a great demonstration of solidarity with Machinists' president Roy Siemiller — now Walter Reuther's prime target.

ON THIS LABOR BEAT you can insult a man to his face and walk away unbloodied. But you don't raid his territory unless you want open war.

Well, Reuther has begun invading the Machinists' territory. The auto union has joined with the Teamsters in a raid on the Machinists' jurisdiction over the McDonnell Douglas aircraft plant in St. Louis. There are more than 21,000 members at stake. For years the Machinists have had them under contract at the Phantom jet plant there. Now Reuther seeks to dump the Machinists union from this, one of IAM's biggest, most famous installations.

This is civil war. It will spill over into the West Coast aerospace industry where both unions have major contracts. There will be counter raids by the Machinists and their allies.

And Reuther knows these are not flabby allies. Not the least of them is that one-man "stonewall" Paul Hall, the Seafarers' International Union chief. Hall can whip up a storm orate like an old-style medicine man, argue like a college-bred transportation economist, and swear like an infuriated cleaver-wielding galley cook. He's used all these techniques on President Johnson, several White House aides, scores of congressmen — and especially on Walter Reuther and Jimmy Hoffa.

Though it has gone unnoticed during the current political heat, it was Paul Hall who pulled the Chicago taxi strike right smack during the Democrats' national convention, though he's one of Mr. Humphrey's most active supporters and heaviest contributors.

That was the strategic moment for Hall's Chicago taxi union to strike. So it did. Paul Hall plays it hard. He's had to. He's been the prime target of the communist underground and the mob's underworld. He fought Hoffa all the way from Puerto Rico to California, and beat him.

Now Hall has replaced Walter Reuther (who was suspended from the AFL-CIO last spring) as chairman of the big federation's national Organizing Committee.

HALL TELLS ME he plans to revamp the Organizing Committee.

"I want to give it a shot in the arm," says Hall," by remodeling it on the style of the Committee On Political Education (COPE.) This means that we must involve in our new drives everybody in the federation. And all the unions too. And their officers, just the same as we go down to the firing-line on politics. Reuther made this committee one of the AFL-CIO's most dormant bodies. Since 1965, he turned in only one report. But now we'll get it moving."

Hall always says what he means. He's one of the strong men in Meany's inner circle. It may take a few months, but the counter drive will start. It may take the form of raids on Reuther's territory. It may be a campaign into new fields. Whatever the strategy, the tactic will be to hem in Reuther, the auto workers, and the Teamsters if necessary.

This makes it the battle of the giants. Insiders know that it can get bloody as organizing squads move against each other.

We'll know better during the week of Sept. 16 where all this feuding is heading. On that Monday the AFL-CIO high command gathers in New York City for its late summer session.

The decision must be made whether to hold off or to haul off at Reuther during the presidential campaign.

Obviously Reuther has moved on the theory that the AFL-CIO is so heavily committed to Hubert Humphrey's drive that the federation will not be able to spare time, money or energy while he swoops in. He may be right. But the campaign is over on the night of Nov. 5.

After that it will be a long hot winter on the labor front.

DAVID LAWRENCE

True Enemies

Why has President Johnson's "popularity" slipped to a low point of 35 per cent?

The latest Gallup Poll reveals that while 13 per cent express no opinion, 52 per cent "disapprove" of his administration. This, the pollsters say, is closely related to the public's attitude toward the war in Vietnam.

Mr. Johnson's decline in the poll is due to the failure of his administration to make crystal clear that the true enemies of the United States in the Vietnam War are the Soviet Union and Red China as well as North Vietnam.

Without the aid to North Vietnam of its two Communist allies, America's forces would long ago have been able to win a decisive victory over the aggressors.

The Moscow government has supplied billions of dollars' worth of airplanes, arms and munitions, and has also sent officers to train the pilots and ground armies of North Vietnam.

MEANWHILE, THE UNITED NATIONS has remained silent, and the American people as a whole have not been given by their government the facts about Soviet participation in the Vietnam War.

They have heard only one side of the story — namely, that the war has not been getting results and that North Vietnam, though a small country, has managed to maintain a strong hold on a substantial portion of South Vietnam and to conduct guerrilla warfare effectively throughout that country.

The Vietnam War is, of course, unpopular in the sense that every war has been. But the position of the United States in striving to protect all the nations of Southeast Asia against aggression has never been convincingly explained to peoples everywhere.

It has been assumed that the holding of "peace talks" in Paris might lead to an armistice agreement. Both Moscow and Peking, however, are instructing the North Vietnamese envoys in Paris to prolong the negotiations.

Also, the United States, having restricted its bombing in the north, has relieved the adversary of most of the strain within its own borders and has permitted the intensification of operations in the south.

Certainly while the presidential campaign is going on in this country, it is unlikely that the North Vietnamese will agree to any settlement. The Soviets and the Red Chinese have told them not to do so.

It is taken for granted here that nothing can possibly be accomplsihed at the Paris parleys until after our election is over and the president-elect announces what his policies are to be.

Mr. Johnson expects his successor to adhere to the present bombing strategy. The probability is that this will be done, as both candidates have pledged themselves to an "honorable peace," which phraseology, however, the Communists have mistakenly interpreted as a willingness ultimately to surrender.

The chief negotiator for the North Vietnamese said at Paris on Wednesday that both presidential candidates in their campaign speeches favor "bellicose" politics toward North Vietnam. There is little likelihood that the Hanoi government will alter its attitude until after the November election, when Americas policy will be outlined in detail.

It is believed in official circles here that a new administration will have to take a firm position and make clear that it is not going to withdraw from Vietnam until the enemy actually ceases its aggression.

Maybe the next president will not be as reluctant as Mr. Johnson has been to denounce the role the Soviets and Red Chinese are playing in the Vietnam War.

FOR IT IS EVIDENT the government in Moscow is convinced that the United States is so frustrated in Vietnam that it will not take any active steps to defend Europe in the new crisis, and that the time has come for Communist imperialism to assert itself more than ever before in other lands.

It looks as if, after the inauguration of a new president here, America's international policy will have to be reaffirmed in unequivocal terms.

Perhaps the new president not only will be able to clarify the Vietnam problem for the American people but will begin to impress other governments in Europe and Asia that their own security and safety are also endangered unless they take an active part in thwarting aggressors and is helping end the Vietnam War.

In Policeman's Death

Black Panther Leader Guilty Of Manslaughter

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Black Panther leader Huey Newton, 26, was convicted Sunday night of voluntary manslaughter in the killing of a white policeman. The jury took four days to reach a verdict.

Newton's attorney, Charles R. Garry, moved immediately for an arrest of judgment and a new trial, and said later he would appeal the conviction to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary.

The verdict "didn't make any sense," Garry told newsmen.

The defense contended that the dead policeman hated Negroes and harassed them.

Newton could be imprisoned from two to 15 years. A hearing was set for Thursday on Garry's motions.

The jury of seven women and five men found Newton guilty of shooting patrolman John Frey last Oct. 28 in a West Oakland Negro district.

The prosecution said the killing occurred after Frey stopped a car containing Newton and another Negro for questioning about traffic tickets. Frey was shot five times and bled to death. Another officer, Herbert Heanes, was critically wounded, and Newton was shot once.

The verdict ended a eight-week trial conducted in the atmosphere of an armed camp.

Dozens of policemen were in the courthourse during the trial and spectators were searched daily before entering the courtroom.

Negro militants had predicted trouble if the verdict went against Newton but the city was quiet today.

Newton stared expressionless when the verdict was read. As the jury was dismissed, an unidentified person among the spectators shouted, "Black Power!"

The jury found Newton innocent of a second count, assault and battery with a deadly weapon on Heanes. It ruled, too, that Newton's 1964 knifing conviction was a felony and that therefore the current manslaughter conviction could carry a penalty of two to 15 years in prison instead of one to 15.

The jury contained one Negro, its foreman.

Teacher Strike Goes On In New York's Schools

NEW YORK (AP) - Meetings between school and teachers' union officials continued today in an effort to open public schools for 1.1 million pupils.

No definite word came from the session.

Mayor John V. Lindsay said Sunday that the schools would open. So did Mrs. Rose Shapiro, president of the Board of Education.

But Albert Shanker, head of the 53,000-member teachers union which voted overwhelmingly to strike, said there would be "picket lines about every school" even if a settlement was reached. Opening of the schools today "would be impossible," he said.

Rhody McCoy, head of the governing board of the Ocean Hill - Brownsville demonstration school project in Brooklyn dismissed 10 teachers last spring for alleged insubordination and touched off the crisis, intimated Sunday there might be a compromise but added, "they're forcing it on us."

Shanker, president of the United Federation of Teachers, has demanded reinstatement of the 10 teachers to their original classroom duties.

McCoy countered, "They will be brought back against our wishes and will be reassigned," McCoy added the teachers would be given "appropriate work," including classroom duty.

The mayor intervened Saturday in the dispute, and conducted five hours of negotiations in City Hall Sunday.

Dr. Bernard E. Donovan, superintendent of schools, was asked Sunday whether the safety of the children might be endangered in the absence of the teachers and supervisors in event of a strike. The supervisors association said its members will not work if a strike occurs.

"We'll handle it tomorrow morning," Donovan replied. "If nobody shows up, obviously nobody shows up."

The 10 teachers who appealed their dismissals were cleared by a trial examiner.

Afterward, Donovan ordered the teachers' reinstatement. But the Brooklyn governing board balked.

Improvised Slag Walks Proposed For Maine Blvd.

Responding to many complaints from parents whose children must walk along Maine Blvd. to reach the new school complex, Councilman John Wilson said today Council and the administration are working on plans to provide a three-foot slag walkway off the traveled section of the roadway.

Wilson said the problem of lack of sidewalks was discussed informally by Council Saturday and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Engineer George Bloomgren were asked to obtain figures on construction of the walk.

He said the work will be undertaken shortly if the cost is not "prohibitive." The total cost of the slag has been estimated at $90, but there will be additional expense for cutting weeds.

The walk would run from the junction at Ambrose Ave. and Vine St. to the new school.

In 1954 a slide tore 185,000 tons of rock and earth from Prospect Point on the American side of Niagara Falls.

Burglar Takes $174 At Home Near Salem

LISBON — A burglar took $150 from a cookbook and $24 from a purse Friday night at the home of William Young on Route 45, Salem RD 3.

Young notified the sheriff's office at 3:30 p.m. Saturday. He said the intruder took two $50's, two $20's and one $10 from a cookbook in the basement kitchen and one $20 and four $1's from a purse on a table.

Deputy Robert Wellington said entry was gained through an unlocked sliding glass door on the east side of the house.

Credit Move Revealed To Back Pounds

BASEL, Switzerlanc (AP) — The Bank of International Settlements today announced a new $2-billion credit to bolster the pound sterling.

The credit, which will make foreign currencies available any time holders of pounds want to exchange them in large quantities, will run for 10 years, with a three-year grace period after that before any repayments need be made.

Twelve countries will participate: Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, West Germany, Italy, Japan, Holland, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and the United States.

Ottmar Emminger, No. 2 man in the West German federal bank, told newsmen that West Germany would make available $400 million of the amount.

Led by the United States and West Germany, the central banks of the 12 nations agreed on the credit at a meeting that lasted until after midnight Sunday. The purpose is to restore confidence in the pound, which once more has been badly weakened by Britain's persistent tendency to spend more abroad than it earns.

The credit also assures holders of pounds—chiefly the oil-rich Arabs of the Middle East—of other currencies into which they can convert their sterling holdings if they desire. But the British and the central bankers hope that the granting of the credit will engender so much confidence in the pound that much of the credit will not have to be used.

Detectives Check Man's Odd Death

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Detectives figure somebody went to a lot of trouble to make Gary Wheatt's death look like an accident. Wheatt, 22, was killed by a shotgun, then his body was placed on railroad tracks, police said Sunday.

Detective Harry Davidson said from all appearances the death of the 22-year-old Wheatt had been plotted. Davidson has not ruled out the possibility that Wheatt was killed in a gangland murder.

The body was found before dawn Sunday by Edward Irwin, an engineer for Penn Central. The train pushed the body off the tracks on West 10th Street near the Cuyahoga River, then dragged it backwards about 20 feet when the engine reversed.

Davidson said he is convinced Wheatt was killed elsewhere and his body dumped on the tracks to make it look like he was hit by a train. The time of death was placed at 3 a.m. Sunday, at least three hours before Irwin spotted the body from his engine.

Wheatt lived at a hotel on Euclid Avenue.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. bombing halt and a Saigon government "predisposed to a more modest settlement" of the Vietnam war have been suggested by Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield as part of a new U.S. approach.

"The United States has never had and does not now have a commitment to take, retake or to hold all of South Vietnam for any particular government in Saigon," Mansfield said in a report released Sunday.

He said conflicting views at the Paris exploratory peace talks "are irreconcilable in their present form," but a new approach might bring results.

Mansfield suggested a revised U.S. effort to "concentrate and consolidate the military effort" and said the alternative is a long, monumental U.S. military effort to maintain control for the Saigon government.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Restoration of enduring confidence and stability in the international monetary fund depends primarily on the United States and United Kingdom curing their external economy ills, the International Monetary Fund says.

Meanwhile European cooperation with U.S. and U.K. measures to correct their balance-of-payment deficits indicates the challenge of international adjustment is being met, the 109-nation agency said in an annual report released Sunday.

Capital Footnotes

The president of B'nai B'rith has called on the "silent majority" of Negroes to speak out on what they want for America. Dr. William A. Wexler of Savannah, Ga., opening the Jewish organization's convention in Washington, said this means not accepting white America's cliches but joining in an honest dialogue with it.

Severe teacher shortages—particularly in such fields as special education—despite record number of teachers this year are reported by the National Education Association. It says schools are short 264,750 qualified teachers—an improvement by 30,000 over last year—with all states surveyed except Georgia reporting "some" to "substantial" shortages.

Capital Quote

"If this trend towards guerrilla bands—and that is what they are—continues, there is no question in my mind but that strong legislation is inevitable to stop their activities. As president I would propose such legislation." —Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Democratic presidential nominee, saying "armed terrorist groups" cannot be tolerated in America.

Ohio U. Denies Union Charges

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio University's personnel director, Ward Wilson, denied Sunday that the university had broken its working agreement with Local 1699, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes by hiring non-union workers.

Local 1699 president Oscar McGee told Wilson earlier, Wilson reported, that the union would not resume talks on the employment of a non-union janitorial service at the nearly completed convocation center at the campus.

McGee described the hiring of the service as "illegal" and said his local voted Saturday to picket the convocation center.

McGee said Saturday night, at a union meeting, that he expected craft union members employed on convocation center construction, to honor his pickets.

Miss America Begins Long, Arduous Reign

NEW YORK (AP)—The newly crowned Miss America, Judith Anne Ford, arrived Sunday to begin a 10-day visit as part of her year's reign.

The 18-year-old blonde from Belvidere, Ill., will have a busy schedule of wardrobe fittings, interviews and conferences as she gets ready for the 200,000 miles of travel that go with her title.

Miss Ford can expect to earn about $85,000 in personal appearance fees during the year.

She is scheduled to hold a news conference Tuesday.

Meanwhile, a spokesman said, she will be in seculsion at Barclay Hotel, resting from her four nights of competition in Atlantic City, N.J.

After an acrobatic performance on a trampoline during the talent contest Saturday night, the 5-foot-7, 125 - pound beauty fielded reporters' questions at a news conference Sunday morning following only two hours' sleep.

"Do blondes really have more fun?" she was asked.

"I've never been a brunette to compare it with," answered Miss America, who is 36-24-36.

Judi was a straight-A student in her freshman year at the University of Southern Louisiana. She was the first coed in the school's 61year history to win a varsity athletic letter.

As the only woman member of the school's trampoline team, she finished second in the junior national AAU championships this year.

Judi says she plans to finish her education at the University of Illinois and to become a physical education teacher.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ford, live in Belvidere, where her father is a director of labor relations for the Sunstrand Corp. Her brother Don is a medical student.

Accidental Shooting Claims Woman, 21

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Police described the shooting of a young woman here Sunday as "apparently accidental", but said it was still under investigation.

Leslie Christine Jones, 21, of Circleville, was shot in the back Sunday morning with a .22 caliber rifle. The bullet exited through the chest.

Her husband, John, 22, rushed her to Berger Hospital where she was declared dead.

Jones stated, through his attorney, that he squeezed the trigger of the rifle not realizing it was loaded.

The Rh-factor in blood analyses is named for the rhesus monkey, a favorite animal of medical researchers.

Credit Move Revealed To Back Pounds

BASEL, Switzerlanc (AP) — The Bank of International Settlements today announced a new $2-billion credit to bolster the pound sterling.

The credit, which will make foreign currencies available any time holders of pounds want to exchange them in large quantities, will run for 10 years, with a three-year grace period after that before any repayments need be made.

Twelve countries will participate: Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, West Germany, Italy, Japan, Holland, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and the United States.

Ottmar Emminger, No. 2 man in the West German federal bank, told newsmen that West Germany would make available $400 million of the amount.

Led by the United States and West Germany, the central banks of the 12 nations agreed on the credit at a meeting that lasted until after midnight Sunday. The purpose is to restore confidence in the pound, which once more has been badly weakened by Britain's persistent tendency to spend more abroad than it earns.

The credit also assures holders of pounds—chiefly the oil-rich Arabs of the Middle East—of other currencies into which they can convert their sterling holdings if they desire. But the British and the central bankers hope that the granting of the credit will engender so much confidence in the pound that much of the credit will not have to be used.

Detectives Check Man's Odd Death

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Detectives figure somebody went to a lot of trouble to make Gary Wheatt's death look like an accident. Wheatt, 22, was killed by a shotgun, then his body was placed on railroad tracks, police said Sunday.

Detective Harry Davidson said from all appearances the death of the 22-year-old Wheatt had been plotted. Davidson has not ruled out the possibility that Wheatt was killed in a gangland murder.

The body was found before dawn Sunday by Edward Irwin, an engineer for Penn Central. The train pushed the body off the tracks on West 10th Street near the Cuyahoga River, then dragged it backwards about 20 feet when the engine reversed.

Davidson said he is convinced Wheatt was killed elsewhere and his body dumped on the tracks to make it look like he was hit by a train. The time of death was placed at 3 a.m. Sunday, at least three hours before Irwin spotted the body from his engine.

Wheatt lived at a hotel on Euclid Avenue.

Kennedy Kin Dies

BOSTON (AP) — Thomas A. Fitzgerald, uncle of the late President John F. Kennedy, died Saturday night in Massachusetts General Hospital after an illness of three weeks. He was 73. Fitzgerald was the son of the late Boston Mayor John F. (Honey Fitz) Fitzgerald and brother of Mrs. Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, the late president's mother. A retired engineer, he held many Boston city posts including city commissioner.

Historian Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Historian Crane Brinton, author of 15 books and a lecturer at Harvard University for 45 years, died Saturday after a lengthy illness. He was 70.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. bombing halt and a Saigon government "predisposed to a more modest settlement" of the Vietnam war have been suggested by Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield as part of a new U.S. approach.

"The United States has never had and does not now have a commitment to take, retake or to hold all of South Vietnam for any particular government in Saigon," Mansfield said in a report released Sunday.

He said conflicting views at the Paris exploratory peace talks "are irreconcilable in their present form," but a new approach might bring results.

Mansfield suggested a revised U.S. effort to "concentrate and consolidate the military effort" and said the alternative is a long, monumental U.S. military effort to maintain control for the Saigon government.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Restoration of enduring confidence and stability in the international monetary fund depends primarily on the United States and United Kingdom curing their external economy ills, the International Monetary Fund says.

Meanwhile European cooperation with U.S. and U.K. measures to correct their balance-of-payment deficits indicates the challenge of international adjustment is being met, the 109-nation agency said in an annual report released Sunday.

Capital Footnotes

The president of B'nai B'rith has called on the "silent majority" of Negroes to speak out on what they want for America. Dr. William A. Wexler of Savannah, Ga., opening the Jewish organization's convention in Washington, said this means not accepting white America's cliches but joining in an honest dialogue with it.

Severe teacher shortages—particularly in such fields as special education—despite record number of teachers this year are reported by the National Education Association. It says schools are short 264,750 qualified teachers—an improvement by 30,000 over last year—with all states surveyed except Georgia reporting "some" to "substantial" shortages.

Capital Quote

"If this trend towards guerrilla bands—and that is what they are—continues, there is no question in my mind but that strong legislation is inevitable to stop their activities. As president I would propose such legislation." —Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Democratic presidential nominee, saying "armed terrorist groups" cannot be tolerated in America.

Ohio U. Denies Union Charges

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio University's personnel director, Ward Wilson, denied Sunday that the university had broken its working agreement with Local 1699, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes by hiring non-union workers.

Local 1699 president Oscar McGee told Wilson earlier, Wilson reported, that the union would not resume talks on the employment of a non-union janitorial service at the nearly completed convocation center at the campus.

McGee described the hiring of the service as "illegal" and said his local voted Saturday to picket the convocation center.

McGee said Saturday night, at a union meeting, that he expected craft union members employed on convocation center construction, to honor his pickets.

The first ship to sail directly from the United States to China was the "Empress of China," which left New York in 1784.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I do a good job of washing out coffee carafes?

A. — Use a small piece of sponge about an inch square to wash out these carafes. Fill the bottle with soapy water, put in the sponge, then shake the whole business well. Then pour most of the water out, leaving the sponge inside, and slide it around on the soiled spots. Does a good cleaning job.

Q. — Is there any way to can remove some shallow scratches from mirrors?

A. — Try rubbing with a piece of hard felt that has been moistened in water and dipped either in red or black rouge.

Q. — Is therean y way to mend broken chalk pieces?

A. — Try rubbing some canned evaporated milk on the broken ends with your finger, then sticking them together.

Rx your Pharmacist corner

SAVAGES PERFORM BRAIN SURGERY

It would seem improbable that primitive man could perform Brain Surgery. Yet unearthed skulls, thousands of years old, show evidence of TREPHINING — an amazing operation by which the human skull is perforated so as to remove a portion of the bone.

Trephining is performed today to relieve the brain from pressures brought upon it by tumors . . . however, ancient man believed that all his ills were caused by demons lodging themselves in the human body. He assumed that Migraine, Insanity, Epilepsy were ills of the head, so a hole there, he reasoned, would force the evil spirit out —to seek residence elsewhere.

There is a wide distinction between primitive ways and the scientific course followed by modern medicine . . .

There is also a wide range of improvements rendered by the pharmacy that keeps abreast of the times. Here at CITIZEN'S you'll find up-to-dateness a vital part of our business. How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I do a good job of washing out coffee carafes?

A. — Use a small piece of sponge about an inch square to wash out these carafes. Fill the bottle with soapy water, put in the sponge, then shake the whole business well. Then pour most of the water out, leaving the sponge inside, and slide it around on the soiled spots. Does a good cleaning job.

SAVAGES PERFORM BRAIN SURGERY

It would seem improbable that primitive man could perform Brain Surgery. Yet unearthed skulls, thousands of years old, show evidence of TREPHINING — an amazing operation by which the human skull is perforated so as to remove a portion of the bone.

Trephining is performed today to relieve the brain from pressures brought upon it by tumors . . . however, ancient man believed that all his ills were caused by demons lodging themselves in the human body. He assumed that Migraine, Insanity, Epilepsy were ills of the head, so a hole there, he reasoned, would force the evil spirit out —to seek residence elsewhere.

There is a wide distinction between primitive ways and the scientific course followed by modern medicine . . .

There is also a wide range of improvements rendered by the pharmacy that keeps abreast of the times. Here at CITIZEN'S you'll find up-to-dateness a vital part of our business. Officer Hurt As Prisoner Puts Up Battle

An East Liverpool patrolman suffered painful facial injuries and broken teeth and two of his fellow officers were hurt less seriously Sunday afternoon in subduing a 23-year-old man who put up a fight after he had been arrested on an intoxication charge in a Dresden Ave. club.

Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes, struck on the mouth and face by Gary Ice of Ravine St., was released after treatment at City Hospital. Police said he suffered several lacerations, including one that required eight stitches to close.

Patrolman Jack Strobel was treated at the emergency room for a foreign substance — tear gas — in his eyes and Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice was treated for scratches on the right hand.

Ice is charged with assault and battery on Officer Brookes, "resisting or abusing a police officer" and intoxication.

He had been free on $565 in bonds. But the sureties were raised to a total of $2,050 when he appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and asked a continuance that would allow him time to obtain counsel. The judge set the trial for next Monday. He set $1,000 bonds on the resisting and assault charges and a $50 bond on the intoxication count. Ice was unable to post the bonds immediately and was placed in jail.

Police said Officer Brookes was dispatched to the Buckeye Club on Dresden Ave. about 1:30 yesterday afternoon on a report of an unruly patron. After he had placed Ice in custody on the intoxication charge and the two had gone onto the sidewalk, the defendant started a battle with Brookes and Strobel, police said.

Tear gas was used in an effort to subdue the prisoner, but the officers suffered more from its effects than the prisoner, police said. It was while both Strobel and Brookes were suffering from the effects of the gas that Ice attacked the officer, police said.

Lt. Tice and Patrolman Orin C. Smith were dispatched to help quell the struggle.

When the Ice case was called this morning, Smith told the court that "Officer Brookes was injured to the extent that he is not able to be here."

About 40 miles north of Duc Lap, South Vietnamese militiamen and an armored column from the U.S. 4th Infantry Division ran into a North Vietnamese force while opening a section of a highway north of Ban Me Thuot. The militiamen reported killing 47 of the enemy while suffering one dead and three wounded. No American casualties were reported.

Ban Me Thuot, like Duc Lap, is considered a key enemy target in the central highlands. It is an important provincial capital and headquarters of the Montagnards—mountain tribesmen.

Saigon Area Battle

In one of the battles near Saigon, troops of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division tangled with part of a veteran Viet Cong regiment at X Sa Nho village, 30 miles northwest of Saigon. They reported killing 35 enemy and taking two prisoners. U.S. losses were put at 12 killed and 21 wounded.

The Americans burned down most of the houses in the village after the enemy withdrew. A military spokesman said every house set ablaze contained North Vietnamese army equipment, weapon, packs or uniforms.

U.S. ground and air forces also chased small units of Viet Cong on the run in the Mekong Delta, 17 miles south of Saigon. Helicopter gunships accounted for most of the 47 enemy reported killed in this action. Five Americans were reported wounded.

Fighting Started Saturday

The delta fighting began Saturday when more than 200 U.S. 9th Division infantrymen landed along the Rach Ben Tre River and engaged a Viet Cong force of equal size. About 800 American reinforcements poured in, and the outnumbered enemy broke and fled, many of them plunging into the river.

In Saigon, terrorits assassinated an election official in an apparent attempt to disrupt voting for a vacant seat in the South Vietnamese House of Representatives. The slain official was Thick Man, a representative of Cao Phong Van, a candidate for the seat. It was one of eight terrorist incidents over the weekend.

In naval action, a U.S. spokesman said the destroyers Berkeley and Harwood sank or damaged at least 45 enemy supply boats in waters off the demilitarized zone. Air observers said the enemy vessels were 60 to 70 feet long.

Beaver Local Election May Attract Light Vote

The 18 polling places will open at 6:30 a. m. and close at 6:30 p. m.

Thirteen new classrooms and other facilities are scheduled to be provided if the issue is approved. The bonds would be retired with a 2-mill levy.

The Democrats have a choice for the Senate nomination of State Atty. Gen. Phil Hansen or state Development Director Milt Weilenmann. Utah's Democratic governor, Calvin L. Rampton, has no primary opposition. Two Republicans are vying to oppose him.

Man Injured In Wreck Of Auto, Cycle

A Bloomingdale man was admitted to City Hospital as the result of injuries received in a motorcycle-auto accident at Wellsville Sunday at 11:45 a.m.

Involved was a 1961 sedan driven by Robert E. Culp, 16, of Irondale RD 1 and a motorcycle operated by Robert McCartney, 43, of Bloomingdale.

Officer Charles Amato was told by McCartney that Culp signaled to turn left on Clark Ave., then started to make a right turn. After it struck the Culp car, the cycle continued down 22nd St. and fell on top of McCartney. Culp told police he had turned on his right-hand signal and at no time indicated he planned to make a left turn.

A witness said he could not determine which turn signal light was on, but that Culp was in the proper lane of traffic and gave no indication that he was to make a left hand turn.

McCartney was treated for contusions, abrasions of the forehead, abrasions of the knee and a possible fractured pelvis. He was listed as "fair."

The accident is still under investigation.

Several parents, including Muschweck and Bratt, congregated with their children in front of the marine shop on Route 267 this morning.

When the buses failed to stop, one of the parents accompanied the children down the road to the school.

Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan and two deputies were on hand and provided "extra eyes." However, this is not planned as a regular procedure, it was explained.

The parents had planned to stop traffic this morning and accompany the children. However, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon informed them they would be guilty of obstructing traffic and would be liable for arrest, so the procedure was altered.

At one spot on Route 267, students have to step onto the highway because of mounds of dirt. The highway department is in the process of widening the berm at this curve to alleviate the situation, it was pointed out.

Enrollment this morning was 5,248. It broke down as follows: High School, 1,251; East Junior, 413; Westgate Junior, 1,004; East Elementary, 689; LaCroft, 668; North Elementary, 744, and Westgate Elementary, 659. Total enrollment is four less than last year. However, officials said the estimated enrollment at Westgate was for 100 more students than were enrolled today and they expect the number to increase.

"Choose the New Day where every American child—regardless of his color or his last name or his religion—can receive the best education in the world, where all of us stand 'together and equal'—and proud of it."

"When people have hope," Humphrey said, "they will not accept what is wrong. They want something better. They want it now. And they are right.

"I say this nation is willing to pay the price—in dollars, in personal sacrifice and in moral commitment to make this one America, and to do it peacefully," he said.

After a tickertape parade and speech here, plus two television tapings, Humphrey planned to head westward for Denver—and two more appearances—before flying on to Los Angeles tonight.

On Tuesday, he campaigns in Los Angeles and Houston. A revised schedule for Wednesday adds a stop in New Orleans, for a speech to the 50th annual convention of the American Legion, before moving on to a rally in Flint, Mich., and a county fair in Saginaw, Mich., that night.

Humphrey fired a double-barreled domestic and foreign attack at Nixon Sunday, accusing the GOP nominee of trying to exploit the fears and tensions of many Americans while picturing himself as a "peace man" and Nixon as a hawk.

Speaking to a B'nai B'rith convention, he charged that Nixon and the Republicans "have chosen this year to join forces with the most reactionary elements in American society" but expressed confidence that the nation's "great moderate majority" would reject such an effort.

Earlier, in an hour-long television interview, he said, "My general attitude about our foreign policy and national security is a little less hard-line than Mr. Nixon's," adding that "I believe that Mr. Nixon has a tendency to take a much more military stance than I do."

If elected president, Humphrey said "I will take new initiatives . . . I believe that I am a peace man."

He was interviewed on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

hospital, about 40,000 might be returned to the community without surgery. That leaves 80,000 persons each year who "clearly require new forms of surgery," Cooper said.

There are about 8,000 deaths each year from congenital heart disease occurring before the age of 1 year, but these are largely due to lesions that could be handled with other surgery. Various other cases would amount to about 1,000 additional persons a year to be added to the 80,000 transplant candidates.

Looking at a potential supply of donors, Cooper said there are 260,000 deaths of men and women between the ages of 15 and 64 each year from causes other than cancer or heart disease.

Assuming that all would be suitable donors, he added, that means that one out of three would have to be willing and available as a donor to supply the 80,000 candidates.

Driver, 17, Charged In Hancock Accident

A 17-year-old city youth was charged with reckless driving as the result of a one-car accident Sunday night on the Little Blue Rd., near Newell.

Roy R. Shattenberg of 1187 Oakwood Ave. was operating a 1967 sedan which received $500 damage when it struck a utility pole in an effort to avoid a collision with another auto.

Shattenberg told deputies from the Hancock County sheriff's office that he came over the crest of a hill and had to "move over" for a car partly in his lane.

The accident was timed at 11:16 p.m. Shattenberg was uninjured.

Officer Hurt As Prisoner Puts Up Battle

An East Liverpool patrolman suffered painful facial injuries and broken teeth and two of his fellow officers were hurt less seriously Sunday afternoon in subduing a 23-year-old man who put up a fight after he had been arrested on an intoxication charge in a Dresden Ave. club.

Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes, struck on the mouth and face by Gary Ice of Ravine St., was released after treatment at City Hospital. Police said he suffered several lacerations, including one that required eight stitches to close.

Patrolman Jack Strobel was treated at the emergency room for a foreign substance — tear gas — in his eyes and Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice was treated for scratches on the right hand.

Ice is charged with assault and battery on Officer Brookes, "resisting or abusing a police officer" and intoxication.

He had been free on $565 in bonds. But the sureties were raised to a total of $2,050 when he appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and asked a continuance that would allow him time to obtain counsel. The judge set the trial for next Monday. He set $1,000 bonds on the resisting and assault charges and a $50 bond on the intoxication count. Ice was unable to post the bonds immediately and was placed in jail.

Police said Officer Brookes was dispatched to the Buckeye Club on Dresden Ave. about 1:30 yesterday afternoon on a report of an unruly patron. After he had placed Ice in custody on the intoxication charge and the two had gone onto the sidewalk, the defendant started a battle with Brookes and Strobel, police said.

Tear gas was used in an effort to subdue the prisoner, but the officers suffered more from its effects than the prisoner, police said. It was while both Strobel and Brookes were suffering from the effects of the gas that Ice attacked the officer, police said.

Lt. Tice and Patrolman Orin C. Smith were dispatched to help quell the struggle.

When the Ice case was called this morning, Smith told the court that "Officer Brookes was injured to the extent that he is not able to be here."

two weeks ago. It is considered vital for observing enemy infiltration into the central highlands.

About 40 miles north of Duc Lap, South Vietnamese militiamen and an armored column from the U.S. 4th Infantry Division ran into a North Vietnamese force while opening a section of a highway north of Ban Me Thuot. The militiamen reported killing 47 of the enemy while suffering one dead and three wounded. No American casualties were reported.

Ban Me Thuot, like Duc Lap, is considered a key enemy target in the central highlands. It is an important provincial capital and headquarters of the Montagnards—mountain tribesmen.

Saigon Area Battle

In one of the battles near Saigon, troops of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division tangled with part of a veteran Viet Cong regiment at X Sa Nho village, 30 miles northwest of Saigon. They reported killing 35 enemy and taking two prisoners. U.S. losses were put at 12 killed and 21 wounded.

The Americans burned down most of the houses in the village after the enemy withdrew. A military spokesman said every house set ablaze contained North Vietnamese army equipment, weapon, packs or uniforms.

U.S. ground and air forces also chased small units of Viet Cong on the run in the Mekong Delta, 17 miles south of Saigon. Helicopter gunships accounted for most of the 47 enemy reported killed in this action. Five Americans were reported wounded.

Fighting Started Saturday

The delta fighting began Saturday when more than 200 U.S. 9th Division infantrymen landed along the Rach Ben Tre River and engaged a Viet Cong force of equal size. About 800 American reinforcements poured in, and the outnumbered enemy broke and fled, many of them plunging into the river.

In Saigon, terrorits assassinated an election official in an apparent attempt to disrupt voting for a vacant seat in the South Vietnamese House of Representatives. The slain official was Thick Man, a representative of Cao Phong Van, a candidate for the seat. It was one of eight terrorist incidents over the weekend.

In naval action, a U.S. spokesman said the destroyers Berkeley and Harwood sank or damaged at least 45 enemy supply boats in waters off the demilitarized zone. Air observers said the enemy vessels were 60 to 70 feet long.

Man Injured In Wreck Of Auto, Cycle

A Bloomingdale man was admitted to City Hospital as the result of injuries received in a motorcycle-auto accident at Wellsville Sunday at 11:45 a.m.

Involved was a 1961 sedan driven by Robert E. Culp, 16, of Irondale RD 1 and a motorcycle operated by Robert McCartney, 43, of Bloomingdale.

Officer Charles Amato was told by McCartney that Culp signaled to turn left on Clark Ave., then started to make a right turn. After it struck the Culp car, the cycle continued down 22nd St. and fell on top of McCartney. Culp told police he had turned on his right-hand signal and at no time indicated he planned to make a left turn.

A witness said he could not determine which turn signal light was on, but that Culp was in the proper lane of traffic and gave no indication that he was to make a left hand turn.

McCartney was treated for contusions, abrasions of the forehead, abrasions of the knee and a possible fractured pelvis. He was listed as "fair."

The accident is still under investigation.

Young Motorists Figure In Many Fatal Mishaps

HARRISBURG (AP) — More than one-third of fatal accidents on state roads were caused by drivers under 25 years of age.

This is the conclusion of a survey by the state Department of Highways, which investigated each of the 2,112 fatal accidents that occurred in the state in 1967. The department reported that 772 of these accidents were caused by drivers under 25.

The figure is considered significant because there are fewer drivers in the 16 to 25 year age bracket than in higher age classes.

Last April the Bureau of Traffic Safety reported that this age group committed one half of the traffic violations recorded in the state. This age group comprises one-fourth of the licensed drive in the state.

The information is contained in a 33-page statistical summary representing data collected from on-the-spot investigations of traffic mishaps, both fatal and non-fatal.

The probe was conducted by a set of investigatory teams consisting of traffic engineers, at least one law enforcement officer, and a physician. A spokesman for the Highways Department said such analysis was initiated under a program begun last year.

The information derived from this and similar studies will be turned over to safety groups, police departments, and other interested governmental and non-governmental organizations in hopes that in determining the causes of accidents, means can be found to prevent them, the spokesman said.

The death toll on state highways last year was 2,425 in 2,112 fatal accidents. In 1966, there were 1,969 fatals, claiming the lives of 2,226.

The 1967 survey revealed that 70 per cent of fatal accidents took place between the hours of 3 p.m. and 3 a.m. Saturday led other days of the week in fatal accidents with 457, followd by Sunday with 340, and Friday with 332.

The leading month for auto deaths was November, which had 218. December followed with 205, September had 200, and October 196.

Most fatal accidents happened during fair weather, the survey showed—1,573 took place when there were no adverse conditions.

Allegheny County, which includes Pittsburgh, led all counties in traffic fatalities with 189, although Philadelphia had 188. Westmoreland County had 89.

None of the state's 67 counties was free of an auto death in 1967. Forest County, the state's smallest in population, had one.

The department listed driving on the wrong side of the road as the greatest single cause of auto fatalities. This violation led to 288 mishaps.

The survey found that a total 722 accidents were caused by drivers who exceeded the speed limit, drove too fast for road conditions, or tried to negotiate a curve without reducing speed.

When the figures were broken down by gender, it was found that males caused 1,771 of the fatal accidents, while females were held responsible for 313. There were only 28 fatals in which blame could not be place

A quarter of the total, 490 accidents, involved pedestrians, the department said. The majority of these occurred when someone walked into the path of a motor vehicle, the survey said.

Officers List 4 Accidents

Four mishaps marred weekend traffic in East Liverpool.

A motorist complained of a whiplash injury of the neck after his vehicle was hit from the rear Saturday at 5:10 p.m. on St. Clair Ave. about 30 feet north of Morton St., police said.

Harold T. Bricker, 37, of 400 Thompson Ave. told police he was driving south about 25 miles an hour when his 1969 model "club wagon" was hit by a 1964 two-door sedan operated by Jack Junior Pitts, 23, of 903 Princeton Ave. Pitts told police his brakes failed. Bricker went to City Hospital for treatment.

A 1965 sedan driven by William E. Vaupel, 51, of 313 15th St., Beaver Falls, and a 1963 station wagon operated by Elizabeth Jane Hilditch, 28, of 1027 Avondale St. were damaged in a mishap Saturday at 2:45 p.m. on Broadway at Potters Alley.

Vaupel was backing from a parking spot at the curb and the woman was driving south on Broadway. Both right-hand doors of the Hilditch car were damaged.

A backing auto also figured in a mishap Sunday at 5:23 p.m. on a parking lot at Al's Atlantic Service Station on E. 3rd St.

The backing 1964 sedan driven by Thomas E. Cline, 17, of 530 Grant St., Newell, hit a parked 1967 sedan owned by Joan M. Fetty, of 609 Edgewood Ave. There was a scratch on the left rear fender of the Fetty car and the rear bumper was damaged, officers said.

Another parked car was damaged in a collision Saturday on Pennsylvania Ave.

The parked 1962 auto, owned by Ben Hipsley Motors of W. 5th St., was hit by a westbound 1960 model station wagon driven by Ira Wall, 74, of 1105 Mapletree St.

Wall told police he was driving west about 20 miles an hour when he pulled to the right because of oncoming traffic and hit the parked auto. Damage was minor, officers said.

GOP Party Favored, According To Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Americans feel the Republican party can deal with the nation's vital problems more effectively than the Democrats, according to the Gallup Poll.

The poll organization said Sunday that a survey taken in mid-August found that 37 per cent of those questioned thought the GOP handled vital issues better; 25 per cent favored the Democrats and 38 per cent were undecided.

When the undecideds were divided equally the Republicans had a 56-44 edge.

Four years ago, Gallup said, a similar poll gave the Democrats a 62-38 margin and they went on to win the election with 61 per cent of the vote to 29 per cent for the Republicans.

The present poll also reported that the four major worries of the electorate are: the war in Vietnam, 51 per cent; crime and lawlessness, 21 per cent; civil rights, 20 per cent, and the high cost of living, 7 per cent.

The federal government does not operate any colleges for Indians.

Sen. Hugh Scott Takes A 'Swing' At Chicago Cops

YORK, Pa. (AP) — U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., took a swing at club-swinging Chicago police over the weekend.

Addressing the convention of state Young Republicans here, Saturday, he said the treatment of young demonstrators by police at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago two weeks ago proved that the Democratic party had abandoned youth.

"And they have the bandages to prove it," Scott said.

"There was no justification, indeed, no justice, in the indiscriminate head-cracking that went on," Scott said. "rarely has a city machine performance been so visibly bad for people."

The police action contributed little toward clarifying the issues, he said.

On the issues themselves, Scott said his party would seek a Vietnam settlement "which can lead to a long term and stable peace." The party will also attack the problems at home, including "the desperate urban crisis," he said.

Junior Rifle Club Will Meet Again

Following a summer recess, the Wellsville Jaycees Junior Rifle Club will resume its meetings Wednesday night at 7 at the range on the third floor of City Hall there.

George Hardman, club leader, urges all former members to attend and pointed out that membership is open to both boys and girls 12 to 18.

The purpose of the club is to teach gun safety and marksmanship under the rules and regulations of the National Rifle Association.

Dan MacLean is instructor.

Officers will be elected and the charter for the sixth straight year renewed with the NRA during a later meeting, Hardman said.

Test Controls Asked

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Animal welfare organizations have called for laws to control experimental vivisection of live animals in South African research centers. Baboons and dogs were extensively tested by pioneer heart transplant surgeons before the first human heart graft was performed here last December. More recently, a baboon cornea was transplanted to a human eye and a second head was grafted onto a dog. One animal welfare spokesman urged restriction on what he termed "useless experimentation."

They Move Slowly

CHANDIGARH, India (AP) — A member of the Punjab State Assembly pointed out that approval was given 54 years ago for construction of one rural road and that nothing has been done except to survey the route. Public Works Minister Narinder Singh said construction of the road was planned sometime during the next five years —if funds were available.

Young Motorists Figure In Many Fatal Mishaps

HARRISBURG (AP) — More than one-third of fatal accidents on state roads were caused by drivers under 25 years of age.

This is the conclusion of a survey by the state Department of Highways, which investigated each of the 2,112 fatal accidents that occurred in the state in 1967. The department reported that 772 of these accidents were caused by drivers under 25.

The figure is considered significant because there are fewer drivers in the 16 to 25 year age bracket than in higher age classes.

Last April the Bureau of Traffic Safety reported that this age group committed one half of the traffic violations recorded in the state. This age group comprises one-fourth of the licensed drive in the state.

The information is contained in a 33-page statistical summary representing data collected from on-the-spot investigations of traffic mishaps, both fatal and non-fatal.

The probe was conducted by a set of investigatory teams consisting of traffic engineers, at least one law enforcement officer, and a physician. A spokesman for the Highways Department said such analysis was initiated under a program begun last year.

The information derived from this and similar studies will be turned over to safety groups, police departments, and other interested governmental and non-governmental organizations in hopes that in determining the causes of accidents, means can be found to prevent them, the spokesman said.

The death toll on state highways last year was 2,425 in 2,112 fatal accidents. In 1966, there were 1,969 fatals, claiming the lives of 2,226.

The 1967 survey revealed that 70 per cent of fatal accidents took place between the hours of 3 p.m. and 3 a.m. Saturday led other days of the week in fatal accidents with 457, followd by Sunday with 340, and Friday with 332.

The leading month for auto deaths was November, which had 218. December followed with 205, September had 200, and October 196.

Most fatal accidents happened during fair weather, the survey showed—1,573 took place when there were no adverse conditions.

Allegheny County, which includes Pittsburgh, led all counties in traffic fatalities with 189, although Philadelphia had 188. Westmoreland County had 89.

None of the state's 67 counties was free of an auto death in 1967. Forest County, the state's smallest in population, had one.

The department listed driving on the wrong side of the road as the greatest single cause of auto fatalities. This violation led to 288 mishaps.

The survey found that a total 722 accidents were caused by drivers who exceeded the speed limit, drove too fast for road conditions, or tried to negotiate a curve without reducing speed.

When the figures were broken down by gender, it was found that males caused 1,771 of the fatal accidents, while females were held responsible for 313. There were only 28 fatals in which blame could not be place

A quarter of the total, 490 accidents, involved pedestrians, the department said. The majority of these occurred when someone walked into the path of a motor vehicle, the survey said.

Officers List 4 Accidents

Four mishaps marred weekend traffic in East Liverpool.

A motorist complained of a whiplash injury of the neck after his vehicle was hit from the rear Saturday at 5:10 p.m. on St. Clair Ave. about 30 feet north of Morton St., police said.

Harold T. Bricker, 37, of 400 Thompson Ave. told police he was driving south about 25 miles an hour when his 1969 model "club wagon" was hit by a 1964 two-door sedan operated by Jack Junior Pitts, 23, of 903 Princeton Ave. Pitts told police his brakes failed. Bricker went to City Hospital for treatment.

A 1965 sedan driven by William E. Vaupel, 51, of 313 15th St., Beaver Falls, and a 1963 station wagon operated by Elizabeth Jane Hilditch, 28, of 1027 Avondale St. were damaged in a mishap Saturday at 2:45 p.m. on Broadway at Potters Alley.

Vaupel was backing from a parking spot at the curb and the woman was driving south on Broadway. Both right-hand doors of the Hilditch car were damaged.

A backing auto also figured in a mishap Sunday at 5:23 p.m. on a parking lot at Al's Atlantic Service Station on E. 3rd St.

The backing 1964 sedan driven by Thomas E. Cline, 17, of 530 Grant St., Newell, hit a parked 1967 sedan owned by Joan M. Fetty, of 609 Edgewood Ave. There was a scratch on the left rear fender of the Fetty car and the rear bumper was damaged, officers said.

Another parked car was damaged in a collision Saturday on Pennsylvania Ave.

The parked 1962 auto, owned by Ben Hipsley Motors of W. 5th St., was hit by a westbound 1960 model station wagon driven by Ira Wall, 74, of 1105 Mapletree St.

Wall told police he was driving west about 20 miles an hour when he pulled to the right because of oncoming traffic and hit the parked auto. Damage was minor, officers said.

GOP Party Favored, According To Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Americans feel the Republican party can deal with the nation's vital problems more effectively than the Democrats, according to the Gallup Poll.

The poll organization said Sunday that a survey taken in mid-August found that 37 per cent of those questioned thought the GOP handled vital issues better; 25 per cent favored the Democrats and 38 per cent were undecided.

When the undecideds were divided equally the Republicans had a 56-44 edge.

Four years ago, Gallup said, a similar poll gave the Democrats a 62-38 margin and they went on to win the election with 61 per cent of the vote to 29 per cent for the Republicans.

The present poll also reported that the four major worries of the electorate are: the war in Vietnam, 51 per cent; crime and lawlessness, 21 per cent; civil rights, 20 per cent, and the high cost of living, 7 per cent.

The federal government does not operate any colleges for Indians.

Sen. Hugh Scott Takes A 'Swing' At Chicago Cops

YORK, Pa. (AP) — U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., took a swing at club-swinging Chicago police over the weekend.

Addressing the convention of state Young Republicans here, Saturday, he said the treatment of young demonstrators by police at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago two weeks ago proved that the Democratic party had abandoned youth.

"And they have the bandages to prove it," Scott said.

"There was no justification, indeed, no justice, in the indiscriminate head-cracking that went on," Scott said. "rarely has a city machine performance been so visibly bad for people."

The police action contributed little toward clarifying the issues, he said.

On the issues themselves, Scott said his party would seek a Vietnam setilement "which can lead to a long term and stable peace." The party will also attack the problems at home, including "the desperate urban crisis," he said.

Junior Rifle Club Will Meet Again

Following a summer recess, the Wellsville Jaycees Junior Rifle Club will resume its meetings Wednesday night at 7 at the range on the third floor of City Hall there.

George Hardman, club leader, urges all former members to attend and pointed out that membership is open to both boys and girls 12 to 18.

The purpose of the club is to teach gun safety and marksmanship under the rules and regulations of the National Rifle Association.

Dan MacLean is instructor.

Officers will be elected and the charter for the sixth straight year renewed with the NRA during a later meeting, Hardman said.

Test Controls Asked

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Animal welfare organizations have called for laws to control experimental vivisection of live animals in South African research centers. Baboons and dogs were extensively tested by pioneer heart transplant surgeons before the first human heart graft was performed here last December. More recently, a baboon cornea was transplanted to a human eye and a second head was grafted onto a dog. One animal welfare spokesman urged restriction on what he termed "useless experimentation."

They Move Slowly

CHANDIGARH, India (AP) — A member of the Punjab State Assembly pointed out that approval was given 54 years ago for construction of one rural road and that nothing has been done except to survey the route. Public Works Minister Narinder Singh said construction of the road was planned sometime during the next five years —if funds were available.

Years marking the close of centries are not leap years unless divisible by 400.

All Done With Mirrors

Mirrors are going to the floor, reflecting "things" instead of people. It's all in line with the new trend to shine that one sees on walls and in home furnishings.

Interior designers are using mirrors in intriguing ways to reflect the beauty of their own furnishings, but artist - designer Jack Denst of Chicago has another twist. He uses very inexpensive small mirrors to achieve unusual and startling effects at the floor level.

One - foot - square untrimmed mirrors are used at the base of a wall, perhaps three in width and two in height, to double the reflection of sculptures, pedestals, low tables.

THE MIRRORS, available in sizes 3¼ by 3¼ inches, 6 by 6, 12 by 6, 12 by 12 and 24 by 36 inches, are easily attached to the wall by spool - head aluminum pins, so sharp they do not disturb plaster, he advises. Or if the mirror artist prefers, two mirrors may project into the room at a triangle, held together snugly by a backing of plain adhesive tape.

Denst also cuts slits in small wood blocks to permit mounting a mirror on each one and then he sets one block forward and slightly to the side of another, all at floor level, to avoid reflection of "foot traffic." By painting stripes or solid colors, papering or mounting a collage on the rear of a front mirror, new color is added to the scene and is reflected by the next mirror.

By concentrating all mirrors at floor level and slightly above, and compounding the effect by turning a corner, the reflections are restricted to the decorative accents of a room alone.

THE ENDLESS possibilities of this mirror idea are apparent when one observes its visual impact on colorful blooms. You start out with a few geraniums and suddenly you have a garden. The shapes of bowls, vases, and the bubbling action of fountains are other pleasing effects.

The nicest part of this idea, says Denst, is that the mirrors are the most economical method of decoration he has discovered. He has figured out many ways to use these small mirrors intriguingly.

Four small mirrors taped together make a gleaming floor base for plants or flowers whose beauty is enhanced by being placed on the mirrors, an effect that can be further explored by putting a mirror cube next to the arrangement.

You tape four small mirrors together and place the cube next to the mirrored floor section for an additional pick-up. These two mirror ideas, he says, are ideal for translating into table decorations for a buffet party.

A MIRROR mobile is another fun idea. He suggests gluing together two mirrors of any single size with ordinary water - soluble linoleum paste. Between the two mirrors, and glued right with them, there should be a cord or wire to suspend this mobile from a point above.

The two - sided mirror will revolve slowly to reflect the color and patterns of draperies and wall-coverings. It will pick up the glistening prisms of chandeliers, and add a feeling of motion to the still life scenes in favorite paintings and other wall decorations, Denst observes.

If you decide on the mobile idea, mirrors should be glued together safely and cord or wire should be fastened securely.

MODULAR HOME may be an answer to urban renewal problems. This two-bedroom model is an end house for row homes and can be flown, completely assembled, from factory to site by helicopter or hauled in individual modules by truck.

Steel Feels Order Pinch

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Steelmakers are faced with a buyers' market and competition for new orders may result in some price concessions by the producers, Steel Magazine said today.

"A sharp drop in demand when strike hedging ended late in July has left producers' order books with few entries," the weekly journal of metalworking said. "The incoming order rate of most steel companies has dropped at least 50 per cent, and in some cases 60 per cent and more, from the peak of last spring."

The magazine said the steel buyer "has become king" because: "his steel inventory is bountiful, he has access to more steel than ever before, he can take his choice of buying it from U.S. mills or from abroad, he will see the foreign supplies grow faster than his needs, and he can expect the supply from U.S. mills to be free from interruption for three years—the duration of the new steel labor contract."

Steel said that raw steel production dropped 15.2 per cent in the first five weeks after the labor contract was signed and is now the lowest it has been since the week ended Dec. 28, 1963.

It is estimated last week's output at 1,896,000 net tons, the 11th consecutive week of decline.

Ft. Bragg in North Carolina is the largest military reservation in the U.S.

Settlement Reached

LOUDONVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Tentative settlement of a six-week strike at the Flexible Ohio Co. plant here was reached Saturday, pending ratification by members of Local 4781, United Steelworkers of America. Neither side would give details.

Construction Slated

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP)—Kenyon College announced Saturday that new $4 million dormitory and dining facilities will be built on the campus in the fall for women students of the new coordinate college planned there.

If You Want Paint To Last Surfaces Must Be Ready

Every year millions of home owners take brush in one hand and paint in the other and give the outside of their homes a bright new coat of paint — one which they expect will last several years.

Anywhere from one month to three years later, many of these home owners, disgruntled and disappointed, will be back to the job of painting again.

Paint endurance is often determined by conditions which you can control. Poorly - prepared surfaces, misuse of paint products and especially excessive moisture contribute freely to the incidence of paint failure. Blistering, cracking and peeling are the most frequent examples. Recognizing the symptoms of paint failure and remedying the situation are important in keeping your home sound.

BLISTERING manifests itself in myriad bubbles on the paint surface. These bubbles are caused by moisture behind the paint which becomes trapped and pushes out on the paint film. Widespread blistering may be due to poor ventilation of your home.

This condition often is aggravated by the variety of modern conveniences which are common to the modern home — washing machines, clothes dryers, dishwashers, and showers. You wouldn't want to live without them — but you must provide for them in your ventilation system. The moisture created by these devices must be directed to the outside. Otherwise, moisture will go through the wall of the house but will be stopped or slowed by the paint film on the exterior of your home. This causes blisters.

Localized blistering may be due to poor caulking. Check around windows, doors and dormers for water seeping in from the outside. Rain water can penetrate beneath the paint and cause blistering. A thorough re-caulking is the sure cure for this situation.

CRACKING is the splitting of the paint film all the way down to the wood. The paint curls at the edge and reveals even more wood. Excessive moisture behind the paint and poorly mixed and applied paint are frequent contributors to this condition.

The solution is to strip the paint down to the wood and repaint immediately. Be sure to mix the paint thoroughly, follow the manufacturer's suggestions when repainting, and paint only on a dry surface if oil base paint is used.

Cross-grain cracking may occur in an older home that has been repainted too frequently. Cracks appear across the grain of the wood because too many thick layers of paint have accumulated. These stiff layers are not flexible enough to follow the normal contraction and expansion of the wood. The best solution for this situation: remove the paint to the bare wood and repaint.

Peeling may occur between the topcoat and the underlayer or between the entire paint film and the wood. Common causes of peeling are painting over a soiled surface or over a too smooth or glossy surface. Remedy this situation by sanding down the old paint and washing the area thoroughly with a detergent solution.

Once you have eliminated the common causes of paint failures and have applied an adequate amount of good quality paint you can settle back and enjoy your newly painted home confident that it will remain in good condition for the years that you had envisioned.

Bishop's Recreation Proves Controversial

LONDON (AP) — A Roman Catholic bishop's reported remarks that killing birds with a shotgun is his favorite sport threatens to set off a controversy among British animal lovers.

The Catholic Herald, a weekly newspaper, quoted the Rt. Rev. David Cashman, 55-year-old bishop of Arundel and Brighton, as saying, "I'm mad about" shooting birds and animals. "It's the nearest thing to heaven, in human terms, that I know."

Bishop Cashman, who lists shooting as his recreation in Who's Who, later told other newsmen that he regretted saying the words "but I am not going to deny them."

Ark, a Catholic animal welfare organization, was considering a protest over the remarks. A vice president said, "This amounts to a scandal."

Police Charge Two In Separate Killings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus police have laid charges in connection with two separate killings in the city Sunday morning.

Green Rogers Jr., 39, is charged with second - degree murder in the shooting death of Anna J. Speakman, 24.

She was shot in the head with a .38 caliber pistol.

Verna Mable Hale, 38, was released on $1,000 bond after having been charged with first-degree manslaughter in the stabbing death of George Sailor, 50.

Cuban Exiles Honor Their Patron Saint

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An estimated 25,000 Cubans, described by a police officer as the largest exile gathering since President John F. Kennedy spoke to Bay of Pigs veterans at the Orange Bowl in 1961, met Sunday to honor their patron saint, the Virgin of Cobre.

Three Cuban refugees, fresh from a five day journey to Florida aboard a raft made of truck tires, led the procession to the seaside site of a shrine to the saint. Traffic officer Brune Morene, who estimated the crowd, said the procession of boats and cars lasted five hours.

"The virgin saved us and we have come to give thanks,' said one of the trio, Heriberto Jiminez Rodriquez, 21.

All Done With Mirrors

Mirrors are going to the floor, reflecting "things" instead of people. It's all in line with the new trend to shine that one sees on walls and in home furnishings.

Interior designers are using mirrors in intriguing ways to reflect the beauty of their own furnishings, but artist - designer Jack Denst of Chicago has another twist. He uses very inexpensive small mirrors to achieve unusual and startling effects at the floor level.

One - foot - square untrimmed mirrors are used at the base of a wall, perhaps three in width and two in height, to double the reflection of sculptures, pedestals, low tables.

THE MIRRORS, available in sizes 3¼ by 3¼ inches, 6 by 6, 12 by 6, 12 by 12 and 24 by 36 inches, are easily attached to the wall by spool - head aluminum pins, so sharp they do not disturb plaster, he advises. Or if the mirror artist prefers, two mirrors may project into the room at a triangle, held together snugly by a backing of plain adhesive tape.

Denst also cuts slits in small wood blocks to permit mounting a mirror on each one and then he sets one block forward and slightly to the side of another, all at floor level, to avoid reflection of "foot traffic." By painting stripes or solid colors, papering or mounting a collage on the rear of a front mirror, new color is added to the scene and is reflected by the next mirror.

By concentrating all mirrors at floor level and slightly above, and compounding the effect by turning a corner, the reflections are restricted to the decorative accents of a room alone.

THE ENDLESS possibilities of this mirror idea are apparent when one observes its visual impact on colorful blooms. You start out with a few geraniums and suddenly you have a garden. The shapes of bowls, vases, and the bubbling action of fountains are other pleasing effects.

The nicest part of this idea, says Denst, is that the mirrors are the most economical method of decoration he has discovered. He has figured out many ways to use these small mirrors intriguingly.

Four small mirrors taped together make a gleaming floor base for plants or flowers whose beauty is enhanced by being placed on the mirrors, an effect that can be further explored by putting a mirror cube next to the arrangement.

You tape four small mirrors together and place the cube next to the mirrored floor section for an additional pick-up. These two mirror ideas, he says, are ideal for translating into table decorations for a buffet party.

A MIRROR mobile is another fun idea. He suggests gluing together two mirrors of any single size with ordinary water - soluble linoleum paste. Between the two mirrors, and glued right with them, there should be a cord or wire to suspend this mobile from a point above.

The two - sided mirror will revolve slowly to reflect the color and patterns of draperies and wall-coverings. It will pick up the glistening prisms of chandeliers, and add a feeling of motion to the still life scenes in favorite paintings and other wall decorations, Denst observes.

If you decide on the mobile idea, mirrors should be glued together safely and cord or wire should be fastened securely.

MODULAR HOME may be an answer to urban renewal problems. This two-bedroom model is an end house for row homes and can be flown, completely assembled, from factory to site by helicopter or hauled in individual modules by truck.

Steel Feels Order Pinch

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Steelmakers are faced with a buyers' market and competition for new orders may result in some price concessions by the producers, Steel Magazine said today.

"A sharp drop in demand when strike hedging ended late in July has left producers' order books with few entries," the weekly journal of metalworking said. "The incoming order rate of most steel companies has dropped at least 50 per cent, and in some cases 60 per cent and more, from the peak of last spring."

The magazine said the steel buyer "has become king" because: "his steel inventory is bountiful, he has access to more steel than ever before, he can take his choice of buying it from U.S. mills or from abroad, he will see the foreign supplies grow faster than his needs, and he can expect the supply from U.S. mills to be free from interruption for three years—the duration of the new steel labor contract."

Steel said that raw steel production dropped 15.2 per cent in the first five weeks after the labor contract was signed and is now the lowest it has been since the week ended Dec. 28, 1963.

It is estimated last week's output at 1,896,000 net tons, the 11th consecutive week of decline.

Ft. Bragg in North Carolina is the largest military reservation in the U.S.

Settlement Reached

LOUDONVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Tentative settlement of a six-week strike at the Flexible Ohio Co. plant here was reached Saturday, pending ratification by members of Local 4781, United Steelworkers of America. Neither side would give details.

Construction Slated

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP)—Kenyon College announced Saturday that new $4 million dormitory and dining facilities will be built on the campus in the fall for women students of the new coordinate college planned there.

If You Want Paint To Last Surfaces Must Be Ready

Every year millions of home owners take brush in one hand and paint in the other and give the outside of their homes a bright new coat of paint — one which they expect will last several years.

Anywhere from one month to three years later, many of these home owners, disgruntled and disappointed, will be back to the job of painting again.

Paint endurance is often determined by conditions which you can control. Poorly - prepared surfaces, misuse of paint products and especially excessive moisture contribute freely to the incidence of paint failure. Blistering, cracking and peeling are the most frequent examples. Recognizing the symptoms of paint failure and remedying the situation are important in keeping your home sound.

BLISTERING manifests itself in myriad bubbles on the paint surface. These bubbles are caused by moisture behind the paint which becomes trapped and pushes out on the paint film. Widespread blistering may be due to poor ventilation of your home.

This condition often is aggravated by the variety of modern conveniences which are common to the modern home — washing machines, clothes dryers, dishwashers, and showers. You wouldn't want to live without them — but you must provide for them in your ventilation system. The moisture created by these devices must be directed to the outside. Otherwise, moisture will go through the wall of the house but will be stopped or slowed by the paint film on the exterior of your home. This causes blisters.

Localized blistering may be due to poor caulking. Check around windows, doors and dormers for water seeping in from the outside. Rain water can penetrate beneath the paint and cause blistering. A thorough re-caulking is the sure cure for this situation.

CRACKING is the splitting of the paint film all the way down to the wood. The paint curls at the edge and reveals even more wood. Excessive moisture behind the paint and poorly mixed and applied paint are frequent contributors to this condition.

The solution is to strip the paint down to the wood and repaint immediately. Be sure to mix the paint thoroughly, follow the manufacturer's suggestions when repainting, and paint only on a dry surface if oil base paint is used.

Cross-grain cracking may occur in an older home that has been repainted too frequently. Cracks appear across the grain of the wood because too many thick layers of paint have accumulated. These stiff layers are not flexible enough to follow the normal contraction and expansion of the wood. The best solution for this situation: remove the paint to the bare wood and repaint.

Peeling may occur between the topcoat and the underlayer or between the entire paint film and the wood. Common causes of peeling are painting over a soiled surface or over a too smooth or glossy surface. Remedy this situation by sanding down the old paint and washing the area thoroughly with a detergent solution.

Once you have eliminated the common causes of paint failures and have applied an adequate amount of good quality paint you can settle back and enjoy your newly painted home confident that it will remain in good condition for the years that you had envisioned.

Cuban Exiles Honor Their Patron Saint

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An estimated 25,000 Cubans, described by a police officer as the largest exile gathering since President John F. Kennedy spoke to Bay of Pigs veterans at the Orange Bowl in 1961, met Sunday to honor their patron saint, the Virgin of Cobre.

Three Cuban refugees, fresh from a five day journey to Florida aboard a raft made of truck tires, led the procession to the seaside site of a shrine to the saint. Traffic officer Brune Morene, who estimated the crowd, said the procession of boats and cars lasted five hours.

"The virgin saved us and we have come to give thanks,' said one of the trio, Heriberto Jiminez Rodriquez, 21.

Bishop's Recreation Proves Controversial

LONDON (AP) — A Roman Catholic bishop's reported remarks that killing birds with a shotgun is his favorite sport threatens to set off a controversy among British animal lovers.

The Catholic Herald, a weekly newspaper, quoted the Rt. Rev. David Cashman, 55-year-old bishop of Arundel and Brighton, as saying, "I'm mad about" shooting birds and animals. "It's the nearest thing to heaven, in human terms, that I know.'

Bishop Cashman, who lists shooting as his recreation in Who's Who, later told other newsmen that he regretted saying the words "but I am not going to deny them."

Ark, a Catholic animal welfare organization, was considering a protest over the remarks. A vice president said, "This amounts to a scandal."

Police Charge Two In Separate Killings

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Sister's Dress Ruined

DEAR HELOISE: I feel that your readers should know about a drastic loss that my sister experienced.

Heloise

After placing a lovely sequined cocktail dress in a closet where there were moth preventives, she soon found that those very pretty sequins became one grand mass of color, different from what they were originally.

It was an expensive gown, but much to her surprise, a total loss and damage to the entire dress.

Surely this warning could save heartache and hard-earned dollars if we can prevent it from happening to other ladies.

MISS MARION POTZER.

DEAR MARION: It's a shame that your sister's beautiful dress was ruined. What caused it was a mystery to me so I discussed your complaint with the National Institute of Drycleaning and this is what they said:

"Let's call this one 'sequin sequence.'

"Thanks for the lady's complaint describing the lovely cocktail dress whose sequins became one grand mass of changed color while stored in a closet.

"The woman suspected moth preventives. She'd make a good clothes detective. Here's probably what happened, according to our garment analysis sleuths.

"The sequins were probably plastic. Fumes from a popular moth preventive, Paradichlorobenzene, will soften plastics (hangers, as well as sequins). Higher temperatures will accelerate the damage.

"At approximately 80 degrees F., the chemical vapor can soften plastic very slowly. However, at 130 degrees F., such as in hot attics, the plastic will be damaged in a few hours.

"Evidently, the moth repellent was close to the damaged dress and consequently, the plastic sequins softened, melted and probably stuck together."

Marion, let's hope your warning and N.I.D.'s kind advice keeps the same thing from happening to others.

Aren't people wonderful? It takes good folks like you-all to keep this old world going around.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you suddenly discover you are out of bath soap and some member of the family has started to bathe, just hand them the shampoo.

Have them put some on a washcloth and smooth over the body and then rinse.

Works great, especially in the shower.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: The other night my wife raised all kinds of billy-ned in the kitchen saying, "Where's Heloise?"

When she finally calmed down, we found out she was looking for a sponge she had covered with a piece of your net and had named it "Heloise" . . .

Our oldest son admitted that he had borrowed it to wash his car with! I sure wish you had been here to enjoy the fun. I thought for a minute YOU were expected for dinner.

JIM DANIEL.

DEAR HELOISE: For a while I used the hint from your column about putting meatloaf on slices of bread when baking it to keep it from sticking or burning.

Now I have come up with an idea of my own.

I put the meatloaf on a small cake rack and place it in the pan. The meat browns on all sides and all the fatty taste is absent.

Also, the meatloaf is not quite so fattening since the fats have dripped out.

ANN LANDERS

A Question Of Pregnancy

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: You keep saying you consult doctors — so why didn't you, before you gave that wrong answer to the man whose wife is in her 17th month of pregnancy? You made it sound as if such a thing is impossible.

Haven't you ever heard of a stone baby: My niece was pregnant for two years. The baby died before birth and turned to stone. If the doctor had known what was happening he could have performed an operation at nine months and saved the baby. As it was, the baby was dead when the doctor took it.

My niece and her husband had to get both a birth certficate and a death certificate. No one in the family ever had heard of such a thing. So before you hand out half-baked advice that could cause trouble between a man and wife why don't you check with somebody who knows something? — O. CITY COMPLAINT.

Dear Complaint: When the fetus dies before birth, nature usually arranges a natural abortion. On rare occasions, the fetus becomes calcifed and this stony formation must be taken surgically. The woman who is carrying a fetus that is no longer living is not considered pregnant.

Sugar Times

Dear Ann: I'm a teen-ager who thinks it's disgraceful the way people write in and call you a miserable witch and a crummy old lady. If they think so little of you why do they write in for advice?

The trouble with a lot of people is they hate to hear the truth. When they ask for your opinion and it turns out they're wrong, they try to get even by saying something insulting.

I think it's time someone wrote you a nice letter. I, for one, appreciate your down to-earth advice. I think you deserve a lot of credit for reading all that mail and doing your best day after day and year after year.

In our household you're like a member of the family. We discuss your column at the dinner table almost every night and it's helped us understand each other better. So thank you, Ann Landers. We think you are as sound as the Liberty Bell. — PITTSBURGH.

Dear Pittsburgh: Do you know that the Liberty Bell is cracked? Thank you for your nice letter, anyway. I really do appreciate it.

Shut Up

Dear Ann: The lady next door lost her husband two months ago. The minister still is going to her house at least two afternoons a week to console her. Isn't this a little unusual?

I like the woman and the minister is a very nice person. I'm not saying anything is wrong, but I do feel they should not let themselves in for unnecessary gossip.

What is your opinion? — A FRIENDLY NEIGHBOR.

Dear Neighbor: I'm all for cutting out unnecessary gossip. Why don't you start with yourself?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cubans Give Silver In Currency Drive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Residents of Havana have donated $65,000 worth of silver to the Cuban government in a drive to provide the Communist regime with hard currency for world trade, Radio Havana said Sunday.

Court Income Falls By $994

Municipal Court revenue hit $4,185 in August, a drop of $994 from the $5,179 in July, it was shown today in the monthly report of Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The city's share of last month's receipts was $3,555, a decline of $907 from the $4,462 the treasury was paid out of the July revenue. The city's share was comprised of $491 in costs from civil cases, $2,765 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal actions and $299 in penalties from Ohio Highway Patrol citations.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $189 to the county treasury, $299 to the state treasury, $37.50 to Liverpool Township and $104 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court last month was $9,500, a drop of $442 from the $9,942 handled in July. The sums handled in August included $4,695 in the civil branch and $4,805 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases showed: 58 civil cases filed during the month, 28 disposed of and 190 left pending; 14 small claims cases filed, 10 disposed of and 17 pending; 75 city criminal cases filed, 57 disposed of and 111 left pending, and 98 state criminal cases filed, 85 disposed of and 121 left pending.

Nixon

about some of the provisions" of the treaty against the spread of nuclear weapons—signed by the United States and Soviet Union and now awaiting Senate ratification by the Senate.

"I favor the principle of nonproliferation," Nixon said. "I believe we should negotiate a nonproliferation treaty." But he said he was going to discuss the matter this week with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, whom he described as having "some rather strong reservations about the advisibility of going forward with the treaty at this time because of developments in Czechoslovakia as well as because he is concerned about certain provisions of the treaty."

Cites Czech Invasion

Nixon also cited the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia as a reason for taking a look at another area—President Johnson's plan for "building bridges" to the Soviet Union by closer cooperation in some fields.

"I think there has to be a re-evaluation of the entire bridge building program," said Nixon.

He said he wasn't in favor of scrapping it, but he suggested "we re-evaluate those negotiations in the light of what happened in Czechoslovakia because if after what the Soviet Union and its Eastern European associates did in Czechoslovakia, the United States immediately went forward with an act that would be interpreted as being completely blind to that, and in fact condoning it, that would have a tremendously bad moral effect."

Rockefeller said in a statement Saturday that approval of the treaty now "might be construed as condoning" the invasion of Czechoslovakia. He said the occupation violated the spirit of the treaty even before its ratification.

In his speech to the B'nai B'rith Nixon said, "The Soviet Union has the definite aggressive goal of extending its sphere of influence to include the Middle East."

He said the Russians have rebuilt Egyptian forces since the Israeli victory in the June 1967 war, "to further Soviet ambitions."

"Israel must possess sufficient military power to deter an attack," said Nixon. "As long as the threat of Arab attack remains direct and imminent sufficient power means the balance must be tipped in Israel's favor."

Nixon repeaed what he told newsmen earlier in the week, that the United States should give Israel some of its top interceptors the Phantom F4 jet fighters—if they are necessary "to provide Israel a valid self-defense."

Nixon said Israel's enemies, "can afford to fight a war and lose and come back to fight again. Israel cannot afford to lose even once. America knows that. And America is determined that Israel is here in the family of nations to stay."

He also talked of "peace at home" in his Washington speech. Nixon called for "law and order" but said that many people believe this phrase "is a code name for racism."

"Progress without order is anarchy," said Nixon.

But he also asked private enterprise to join a massive campaign to help the poor, declaring that "for millions of Americans the American dream is just a nightmare."

Driver Fined For Speeding

Glen R. Koping, 18, of 1003 Washington St., Newell, was fined $25 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone early Saturday on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

The judge also picked up Koping's driver's license and said he will send it to the West Virginia Bureau of Motor Vehicles at Charleston with a request that it be suspended for 30 days. An Ohio judge has no direct authority to suspend a license issued by another state.

Koping was cited at 1:25 a.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol. He also had been charged with failure to display a driver's license. The second count was dismissed when he produced a valid permit in court.

Meanwhile, Ronald Gene Chisler, 21, of 431 Washington St., Newell, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving left of center as an aftermath of a one-car mishap on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Sunday at 4:50 a.m. Chisler told the patrol he dozed at the wheel. The car scraped a guardrail, then crossed the medial strip, went off the left side of the highway and hit an embankment, the patrol said.

The court issued a bench warrant for Clifford C. Smith of RD 2 who failed to appear on a charge of driving an unsafe vehicle. He was cited by the patrol Sunday at 1:30 a.m. on Route 7.

James V. Celani, 23, of Mantua forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of passing on a hill on Route 30. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Bridge Collapses

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP)—As expected, Standing Stone Bridge in nearby Standing Stone collapsed into the Susquehanna River. The 60-year-old, 869-foot span recently had been condemned by the State Highway Department. A woman fishing in the river was slightly injured as the ancient bridge creaked under rain-weakened concrete supports and tumbled 35 feet Sunday.

Czech

West Germany border had been one of the major sore points between Moscow and Prague during the tense months preceding the invasion. Czechoslovakia insisted it could take care of its borders with West Germany without Warsaw Pact help.

Czech Promises Outlined

Informants said the Czechoslovak leaders also promised they would:

—Change Czechoslovakia's political development to conform with the conservative Soviet brand of communism.

—Remove from office Interior Minister Josef Pavel, Deputy Premier Ota Sik and Foreign Minister Jiri Hajek. Pavel has been replaced and Sik has resigned.

—Revive censorship to prevent the news media from criticizing the Warsaw Pact countries that participated in the invasion—the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Hungary.

—Repudiate the 14th congress of the Czechoslovak Communist party, held secretly while party leader Alexander Dubcek was a prisoner in Moscow. It purged the party presidium of conservative, orthodox Communists, but this has been partly nullified by election of a new presidium.

—Withdraw Hajek's formal request for debate on the Czechoslovak crisis by the U.N. Security Council. Hajek, just before he left New York after the Moscow agreement, asked the council to do nothing more.

—Take no reprisal against Czechoslovak citizens who collaborated with the invading armies.

Southern Local High Has English Opening

LISBON—There's a job available tomorrow at Southern Local High School for anyone able to teach sophomore English.

A new teacher who opened the school year last week resigned.

Anyone qualified, even though not certified, may apply to Supt. Tom Leek at Southern High on Route 39 west of Highlandtown, or to James L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, at the county office in Lisbon.

Suspect Waives Midland Hearing

William Sisco, 22, of East Liverpool, held at Beaver County Jail after a struggle with Midland police last week, waived a preliminary hearing scheduled at Midland Saturday, and was returned to Beaver County Jail for the September term of court.

Sisco was charged with a burglary, a forcible entry, assaulting a police officer and interfering with an officer after his arrest last week.

Sisco Saturday waived the hearing before Justice of the Peace Steve Germusa at Midland. Evidence will be presented to the Grand Jury, authorities said.

Rose Bimler doesn't call her Dad long distance anymore.

Why not, Rose?

Rose and her Dad have a fight? Nope. Her Dad moved, right? Wrong.

It's just not long distance any more. Happens all the time. Ohio Bell keeps making the "local calling" area bigger. To include more people. To make your telephone an even bigger value.

As communities grow, Ohio Bell extends local service to meet local needs. In fact, 99% of all our customers can call at least one community other than their own without toll charges.

Yet local telephone rates haven't changed since 1959, and long distance rates have been reduced eight times during that period.

Keeping costs down hasn't been easy. But we weren't looking for something easy when we took on the job. It's why we say what we do about your phone. And about our rates. Ohio Bell

Every time you pick it up we try to keep it down.

ANN LANDERS

A Question Of Pregnancy

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: You keep saying you consult doctors — so why didn't you, before you gave that wrong answer to the man whose wife is in her 17th month of pregnancy? You made it sound as if such a thing is impossible.

Haven't you ever heard of a stone baby: My niece was pregnant for two years. The baby died before birth and turned to stone. If the doctor had known what was happening he could have performed an operation at nine months and saved the baby. As it was, the baby was dead when the doctor took it.

My niece and her husband had to get both a birth certficate and a death certificate. No one in the family ever had heard of such a thing. So before you hand out half-baked advice that could cause trouble between a man and wife why don't you check with somebody who knows something? — O. CITY COMPLAINT.

Dear Complaint: When the fetus dies before birth, nature usually arranges a natural abortion. On rare occasions, the fetus becomes calcifed and this stony formation must be taken surgically. The woman who is carrying a fetus that is no longer living is not considered pregnant.

Sugar Times

Dear Ann: I'm a teen-ager who thinks it's disgraceful the way people write in and call you a miserable witch and a crummy old lady. If they think so little of you why do they write in for advice?

The trouble with a lot of people is they hate to hear the truth. When they ask for your opinion and it turns out they're wrong, they try to get even by saying something insulting.

I think it's time someone wrote you a nice letter. I, for one, appreciate your down to-earth advice. I think you deserve a lot of credit for reading all that mail and doing your best day after day and year after year.

In our household you're like a member of the family. We discuss your column at the dinner table almost every night and it's helped us understand each other better. So thank you, Ann Landers. We think you are as sound as the Liberty Bell. — PITTSBURGH.

Dear Pittsburgh: Do you know that the Liberty Bell is cracked? Thank you for your nice letter, anyway. I really do appreciate it.

Shut Up

Dear Ann: The lady next door lost her husband two months ago. The minister still is going to her house at least two afternoons a week to console her. Isn't this a little unusual?

I like the woman and the minister is a very nice person. I'm not saying anything is wrong, but I do feel they should not let themselves in for unnecessary gossip.

What is your opinion? — A FRIENDLY NEIGHBOR.

Dear Neighbor: I'm all for cutting out unnecessary gossip. Why don't you start with yourself?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cubans Give Silver In Currency Drive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Residents of Havana have donated $65,000 worth of silver to the Cuban government in a drive to provide the Communist regime with hard currency for world trade, Radio Havana said Sunday.

The radio broadcast was the first report on the month-long national campaign. The announcement said there is no report yet on donations from outside Havana.

Court Income Falls By $994

Municipal Court revenue hit $4,185 in August, a drop of $994 from the $5,179 in July, it was shown today in the monthly report of Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The city's share of last month's receipts was $3,555, a decline of $907 from the $4,462 the treasury was paid out of the July revenue. The city's share was comprised of $491 in costs from civil cases, $2,765 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal actions and $299 in penalties from Ohio Highway Patrol citations.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $189 to the county treasury, $299 to the state treasury, $37.50 to Liverpool Township and $104 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court last month was $9,500, a drop of $442 from the $9,942 handled in July. The sums handled in August included $4,695 in the civil branch and $4,805 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases showed: 58 civil cases filed during the month, 28 disposed of and 190 left pending; 14 small claims cases filed, 10 disposed of and 17 pending; 75 city criminal cases filed, 57 disposed of and 111 left pending, and 98 state criminal cases filed, 85 disposed of and 121 left pending.

Nixon

about some of the provisions" of the treaty against the spread of nuclear weapons—signed by the United States and Soviet Union and now awaiting Senate ratification by the Senate.

"I favor the principle of nonproliferation," Nixon said. "I believe we should negotiate a nonproliferation treaty." But he said he was going to discuss the matter this week with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, whom he described as having "some rather strong reservations about the advisibility of going forward with the treaty at this time because of developments in Czechoslovakia as well as because he is concerned about certain provisions of the treaty."

Cites Czech Invasion

Nixon also cited the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia as a reason for taking a look at another area—President Johnson's plan for "building bridges" to the Soviet Union by closer cooperation in some fields.

"I think there has to be a re-evaluation of the entire bridge building program," said Nixon.

He said he wasn't in favor of scrapping it, but he suggested "we re-evaluate those negotiations in the light of what happened in Czechoslovakia because if after what the Soviet Union and its Eastern European associates did in Czechoslovakia, the United States immediately went forward with an act that would be interpreted as being completely blind to that, and in fact condoning it, that would have a tremendously bad moral effect."

Rockefeller said in a statement Saturday that approval of the treaty now "might be construed as condoning" the invasion of Czechoslovakia. He said the occupation violated the spirit of the treaty even before its ratification.

In his speech to the B'nai B'rith Nixon said, "The Soviet Union has the definite aggressive goal of extending its sphere of influence to include the Middle East."

He said the Russians have rebuilt Egyptian forces since the Israeli victory in the June 1967 war, "to further Soviet ambitions."

"Israel must possess sufficient military power to deter an attack," said Nixon. "As long as the threat of Arab attack remains direct and imminent sufficient power means the balance must be tipped in Israel's favor."

Nixon repeaed what he told newsmen earlier in the week, that the United States should give Israel some of its top interceptors the Phantom F4 jet fighters—if they are necessary "to provide Israel a valid self-defense."

Nixon said Israel's enemies, "can afford to fight a war and lose and come back to fight again. Israel cannot afford to lose even once. America knows that. And America is determined that Israel is here in the family of nations to stay."

He also talked of "peace at home" in his Washington speech. Nixon called for "law and order" but said that many people believe this phrase "is a code name for racism."

"Progress without order is anarchy," said Nixon.

But he also asked private enterprise to join a massive campaign to help the poor, declaring that "for millions of Americans the American dream is just a nightmare."

Driver Fined For Speeding

Glen R. Koping, 18, of 1003 Washington St., Newell, was fined $25 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone early Saturday on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

The judge also picked up Koping's driver's license and said he will send it to the West Virginia Bureau of Motor Vehicles at Charleston with a request that it be suspended for 30 days. An Ohio judge has no direct authority to suspend a license issued by another state.

Koping was cited at 1:25 a.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol. He also had been charged with failure to display a driver's license. The second count was dismissed when he produced a valid permit in court.

Meanwhile, Ronald Gene Chisler, 21, of 431 Washington St., Newell, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving left of center as an aftermath of a one-car mishap on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Sunday at 4:50 a.m. Chisler told the patrol he dozed at the wheel. The car scraped a guardrail, then crossed the medial strip, went off the left side of the highway and hit an embankment, the patrol said.

The court issued a bench warrant for Clifford C. Smith of RD 2 who failed to appear on a charge of driving an unsafe vehicle. He was cited by the patrol Sunday at 1:30 a.m. on Route 7.

James V. Celani, 23, of Mantua forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of passing on a hill on Route 30. He was cited by the patrol Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Bridge Collapses

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP)—As expected, Standing Stone Bridge in nearby Standing Stone collapsed into the Susquehanna River. The 60-year-old, 869-foot span recently had been condemned by the State Highway Department. A woman fishing in the river was slightly injured as the ancient bridge creaked under rain-weakened concrete supports and tumbled 35 feet Sunday.

West Germany border had been one of the major sore points between Moscow and Prague during the tense months preceding the invasion. Czechoslovakia insisted it could take care of its borders with West Germany without Warsaw Pact help.

Czech Promises Outlined

Informants said the Czechoslovak leaders also promised they would:

—Change Czechoslovakia's political development to conform with the conservative Soviet brand of communism.

—Remove from office Interior Minister Josef Pavel, Deputy Premier Ota Sik and Foreign Minister Jiri Hajek. Pavel has been replaced and Sik has resigned.

—Revive censorship to prevent the news media from criticizing the Warsaw Pact countries that participated in the invasion—the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Hungary.

—Repudiate the 14th congress of the Czechoslovak Communist party, held secretly while party leader Alexander Dubcek was a prisoner in Moscow. It purged the party presidium of conservative, orthodox Communists, but this has been partly nullified by election of a new presidium.

—Withdraw Hajek's formal request for debate on the Czechoslovak crisis by the U.N. Security Council. Hajek, just before he left New York after the Moscow agreement, asked the council to do nothing more.

—Take no reprisal against Czechoslovak citizens who collaborated with the invading armies.

Southern Local High Has English Opening

LISBON—There's a job available tomorrow at Southern Local High School for anyone able to teach sophomore English.

A new teacher who opened the school year last week resigned.

Anyone qualified, even though not certified, may apply to Supt. Tom Leek at Southern High on Route 39 west of Highlandtown, or to James L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, at the county office in Lisbon.

Suspect Waives Midland Hearing

William Sisco, 22, of East Liverpool, held at Beaver County Jail after a struggle with Midland police last week, waived a preliminary hearing scheduled at Midland Saturday, and was returned to Beaver County Jail for the September term of court.

Sisco was charged with a burglary, a forcible entry, assaulting a police officer and interfering with an officer after his arrest last week.

Sisco Saturday waived the hearing before Justice of the Peace Steve Germusa at Midland. Evidence will be presented to the Grand Jury, authorities said.

Charles J. Gause, chairman of the Board of Commissioners, said the idle funds were invested in U.S. Treasury Bills for 30, 60, 90, and 120 days.

Rose Bimler doesn't call her Dad long distance anymore.

Why not, Rose?

Rose and her Dad have a fight? Nope. Her Dad moved, right? Wrong.

It's just not long distance any more. Happens all the time. Ohio Bell keeps making the "local calling" area bigger. To include more people. To make your telephone an even bigger value.

As communities grow, Ohio Bell extends local service to meet local needs. In fact, 99% of all our customers can call at least one community other than their own without toll charges.

Yet local telephone rates haven't changed since 1959, and long distance rates have been reduced eight times during that period.

Keeping costs down hasn't been easy. But we weren't looking for something easy when we took on the job. It's why we say what we do about your phone. And about our rates. Ohio Bell

Every time you pick it up we try to keep it down.

Piles, Hemorrhoids—One And Same

Q—Are piles and hemorrhoids the same? Can straining make them bleed? How can you treat them?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Piles and h e morrhoids are the same. When they are present, passing a hard stool with or without straining may cause bleeding. The treatment of choice depends on several factors but some kind of operation is usually required for lasting relief.

Q — What kind of food should one avoid if one has bleeding piles?

A—There are no foods that need to be avoided but you should eat enough vegetables and fruit to keep your stools from being hard and difficult to pass.

Q—How long does it take after the removal of hemorrhoids to get relief?

A—Following a hemorrhoidectomy, a surgeon usually prescribes dioctyl sodium sulfosuccinate to keep the stools soft and an icebag locally to minimize the pain of the cut surfaces. On the following day, the icebag is discontinued and a hot sitz bath is taken. The discomfort should have pretty well disappeared by the end of the third week.

Q — My husband is a draftsman. All of his fellow workers are troubled with piles. I suppose this is due to prolonged sitting. Is there anything my husband can do to avoid getting piles?

A — The predisposing causes of piles include prolonged straining at stool, pregnancy in women and a hereditary weakness of the connective tissue supporting the hemorrhoidal veins. A sedentary occupation in itself is not a cause but anyone who must sit for long periods should get up and stir around for a couple of minutes every hour. He should also get some regular exercise daily in order to maintain his physical fitness.

Q—Can hemorrhoids involve the upper rectum and large intestine or cause polyps to form?

A—Hemorrhoids are classified as internal and external but even the internal variety does not involve the upper rectum or colon. Polyps are an unrelated condition.

Q—What is the cause of muscular neuritis or neuromyositis? Is there any effective treatment?

A—There is no single cause for this combined inflammation of nerves and muscles so there can be no single treatment. Some forms of this disease can be cured.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "Police are being maligned and people are definitely taking the law into their own hands by deciding which laws they will obey and which laws they will disobey," says a leader of the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., a Negro organization.

A. Henson Jarmon, chairman of the convention's stewardship commission, said Saturday, "The foundations of our social order are being destroyed."

The convention, which ended its annual meeting Sunday, has 6.5 million members and is described by its leaders as the largest Negro organization in the nation.

MARION, Ohio (AP) — General Telephone Co. announced Saturday that Col. William C. Henry of Bellevue, chairman of the Northern Ohio Telephone Co., has been elected to additional duties as chairman of General Telephone.

Spiro Agnew Speaks On Law, Order

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Spiro T. Agnew, Republican candidate for the vice presidency, told Cuyahoga County Republicans Sunday that their party would bring social changes "through the ballot box and the courts."

The Maryland governor, speaking at a GOP outing attended by an estimated 50,000 persons, termed "unfortunate" the view that civil disobedience was necessary to correct current American problems.

"I don't believe this," Agnew said. "Civil disobedience cannot be condoned when it interferes with the rights of others and usually it does."

He said the American "establishment" was freely elected and could be voted out of office when voters disagreed.

Agnew called his speech on the theme of law and order "a stable and balanced appeal to the American people, who are to some extent being confused by opinions expressed at both ends of the spectrum in this country."

He said Republican concern for order was matched by a concern for equal justice and opportunity for all citizens. Republicans, he said would bring social changes "through the ballot box and the courts and not through anarchy and violence."

Allan Pinkerton established the nation's first private detective agency in 1850.

"I don't believe this," Agnew said. "Civil disobedience cannot be condoned when it interferes with the rights of others and usually it does."

He said the American "establishment" was freely elected and could be voted out of office when voters disagreed.

Agnew called his speech on the theme of law and order "a stable and balanced appeal to the American people, who are to some extent being confused by opinions expressed at both ends of the spectrum in this country."

He said Republican concern for order was matched by a concern for equal justice and opportunity for all citizens. Republicans, he said would bring social changes "through the ballot box and the courts and not through anarchy and violence."

Allan Pinkerton established the nation's first private detective agency in 1850.

Television Makes Millionaires

When actors talk about "art" they mean the movies, but when it's money they're looking for, they look to TV, where a lot more actors have become millionaires than in the movies during tre past 15 years

Hal Humphrey

Take Red Skelton, Jackie Gleason, Milton Berle and Jim ("Gunsmoke") Arness, just to name a few. All of them have done movies in the past, but didn't make any real money until they went on TV.

-:-

A SURE one-way ticket to a million dollars in TV is to be in a filmed series which lasts five years and which you, the actor, have a financial percentage of. Ray (Perry Mason) Burr, Andy Griffith, Danny Thomas, Richard ("Have Gun, Will Travel") Boone and Buddy ("Beverly Hillbillies") Ebsen are just a few in that circle.

If you package the series yourself with your own production company, the returns are even fancier when it comes time to sell the filmed segments for returns on syndication. Jack Benny, George Burns, Jack Webb, Ozzie Nelson, Groucho Marx and Donna Reed were all in that happy position.

When the series runs long enough — say nine years, like "Bonanza" — and is a No. 1-rated show most of those yars, the stars don't need a "piece of the action." Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon receive around $12,500 each show, plus a cut of merchandising revenue and other fringe benefits which now run their take up to an estimated $17,500 a week per season.

JOHNNY CARSON is another whose salary has reached such an astronomical height that he doesn't need residuals to be a millionaire. He's in the $25,000-a-week class, but he won't get the rerun monies that the "Bonanza" stars will receive when that series goes into off-network syndication.

Jack Paar, Carson's predecessor, also jumped into the millionaire class, although he made nothing like Carson's salary. He managed to save enough to buy his own TV station, however, for something like $3 million.

Several TV stars were able to use their TV income in wise investments which turned them into millionaires. George Gobel, who was a big hit for three seasons, did his show "live" so didn't get the residual benefits of film. But he invested in real estate (the Ramada Inns) and other things which parlayed him into the millionaire class.

DEAN MARTIN has been on TV with his own show just three seasons, but his new contract with NBC assures him a high roost on the financial ladder, plus his big movie income. Fred MacMurray of "My Three Sons" had his from movies, then made it again from the TV series which has been on the air eight seasons.

Ed Sullivan and Lawrence Welk, of course, live high on the TV money tree with no sign of diminishing returns setting in for either. Other old timers who made it the stand-up way on TV include Garry Moore, Art Linkletter, Ralph Edwards, Dinah Shore and Tennessee Ernie Ford.

Robert ("Father Knows Best") Young, Loretta Young, Roy Rogers and Bob Cummings landed on the filmed series money train early, but not too early to make it pay off.

THERE AREN'T this many making the big money in movies today. The Burtons, Jack Lemmon, Julie Andrews, Doris Day, Frank Sinatra, Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis, Steve McQueen and a few others are about it.

But the list in TV goes on and on. A few I may have overlooked include David ("The Fugitive") Janssen, Sid Caesar, Steve Allen, Merv Griffin and even some on the news side — we mustn't overlook Chet Huntley, David Brinkley and Walter Cronkite.

So TV, which always has been looked down on by the movie crowd as a poor relation, is making millionaires almost faster than the Internal Revenue Service can keep up with them.

Basin Overflows Onto Streets And New School's Lot

A faulty gauge was blamed for causing an overflow this morning at the Pope Ave. reservoir that sent water cascading onto Bank St., Morton St. and Carson Alley and a parking lot at the nearby new high school and elementary complex.

Harold Peterson, superintendent of the water department, said the overflow was corrected quickly. When the pumping plant was advised of the trouble, the operators shut down the pumps feeding the million-gallon basin and started up another set of pumps that relays water from the Huston Hill reservoir to the Henry Ave. standpipes, he said.

The reservoir holds water to a maximum depth of 15 feet. At the time of the overflow, the electrical gauge in the pumping plant showed the level at 10.5 feet, Peterson said.

Police first heard of the overflow at 6:45 this morning when a Morton St. woman telephoned that "a lot of yellow water is running down the street." A line break was suspected first as the source.

Held For Murder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Police have arrested Robert Green, 30, of Philadelphia on a murder charge in the shooting death of James Johnson, 35. The victim was killed late Saturday night following a quarrel in a bar, police said.

Portugal's Premier Reported Improving

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Premier Antonio Salazar spent a quiet, restful night with some fever that disappeared this morning, a hospital spokesman said. A blood clot was removed from alongside his brain on Saturday.

Portugal's 79-year-old ruler was reported recuperating satisfactorily at the Red Cross Hospital. A medical bulletin Sunday night said Salazar was able to eat, sit in an armchair and take a few steps.

Dr. Antonio Vasconcellos Marques denied reports that Salazar was unable to speak.

Salazar, who has ruled Portugal for 40 years, was injured in a fall more than a month ago. The blood clot formed between the brain and the meninges membrane around it, medical sources said.

It was disclosed that the group also will send teams of medical relief workers to the area.

Peace Role Of U.S. Hit By Newsmen

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two American newspapermen said today U.S. negotiators have blocked progress at the Paris peace talks by "dangerous and possibly fatal trimming" of the understanding by which the conference was arranged.

Contending they paved the way for the Paris talks during a visit to Hanoi last March, William C. Baggs, editor of the Miami News, and Harry S. Ashmore, former executive editor of the Arkansas Gazette, said in a book released today that North Vietnam stated before the sessions convened that meaningful negotiations could not begin until allied bombing of North Vietnam stopped.

The book, "Mission to Hanoi —a Chronicle of Double-Dealing in High Places," was based on two trips to Hanoi and conferences with U.S. State Department officials in Washington.

Baggs and Ashmore were in Hanoi, engaged in private discussions with a spokesman for President Ho Chi Minh on March 31 when President Johnson announced his decisions to curtail the bombing of North Vietnam and to withdraw from the presidential race.

The two newsmen said they met repeatedly with Ho's representative during the critical period when the Hanoi regime was trying to decide if it would accept the partial bombing halt as a strong enough indication of good faith to warrant a formal meeting with U.S. representatives.

Rail Union Unit Okays Merger

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The general policy committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen has approved a merger with three other rail unions, and the proposal now will go to a referendum of all members of the four organizations.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the 60,000-member BLF&E said Sunday the committee gave its "unanimous stamp of approval" to the proposal.

"This is another significant step toward the goal of a strong railroad operating union," Gilbert said.

Tentative plans call for formation of the United Transportation Union by Jan. 1. The UTU, formed from the BLF&E, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the switchmen's union, would have 250,000 members.

Landon Sees LBJ Impact In Election

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Alf M. Landon says President Johnson could have an overpowering impact on the 1968 presidential election.

The 1936 Republican presidential nominee gave his views on the 1968 campaign on the occasion of his 81st birthday today. Landon said "momentous events" in foreign affairs could occur before the election, making its outcome unpredictable at this time.

He said Johnson is the most unpopular president since Herbert Hoover, but he more than anyone else could influence the course of those events.

Landon, who supported Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the GOP nomination, also made his first public declaration of support for Richard M. Nixon.

Landon said two emotional issues—the Vietnam war and attitudes on questions involving human relations—will be crucial in the campaign.

He said there were demands within the Democratic party that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey disengage himself from the policies of the President. But this is difficult for Humphrey to do, he said, because "Johnson will be captain of the team until January and the decisions he makes in the next eight weeks will have an effect on the election."

Students Speak To Lions

By ROSE NUZZO

The warm hospitality of the East Liverpool people will long be remembered by two foreign students who will start classes in American universities this week.

Speaking before members of the East Liverpool Lions Club Friday, U-Hyung Park of Seoul, Korea, and Johnson Olu Omisakin of Nigeria described their educational plans, compared the American way of living to their native land, and told of the chaos in Nigeria, now in a state of civil war.

PARK, 27, will begin his studies for a master's degree Wednesday at the University of Cincinnati. His temporary U.S. home is with Mr. and Mrs. Jackman Vodrey of Park Blvd. He is here under the Experiment International Living program, and will major in nuclear science.

Omisakin, 25, leaves today for Morgan State College, Baltimore, where he will begin pre-medicine studies for four years. He also will be seeking a scholarship. He is here on his own, having saved money for his education. He hopes to continue into the field of medicine, and return to his native land where doctors are scarce.

Park, who has four brothers and three sisters, proudly spoke of his parents — his mother being a writer and connected with two of Korea's largest newspapers, and his father who is a politician.

He told of the "big family" system in his native land where the whole family lives together and the oldest son has to remain with his parents as long as they live. He was surprised to see how parents live alone in America.

PARK, who always visualized the majority of American men and women as slim, was surprised to see a large percentage of them on the "heavy" side.

The Nigerian student spoke seriously of the African disunity that prevails today, with a continuing breakdown of order and parliamentary democracy. He said the food situation is very serious, especially in Biafra, Nigeria, where thousands are starving.

He stated the Ibo tribe is being misled by its leaders, and the federal government does not want to destroy the Ibos, rather it wants to preserve the nation's territorial integrity and unity.

Omisakin, who has two brothers and three sisters, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Morris of Substation Rd. His mother is a trader and his father, a farmer.

The two students enjoy American food, but Park turned thumbs down on "blue cheese." The Nigerian does not eat sweets.

They were introduced at the Lions meeting by Mrs. Barbara Morris. Patsy DiPasquale was program chairman.

Another student under the (ASPAU) program, Yilma Wube of Ethiopia, will begin studies Thursday at Ohio State University, Columbus, and his temporary home is with the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Hampton of Wellsville.

Crew Pushes 'Hill Rd.' Job

Working under an Ohio Highway Department contract, a crew of the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. at Martins Ferry is continuing work on a 700-foot stretch of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

The project calls for the blacktop pavement, sloping and uneven as a result of gradual slippage in the adjacent hillside, to be built up to the level of the adjacent sections of the highway.

One-way traffic is being maintained around the job site. The state undertook the job because Pennsylvania Ave. is a link in State Route 39.

Meanwhile, Tri-State representatives are slated to confer Wednesday with Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Engineer George Bloomgren on details of a project for blacktop resurfacing of St. Clair Ave. between 6th St. and Princeton Ave.

The work will be done under a contract with the city. It also calls for blacktop resurfacing of the River Rd. and Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

Tri-State representatives told the director the firm will start work on the local contract "the latter part of the week."

Perrysburg Man Charged In Slaying

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — Williams County Sheriff Denver Mock Jr. arrested and charged a Perrysburg man Sunday in the killing last week of a New Yorker who was hitch-hiking to California.

William Bostler, 20, was charged with first degree murder and lodged in Williams County Jail here.

The body of Eben H. Harney, 26, of Monticello, N. Y., was found in a ditch near Stryker, Williams County, early on Aug. 31. He had been shot six times with a .25 caliber pistol.

Floor Action Possible On Fortas Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless the Senate Judiciary Committee acts soon on President Johnson's Supreme Court nominations, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says he may try to take the matter directly to the Senate floor.

"I think the Senate ought to have to face up to the President's request and I think the President is entitled to the courtesy of an up-and-down vote," Mansfield said Sunday.

President Johnson is seeking to have Associate Justice Abe Fortas succeed retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren and to name federal Appeals Court Judge Homer T. Thornberry as an associate justice.

The committee has been considering the appointments for more than two months without acting. Supporters fear that Congress will adjourn without confirming the nominations unless action takes place soon.

Allowing that the Fortas nomination is in a "tough position," Mansfield still ruled out any around-the-clock sessions in order to clear up the matter before the November elections.

But he did say he might call the Senate back into session after the elections if nothing is settled on the appointments by then.

Out Of The Air

Television Makes Millionaires

When actors talk about "art" they mean the movies, but when it's money they're looking for, they look to TV, where a lot more actors have become millionaires than in the movies during tre past 15 years

Hal Humphrey

Take Red Skelton, Jackie Gleason, Milton Berle and Jim ("Gunsmoke") Arness, just to name a few. All of them have done movies in the past, but didn't make any real money until they went on TV.

-:-

A SURE one-way ticket to a million dollars in TV is to be in a filmed series which lasts five years and which you, the actor, have a financial percentage of. Ray (Perry Mason) Burr, Andy Griffith, Danny Thomas, Richard ("Have Gun, Will Travel") Boone and Buddy ("Beverly Hillbillies") Ebsen are just a few in that circle.

If you package the series yourself with your own production company, the returns are even fancier when it comes time to sell the filmed segments for returns on syndication. Jack Benny, George Burns, Jack Webb, Ozzie Nelson, Groucho Marx and Donna Reed were all in that happy position.

When the series runs long enough — say nine years, like "Bonanza" — and is a No. 1-rated show most of those yars, the stars don't need a "piece of the action." Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon receive around $12,500 each show, plus a cut of merchandising revenue and other fringe benefits which now run their take up to an estimated $17,500 a week per season.

JOHNNY CARSON is another whose salary has reached such an astronomical height that he doesn't need residuals to be a millionaire. He's in the $25,000-a-week class, but he won't get the rerun monies that the "Bonanza" stars will receive when that series goes into off-network syndication.

Jack Paar, Carson's predecessor, also jumped into the millionaire class, although he made nothing like Carson's salary. He managed to save enough to buy his own TV station, however, for something like $3 million.

Several TV stars were able to use their TV income in wise investments which turned them into millionaires. George Gobel, who was a big hit for three seasons, did his show "live" so didn't get the residual benefits of film. But he invested in real estate (the Ramada Inns) and other things which parlayed him into the millionaire class.

DEAN MARTIN has been on TV with his own show just three seasons, but his new contract with NBC assures him a high roost on the financial ladder, plus his big movie income. Fred MacMurray of "My Three Sons" had his from movies, then made it again from the TV series which has been on the air eight seasons.

Ed Sullivan and Lawrence Welk, of course, live high on the TV money tree with no sign of diminishing returns setting in for either. Other old timers who made it the stand-up way on TV include Garry Moore, Art Linkletter, Ralph Edwards, Dinah Shore and Tennessee Ernie Ford.

Robert ("Father Knows Best") Young, Loretta Young, Roy Rogers and Bob Cummings landed on the filmed series money train early, but not too early to make it pay off.

THERE AREN'T this many making the big money in movies today. The Burtons, Jack Lemmon, Julie Andrews, Doris Day, Frank Sinatra, Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis, Steve McQueen and a few others are about it.

But the list in TV goes on and on. A few I may have overlooked include David ("The Fugitive") Janssen, Sid Caesar, Steve Allen, Merv Griffin and even some on the news side — we mustn't overlook Chet Huntley, David Brinkley and Walter Cronkite.

So TV, which always has been looked down on by the movie crowd as a poor relation, is making millionaires almost faster than the Internal Revenue Service can keep up with them.

Basin Overflows Onto Streets And New School's Lot

A faulty gauge was blamed for causing an overflow this morning at the Pope Ave. reservoir that sent water cascading onto Bank St., Morton St. and Carson Alley and a parking lot at the nearby new high school and elementary complex.

Harold Peterson, superintendent of the water department, said the overflow was corrected quickly. When the pumping plant was advised of the trouble, the operators shut down the pumps feeding the million-gallon basin and started up another set of pumps that relays water from the Huston Hill reservoir to the Henry Ave. standpipes, he said.

The reservoir holds water to a maximum depth of 15 feet. At the time of the overflow, the electrical gauge in the pumping plant showed the level at 10.5 feet, Peterson said.

Police first heard of the overflow at 6:45 this morning when a Morton St. woman telephoned that "a lot of yellow water is running down the street." A line break was suspected first as the source.

Held For Murder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Police have arrested Robert Green, 30, of Philadelphia on a murder charge in the shooting death of James Johnson, 35. The victim was killed late Saturday night following a quarrel in a bar, police said.

Portugal's Premier Reported Improving

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Premier Antonio Salazar spent a quiet, restful night with some fever that disappeared this morning, a hospital spokesman said. A blood clot was removed from alongside his brain on Saturday.

Portugal's 79-year-old ruler was reported recuperating satisfactorily at the Red Cross Hospital. A medical bulletin Sunday night said Salazar was able to eat, sit in an armchair and take a few steps.

Dr. Antonio Vasconcellos Marques denied reports that Salazar was unable to speak.

Salazar, who has ruled Portugal for 40 years, was injured in a fall more than a month ago. The blood clot formed between the brain and the meninges membrane around it, medical sources said.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Quaker group, the American Friends Service Committee, has started a drive to raise $200,000 for food and medical supplies for war victims in Nigeria and secessionist Biafra. "Help in the next three weeks can save the lives of thousands," said Dr. Christian Hansen, a group spokesman. It was disclosed that the group also will send teams of medical relief workers to the area.

Peace Role Of U.S. Hit By Newsmen

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two American newspapermen said today U.S. negotiators have blocked progress at the Paris peace talks by "dangerous and possibly fatal trimming" of the understanding by which the conference was arranged.

Contending they paved the way for the Paris talks during a visit to Hanoi last March, William C. Baggs, editor of the Miami News, and Harry S. Ashmore, former executive editor of the Arkansas Gazette, said in a book released today that North Vietnam stated before the sessions convened that meaningful negotiations could not begin until allied bombing of North Vietnam stopped.

The book, "Mission to Hanoi —a Chronicle of Double-Dealing in High Places," was based on two trips to Hanoi and conferences with U.S. State Department officials in Washington.

Baggs and Ashmore were in Hanoi, engaged in private discussions with a spokesman for President Ho Chi Minh on March 31 when President Johnson announced his decisions to curtail the bombing of North Vietnam and to withdraw from the presidential race.

The two newsmen said they met repeatedly with Ho's representative during the critical period when the Hanoi regime was trying to decide if it would accept the partial bombing halt as a strong enough indication of good faith to warrant a formal meeting with U.S. representatives.

Rail Union Unit Okays Merger

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The general policy committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen has approved a merger with three other rail unions, and the proposal now will go to a referendum of all members of the four organizations.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the 60,000-member BLF&E said Sunday the committee gave its "unanimous stamp of approval" to the proposal.

"This is another significant step toward the goal of a strong railroad operating union," Gilbert said.

Tentative plans call for formation of the United Transportation Union by Jan. 1. The UTU, formed from the BLF&E, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the switchmen's union, would have 250,000 members.

Landon Sees LBJ Impact In Election

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Alf M. Landon says President Johnson could have an overpowering impact on the 1968 presidential election.

The 1936 Republican presidential nominee gave his views on the 1968 campaign on the occasion of his 81st birthday today. Landon said "momentous events" in foreign affairs could occur before the election, making its outcome unpredictable at this time.

He said Johnson is the most unpopular president since Herbert Hoover, but he more than anyone else could influence the course of those events.

Landon, who supported Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the GOP nomination, also made his first public declaration of support for Richard M. Nixon.

Landon said two emotional issues—the Vietnam war and attitudes on questions involving human relations—will be crucial in the campaign.

He said there were demands within the Democratic party that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey disengage himself from the policies of the President. But this is difficult for Humphrey to do, he said, because "Johnson will be captain of the team until January and the decisions he makes in the next eight weeks will have an effect on the election."

Birdie On 4th Extra Hole Gives Player Golf Victory

PLAYER PLEADING. Gary Player looks unhappy, but he is actually very happy, as he has just sunk a birdie putt on the fourth extra hole to win the World Series of Golf at Akron yesterday over Bob Goalby. (UPI Telephoto)

Goalby Beaten In WS Playoff

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Little Gary Player, who has amassed more than a half million dollars in an illustrious 15-year career as a golf professional, picked up his check for $50,000 and headed for home.

"I'm anxious to get home. I miss my family," the 5-foot-7 South African said after he added the prestige-packed World Series of Golf title to his British Open Championship.

The 32-year-old Johannesburg star calmly rolled in an eight-foot birdie putt on the fourth extra hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday to wrest the big prize from Bob Goalby.

Only a month ago on this same tough par 70, 7,180-yard Firestone Country Club layout, Jack Nicklaus edged Lee Elder on the fifth hole of a playoff in the drama-filled American Golf Classic.

Player, who won this event in 1965, and Masters champ Goalby had deadlocked at 143, three over-par, for the regulation 36-holes before the South African won it all with his only birdie of the day.

Veteran Julius Boros, the PGA king, had a chance to forge a three-way tie but blew it when he missed a four-foot putt on the final hole.

"It's my own fault, I never gave it a chance," the 48-year-old popular pro said after he finished with his second straight 72 for a 144 total.

Goalby carried a one-stroke edge over Player and a two-stroke bulge over Boros to the 16th hole Sunday but put his second shot in the pond that fronts the green for a bogey.

Boros curled in a six-footer for a birdie that created a three-way deadlock but stumbled with his bogey on No. 18 to fall out of the chase. He took $7,500 for third place.

U. S. Open winner Lee Trevino, who dropped out of contention Saturday with a 79, added a 74 for a 153 score, 13 over par. He won $5,000. Player had rounds of 71-72 and Goalby 72-71.

Goalby, who earned $15,000 for his runner-up finish, said, "I had my chances but couldn't take advantage of them. I guess I was choking a bit."

The 37-year-old Belleville, Ill., pro missed a golden opportunity to end it all on the first extra hole, the par 3, 230-yard No. 15, when he misread the green and three-putted from 35 feet.

Player, one of only four golfers ever to cop the U.S. and British Opens, the PGA championship and the Masters, trapped his tee shot, needed two to get on and two to hole out and also bogeyed 15.

Both parred 16 and 17 before the 150-pound Player sealed it on No. 18 as darkness closed in.

Another Mays Error Gives Cards Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herman Franks' desperate three-day siege of St. Louis had the Cardinals squeezed into an unfamiliar bind ... until they got the drop on Willie Mays and started pinching back.

Franks' San Francisco Giants, bidding for a four-game sweep over the National League front-runners, led 2-1 in the ninth inning of Sunday's series finale when Mays dropped pinch hitter Roger Maris' long drive for a two-base error.

The Cardinals went on to tie the game on a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter Johnny Edwards and won it 3-2 in the 11th on a run-scoring pinch single by Phil Gagliano.

The victory sent St. Louis 11½ games ahead of the second place Giants and lowered the Cards' magic number for clinching their second successive pennant to seven. Any combination of Cardinal victories and Giant losses adding up to seven will put the leaders over the top.

In Sunday's other NL action the Chicago Cubs bombed Philadelphia 10-3, Los Angeles shaded Cincinnati 3-2, Atlanta downed Houston 4-1 and Pittsburgh beat the New York Mets 3-0.

Mays, whose three previous errors in the St. Louis series hadn't hurt the Giants, pinch hit in the fifth inning Sunday and tied the game 1-1 with a run-scoring single.

Dick Dietz put San Francisco ahead 2-1 with a run-producing single in the top of the ninth, but the Cards sent the game into overtime after Mays failed to hold Maris' leadoff shot to center. Bob Gibson, running for Maris, took third on another fly to Mays and scored on Edwards' fly to left.

Dal Maxvill opened the Cards' 11th with a single, raced to third on Lou Brock's single and tallied the winning run on Gagliano's hit through the left side.

Orlando Cepeda homered for the Cards in the fourth but Dietz' triple and Mays' pinch single knotted it before a thunderstorm held up play for one hour, 12 minutes in the fifth.

Billy Williams laced four hits, including his 25th and 26th homers, in the Cubs' romp over Philadelphia. Williams' three-run homer keyed a five-run burst in the third inning and the Cubs added three more in the fifth, with Williams and Ernie Banks hitting successive homers.

Left-hander Ken Holtzman, who scattered eight hits on the way to his 10th victory, drove in two Chicago runs with a pair of singles.

Jim Lefebvre carried the Dodgers past Cincinnati by rapping two singles, a run-scoring double and a bases-empty homer in four trips to the plate.

Milt Pappas checked the Astros on seven hits and squared his season mark at 11-11.

Southpaw Bob Veale stopped the Mets on six hits and Jose Pagan drove in two Pittsburgh runs with a single and this third homer. Veale pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the fifth, then breezed to his 12th victory in 25 decisions.

Wittenberg College, using the formula where ties count as half a win and half a loss, has the best winning percentage of any football team in the country since 1960.

Bill Edwards' team has posted a 63-6-1 mark in this decade, for a fantastic .907 percentage. Alabama is 71-6-3, for a .906 percentage. Muskingum is fourth at 62-10.

Contributing to Wittenberg's success, at least to last year's 8-1 mark, was Darryl Herring of East Liverpool. The 5-7, 167 sophomore halfback last year gained 53 yards in 11 carries, caught seven passes for 154 yards and three TDs, returned five kickoffs for 89 yards and returned 13 punts for 105 yards, leading the team in the last category. He is listed as the probable starting left halfback this season.

Other area players returning from last year's Tiger team are guard Jim Lear of Alliance, center Rick Thomas of Salem and defensive end Denny Yontz of Louisville.

Listed among "freshmen to watch" are a trio of outstanding performers from Columbiana — halfback Bill Ward, tackle Bill Cyrus and guard George Lynn. Another frosh is halfback Doug Heuer of Boardman.

WASHBURN University of Topeka, Kan., hopes to improve on its 0-9 mark of 1967. One of the main reasons for the hope is Midland's Steve Alston, who was the leading rusher on the team last year as a sophomore. Alston gained 288 yards in 93 carries.

Three Tied For Lead

Southern Local, Boston Trip Review Grid Yogis

Maybe the Review Grid Yogis should add staffer Lucille Huston to their group.

Mrs. Huston predicted all along that when Jerry Winstead said his Southern Local team was improved this year he knew what he was talking about. Of course she's prejudiced, being a resident of the Southern district, but her advice was good, as the Yogis went down in a group as Southern walked over Lisbon 40-16.

The only other game to trip up the consensus was the Buffalo-Boston game, where Rose Nuzzo was the only Yogi to foresee the 16-7 win by the Patriots. Nuzzo fell with the Cincinnati Bengals, a 23-13 loser to the San Diego Chargers, to wind up 8-2, tied for the lead with Chuck Campbell and Turk Pierce.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, a 36-6 winner over Cleveland West; Midland, a 20-0 winner over Western Beaver; Stanton, which pulled out a 36-28 win over Hopedale, and Leetonia, which whipped United Local 46-6. Everyone got Columbiana's 18-12 win over Beaver Local except Ed Clutter. Clutter and Pete Weaver went down with Oak Glen, a 13-6 loser to Fairmont East and Clutter and Bob Duffy missed with Wellsville, a 33-0 loser to East Palestine. Duffy and Bob Shaffer joined Nuzzo in picking the Bengals.

Twins Sweep Tigers Behind Nettles

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Graig Nettles keeps hitting home runs, people are going to learn the proper spelling of his first name in a hurry.

It's Graig, not Craig and not Greg. And the Minnesota rookie spelled nothing but trouble for Detroit's pennant express over the weekend.

Nettles slammed a three-run homer—his fourth in three days against the Tigers—accounting for all of Minnesota's runs in the Twins' 3-1 victory over the American League leaders Sunday.

The loss combined with Baltimore's 3-2 victory over Chicago, cut the Tigers' lead to seven games over the Orioles. Detroit's magic number for clinching the flag remained at 12.

In other AL action Sunday, New York rapped Washington 7-2, California edged Boston 3-2 and Oakland walloped Cleveland 10-2.

Nettles was called up from Denver of the Pacific Coast League on Sept. 1 when the roster limit was increased to 40 men. He hit his first major league homer Friday night against Tiger ace Denny McLain, walloped two for both Twins runs in a 2-1 victory Saturday night and then unloaded a No. 4 against Earl Wilson Sunday.

"When I hit homers," explained Nettles, "I hit them in bunches."

Nettles' sixth inning homer followed singles by Cesar Tovar and Frank Kostro and gave Dean Chance the victory over Wilson, Chance, touched for a fifth inning homer by Gates Brown, allowed six hits and struck out seven,, squaring his record at 14-14. Wilson is 12-12.

Baltimore picked up ground when Dave McNally stopped Chicago on four hits for his 20th victory and 12th streaight since the All Star break.

The Orioles scored all their runs with two out in the first inning when Brooks Robinson tripled, Frank Robinson and Elrod Hendricks followed with doubles and Dave Johnson singled.

That was enough for McNally, 20-8, who has not lost since July 5. He gave up a run in the fifth and another in the eighth but went the route to become the Orioles' second 20-game winner since the club returned to the major leagues in 1954. The other was Steve Barber in 1963.

The Yankees, who had scored 26 runs on 27 hits sweeping a Saturday doubleheader from Washington, kept the offense rolling with 11 more hits and beat the Senators again for Stan Bahnsen's 15th victory.

Bahnsen allowed four hits—two of them homers by Gene Martin and Mike Epstein—and coasted after the Yankees scored three runs with two out in the third inning on a walk, Joe Pepitone's triple, and consecutive doubles by Tom Tresh and Bill Robinson.

The victory moved the Yankees three games over .500—the first time since 1964 that they've had that good a chance so late in the season. New York is tied for fifth place with Oakland, one game back of fourth place Cleveland.

The Athletics clubbed the Indians for the third time in a row with Danny Cater, Bert Campaneris and Dave Duncan leading an 18-hit attack.

Cater had four hits, raising his batting average to .289. Duncan and Campaneris had three each with Campaneris scoring twice on two doubles and a triple.

California scored all its runs in the first inning and then hung on to beat Boston.

Rookies Jarvis Tatum and Jim Spencer each singled in the first inning uprising with Spencer's single driving in what turned out to be the Angels' winning run.

Clyde Wright pitched 6 2-3 innings of relief to earn his ninth victory after Angel starter Jim McGlothlin was forced to leave the game when he was struck on the left wrist by Carl Yastrzemski's line drive.

Lomax Scores Four TDs

South Side Blanked By Donora In Opener

DONORA — The host Dragons rolled over South Side Beaver in the opening football game for both teams here Saturday.

Malcolm Lomax led the way for Donora with four TDs and two extra points. The fleet fullback, who is also a standout in basketball, is shooting for the mark of 127 points he scored last season.

South Side Beaver could get no closer than the Donora 20. The Rams, a Class B school, were not eliminated from WPIAL play, as Donora is Class A.

Students Speak To Lions

By ROSE NUZZO

The warm hospitality of the East Liverpool people will long be remembered by two foreign students who will start classes in American universities this week.

Speaking before members of the East Liverpool Lions Club Friday, U-Hyung Park of Seoul, Korea, and Johnson Olu Omisakin of Nigeria described their educational plans, compared the American way of living to their native land, and told of the chaos in Nigeria, now in a state of civil war.

PARK, 27, will begin his studies for a master's degree Wednesday at the University of Cincinnati. His temporary U.S. home is with Mr. and Mrs. Jackman Vodrey of Park Blvd. He is here under the Experiment International Living program, and will major in nuclear science.

Omisakin, 25, leaves today for Morgan State College, Baltimore, where he will begin pre-medicine studies for four years. He also will be seeking a scholarship. He is here on his own, having saved money for his education. He hopes to continue into the field of medicine, and return to his native land where doctors are scarce.

Park, who has four brothers and three sisters, proudly spoke of his parents — his mother being a writer and connected with two of Korea's largest newspapers, and his father who is a politician.

He told of the "big family" system in his native land where the whole family lives together and the oldest son has to remain with his parents as long as they live. He was surprised to see how parents live alone in America.

PARK, who always visualized the majority of American men and women as slim, was surprised to see a large percentage of them on the "heavy" side.

The Nigerian student spoke seriously of the African disunity that prevails today, with a continuing breakdown of order and parliamentary democracy. He said the food situation is very serious, especially in Biafra, Nigeria, where thousands are starving.

He stated the Ibo tribe is being misled by its leaders, and the federal government does not want to destroy the Ibos, rather it wants to preserve the nation's territorial integrity and unity.

Omisakin, who has two brothers and three sisters, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Morris of Substation Rd. His mother is a trader and his father, a farmer.

The two students enjoy American food, but Park turned thumbs down on "blue cheese." The Nigerian does not eat sweets.

They were introduced at the Lions meeting by Mrs. Barbara Morris. Patsy DiPasquale was program chairman.

Another student under the (ASPAU) program, Yilma Wube of Ethiopia, will begin studies Thursday at Ohio State University, Columbus, and his temporary home is with the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Hampton of Wellsville.

Crew Pushes 'Hill Rd.' Job

Working under an Ohio Highway Department contract, a crew of the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. at Martins Ferry is continuing work on a 700-foot stretch of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

The project calls for the blacktop pavement, sloping and uneven as a result of gradual slippage in the adjacent hillside, to be built up to the level of the adjacent sections of the highway.

One-way traffic is being maintained around the job site. The state undertook the job because Pennsylvania Ave. is a link in State Route 39.

Meanwhile, Tri-State representatives are slated to confer Wednesday with Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Engineer George Bloomgren on details of a project for blacktop resurfacing of St. Clair Ave. between 6th St. and Princeton Ave.

The work will be done under a contract with the city. It also calls for blacktop resurfacing of the River Rd. and Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

Tri-State representatives told the director the firm will start work on the local contract "the latter part of the week."

Perrysburg Man Charged In Slaying

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — Williams County Sheriff Denver Mock Jr. arrested and charged a Perrysburg man Sunday in the killing last week of a New Yorker who was hitch-hiking to California.

William Bostler, 20, was charged with first degree murder and lodged in Williams County Jail here.

The body of Eben H. Harney, 26, of Monticello, N. Y., was found in a ditch near Stryker, Williams County, early on Aug. 31. He had been shot six times with a .25 caliber pistol.

Floor Action Possible On Fortas Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless the Senate Judiciary Committee acts soon on President Johnson's Supreme Court nominations, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says he may try to take the matter directly to the Senate floor.

"I think the Senate ought to have to face up to the President's request and I think the President is entitled to the courtesy of an up-and-down vote," Mansfield said Sunday.

President Johnson is seeking to have Associate Justice Abe Fortas succeed retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren and to name federal Appeals Court Judge Homer T. Thornberry as an associate justice.

The committee has been considering the appointments for more than two months without acting. Supporters fear that Congress will adjourn without confirming the nominations unless action takes place soon.

Allowing that the Fortas nomination is in a "tough position," Mansfield still ruled out any around-the-clock sessions in order to clear up the matter before the November elections.

But he did say he might call the Senate back into session after the elections if nothing is settled on the appointments by then.

Premiums Mailed

LISBON — Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, Columbiana County fair secretary, this morning mailed over 800 checks representing payment of premiums and most of the bills for the 123rd annual exposition Aug. 21-25. Premiums totaled $2,194 in the Junior Fair category and $3,303 in the open or senior fair departments.

Boston Surprises Buffalo On Cappelletti's Kicking

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gino Cappelletti gets his kicks out of kicking, but the Buffalo Bills sure wish he would find another way to amuse himself.

The Bills did a fairly good job of short-circuiting Boston's offense Sunday—except Gino's toe.

The precision kicker connected on three field goals and an extra point to lead the Patriots to a 16-7 victory in the American Football League opener for both teams.

Meanwhile, the AFL was aglow today over a couple of weekend games that didn't mean a thing—except a big dent in the elder National League's reputation.

The New York Jets knocked off the Detroit Lions 9-6 and Miami bumped Atlanta 19-13 in the last of preseason interleague play.

That gave the nine-year-old AFL a 13-10 edge over its 49-year-old rival in face-to-face showdowns this summer—quite a contrast to a year ago when the NFL had a 13-3 bulge in interleague play.

AFL warfare picks up momentum tonight when Kansas City, last season's runnerup in the Western Division, and Houston's Eastern Division champions make their debut in the Astrodome.

Both teams take 4-1 preseason records into the nationally televised affair (NBC, 9 p.m., EDT).

Kansas City's big chore will be to stop quarterback Pete Beathard, who hit 60 of 129 passes for 659 yards and five touchdowns in the exhibitions.

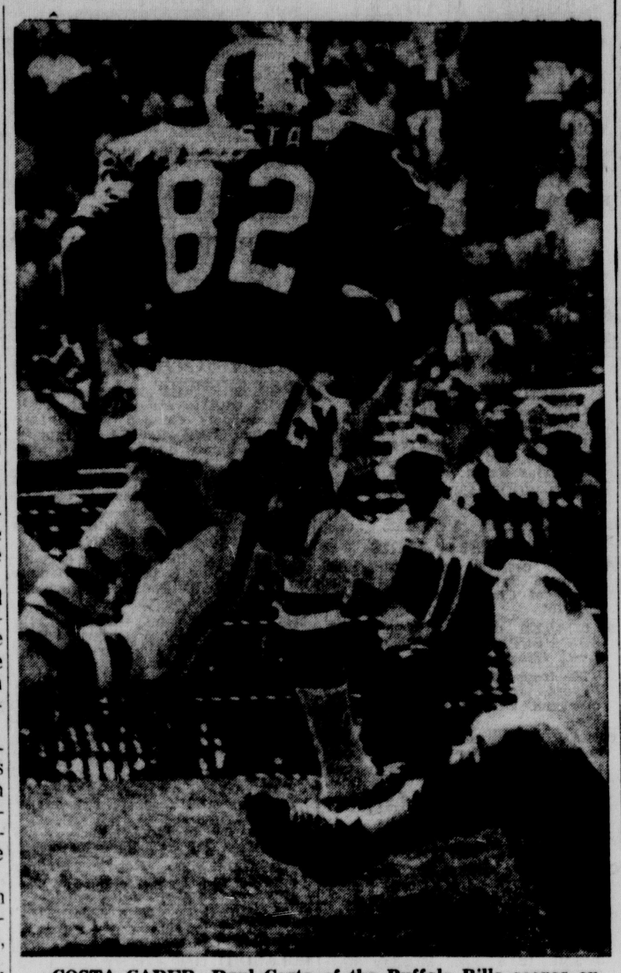

The Chiefs hope to counteract this threat with the passing of veterans Len Dawson and the running of Mike Garrett, Curtis McClinton and Wendell Hayes.

Cappelletti did all of his work after Buffalo made an impressive start with an all-rookie backfield.

Dan Darragh, elevated to the No. 1 quarterback spot because of Jack Kemp's injury, guided the Bills 77 yards in 13 plays—with end Paul Costa going the last six—to ring up a quick 7-0 lead.

But then Gino went to work.

He kicked a 10-yard field goal in the second quarter, picked up his extra point after R. C. Gamble rambled 45 yards on the first play from scrimmage in the second half, added a 28-yarder later in the third quarter, and polished things off with a 30-yard kick in the final period.

COSTA CAPER. Paul Costa of the Buffalo Bills scores on an end-around play in the AFL opener against Boston at Buffalo yesterday. Bills took 7-0 lead, but Patriots won 16-7. (UPI Telephoto)

Cappelletti's extra point effort cut to 50 the number he needs to become only the second pro to pass the 1,000 level.

Darragh hit on 13 of 25 passes for 150 yards for the Bills, while Patriot quarterback Mike Taliaferro, traded off by the New York Jets earlier this year, made only five of 13 for 60 yards.

However, the Bills had a 150-76 advantage in rushing, with Gamble accounting for 90 on 16 carries.

In other weekend games, San Diego stopped Cincinnati 29-13 Friday night in the season opener for both, and Oakland defeated Denver 23-7 Saturday night in an exhibition.

In NFL exhibitions Saturday night, Philadelphia whipped New York 21-7, Washington defeated Pittsburgh 24-17, Green Bay socked Cleveland 31-9 and Baltimore topped Dallas 16-10.

Toledo Wins IL Pennant

By The Associated Press

Toledo's Mud Hens have won the 1968 pennant in the International League in a breath-taking finish.

Trailing Columbus one percentage point going into Sunday's finales, the Mud Hens took their first IL crown by bombing Rochester 17-0 while Columbus was splitting two with Jacksonville—losing 7-3 and winning 2-1.

The almost imperceptible difference in the latest of the IL's hair-raising flag races was a half-game and three percentage points. Toledo wound up 83-64—.565, Columbus 82-64—.562.

Cancellation of the rained-out second game of a doubleheader between Columbus and Jacksonville last Thursday night left the Jets playing only 146 games to Toledo's 147.

It was appropriate that Toledo won the pennant by defeating Rochester, for the Mud Hens had found the Red Wings to be patsies all year, beating the league's third-place team 15 times in 21 games.

Sunday they showed no mercy at bat as lefty Les Cain pitched a three-hitter and hit a grand slam homer.

Jacksonville extinguished Columbus' hopes in their opening game as rookie Steve Renko and Ron Locke held the Jets to five hits.

The Governor's Cup playoffs open Tuesday with Jacksonville at Toledo and Rochester at Columbus.

Graebner, Rosewall Lose

Ashe, Okker In Finals; Miss Wade Upsets King

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Can a big service overpower speed and finesse in a championship tennis battle?

This was the question that divided the court wizards today as Arthur Ashe, the U.S. Army lieutenant from Highland Falls, N.Y., and Tom Okker, the catquick giant-killer from The Netherlands, squared off in the men's singles final of the U.S. Open Tournament.

"I think I would have to pick Ashe because of his powerful service," predicted Pancho Gonzales, the old pro who gave the fans a show before bowing out to Okker in the quarter-finals.

"Ashe serves as hard as any man in tennis, much harder than I do today. He has too much power for Okker."

Bill Talbert, the former U.S. Davis Cup captain, disagreed. "Okker's all-around strength will beat Arthur," Talbert said. "It's true that Ashe serves harder but Okker is quicker and has more shots."

"I'll go with the big serve and Ashe," said Jack Kramer.

"I lose only to the champion—I have to pick Okker. He's not only fast but he is capable of making some of the most fantastic shots I've ever seen," said the veteran Ken Rosewall.

The third-seeded Rosewall, who became the 13th professional to fall before an amateur racket, was Okker's victim in the dramatic semifinals Sunday, the 24-year-old Dutchman winning 8-6, 6-4, 6-8, 6-1.

Ashe, 24, reigning U.S. amateur champion and the first Negro ever to win the American title, unleashed a 115 miles-per-hour service in blasting aside his Davis cup teammate, Clark Graebner of New York, 4-6, 8-6, 7-5, 6-2.

"Arthur's serve was just too strong," admitted Graebner.

Ashe, semifinalist at Wimbledon and bidding to become the No. 1 men's player in the world, will be going for his 26th consecutive singles victory when he goes against Okker at 3 p.m. EDT before a national television audience (CBS).

The service also was the determining factor in the jolting surprise in the women's final which saw Virginia Wade, pretty 24-year-old British girl with a thunderbolt service and a powerful forehand, dethrone Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the two-time Wimbledon winner, 6-4, 6-2.

It's been a humiliating week for the pros. Thirteen men pros, including such stars as Rod Laver, Tony Roche and Pancho Gonzales, lost to amateurs. All four of the lady pros in the tournament, headed by Mrs. King, were sent to the sidelines.

But amateurs, under the new liberal international rules, this time got a little more than silverware and adjectives for their performances. Miss Wade collected $6,000 for winning the women's title, Mrs. King, a pro, got $3,000. Okker, who chose to play for prize money, got the $14,000 men's purse and Rosewall the $9,000 second money.

Ashe and Graebner, because of stricter U.S. rules, played for $15 a day and a hotel room. Next year it may be different. The United States will consider a change of its policy in February.

Four Super Rounds

Casper Tops Crampton In Hartford Open Golf

By TOM HARRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Bruce Crampton said last week that it takes four super rounds to win a tournament in pro golf today, and he turned out to be a prophet—for Billy Casper.

Casper, golf's leading money winner in 1968, put together the four super rounds in the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Tourney which wound up Sunday. Australian Crampton had only three rounds in the super category and wound up in second place.

Casper had scores of 68-65-67-66 to claim the $20,000 top prize at Wethersfield Country Club with a 72-hole score of 266, 18-under-par. Crampton had 65-67-70-67 for a 269 finish Sunday and $12,000 in consolation money.

Crampton's prophecy of sorts came on Thursday after his first round 65 led the way. He said pro golf is so much tougher in 1968 because of the number of players who can win and an improved standard of play. Three good rounds and one great one was once the winning formula, he stated.

The most spectacular aspect of Casper's play was his putting. He needed only 27 putts on the second round when he fashioned a brilliant 65 in chilling cold, rain and wind.

When the sun returned Saturday and Sunday, Casper needed only 26 putts for each 18 hole round. It was "some of the best putting I've had in several years," Casper said.

Casper is enjoying his best year in money winnings, $171,436, and although others claimed the major titles at the U.S. and British Opens, Masters and PGA tournaments, Casper's five tournament victories this year is three more than any other golfer.

EL Reserves Rout Mooney In Opener

Steve Williams scored on a 53-yard run on the second play from scrimmage and the rout continued from there as the East Liverpool reserve football team ran over Youngstown Cardinal Mooney 42-0 at Patterson Field Saturday morning.

Rick Eckles scored three times and Craig Yanni passed for three scores. Gary Cox and Steve Douglas got the other TDs.

The reserve defense held Mooney to no first downs except by penalty in the first half and never let the opposition get inside the EL 30.

Gardner Injured In Gold Cup

DETROIT (AP) — A high speed showdown between powerboating's top two drivers ended abruptly on the Detroit River Sunday when the 5,600 pound craft of Lt. Col. Warner Gardner, a retired Air Force officer, was virtually ripped to pieces in a stunning moment during the Gold Cup race.

The 52-year-old Gardner of Bay City, Mich. was critically injured when his 30-foot speedboat suddenly became airborne, flipped on its side and disintegrated as it smacked against the water.

Gardner's No. 1 rival, defending champion Bill Schumacher of Seattle, was about to make an effort to help rescue Gardner until he saw a Coast Guard amphibious helicopter swooping in to pluck the unconscious driver from the river.

"I got out of the way in a hurry for I knew they could be of more help to the colonel than I could," the shaken Schumacher said later.

Colts Down Cowboys, Packers Whip Browns

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dallas' Don Meredith tried to bomb out of the National Football League's exhibition season, but Johnny Unitas beat him to it.

Green Bay's Bart Starr, on the other hand, took his good old time and that was fast enough to get by Cleveland.

Even before Meredith could take aim, Unitas had dropped an 84-yard scoring bomb to John Mackey, and when Meredith tried his fireworks, they exploded in his face and instead set up Baltimore's 16-10 victory last Saturday night.

Starr used fullback Jim Grabowski to pick apart Cleveland's defense along with a few explosions of his own as the Packers trampled the Browns 31-9.

With the real fireworks set for this weekend, six other NFL teams ended their preseason chores last Saturday.

In other all NFL games Philadelphia surprised the New York Giants 21-7 in the afternoon and Washington stopped Pittsburgh 24-17 at night. The New York Jets of the American League beat Detroit of the NFL 9-6 and Miami of the AFL tripped Atlanta of the NFL 19-6, helping the AFL to a 13-10 edge over the NFL in preseason play.

In the AFL, Oakland beat Denver 23-7, and in regular season play, Boston defeated Buffalo 16-7 on Sunday. Houston and Kansas City play tonight.

Unitas hit Mackey with a quick pass on the first play from scrimmage and the rugged tight end ran over tacklers to put Baltimore in front in a bitter struggle between NFL power-houses.

With Meredith connecting on short passes, the Cowboys came back to tie 10-10, but then he turned to the long bombs which Dallas has used so successfully in the past. This time they got burned.

The Colts intercepted four Meredith passes, two in the final period, and Lou Michaels kicked field goals of 22 and 11 yards. The Cowboys also fumbled away two other drives inside the Baltimore 10 yard line.

"We made enough mistakes for four games," said Cowboys' coach Tom Landry of the nationally televised game in the Cotton Bowl.

Grabowski scored twice on two yard runs and once on an 18-yard pass from Starr, and set up a 13-yard scoring sprint by Donny Anderson before 84,918 fans, the largest crowd in Browns' history. Starr finished with 11 completions in 17 attempts for 164 yards.

Don Cockroft kicked three field goals for Cleveland's points in the second game of the annual doubleheader at Memorial Stadium.

Joe Namath's passes set up a touchdown and a field goal in the first half as the Jets downed the Lions in the first game. Jerry DePoyster booted two field goals for Detroit, which lost two chances inside the 10 on Mel Farr fumbles.

Sonny Jurgensen, in his 1968 debut, shook off his arm miseries and hit on 16 of 26 passes for 211 yards, including two scoring tosses to Charley Taylor in Washington's victory.

Bob Griese's passes set up a touchdown and Jimmy Keyes' second field goal in the final half for Miami. Rookie Dick Anderson ran 28 yards with an intercepted pass for the other score.

Injuries and military duty kept seven Philadelphia regulars out of the game, but the Eagles still overcame a 7-0 deficit with two second half touchdowns within 43 seconds. John Huarte drove the Eagles 68 yards for the first and John Mallory ran 20 yards with a fumble for the second.

Dick Petty Wins Race At Richmond

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richard Petty predicted Sunday that the Capital City 300 stock car race would be won in the pits. He was wrong.

But when the curly-haired Plymouth driver from Level Cross, N.C. banks his $2,200 victory check, it's unlikely he'll complain.

He led 216 laps the 300-lap event, despite slow P.T. work that time and time again gave up the lead to Ford driver David Pearson. Petty simply outran the Spartanburg, S.C., driver where it counted-on the track.

He averaged a whopping 85.66 miles an hour over the former half-mile dirt oval that was certified as five-eighths of a mile after the paving process last week.

And he had claimed the pole position earlier with a 103.6 m.p.h. lap that inaugurated high speed racing at the State Fairgrounds track. Before the asphalt machines showed up a 70 m.p.h. lap here was one for the record books.

Pearson finished second, half a lap behind Petty's Plymouth.

Finishing third in a Mercury was Cale Yarbrough of Timmonsville, S.C. Bobby Allison of Hueytown, Ala., was fourth in a Chevelle, and Buddy Barker of Charlotte was fifth in a Dodge.

Phelodie Winner Of Quebec Derby

MONTREAL (AP) — Phelodie, owned by J. Frowde Seagram of Waterloo, Ont., won the $32,385 Quebec Derby, a race restricted to Canadian foaled 3-year-olds run at Blue Bonnets Raceway Sunday.

Veteran jockey Hugo Dittfach kept Phelodie well off the pace in the early running of the 1⅛-mile test and then booted his colt home on the outside to win by a length over Big Blunder, the 4-to 5 favorite.

Birdie On 4th Extra Hole Gives Player Golf Victory

PLAYER PLEADING. Gary Player looks unhappy, but he is actually very happy, as he has just sunk a birdie putt on the fourth extra hole to win the World Series of Golf at Akron yesterday over Bob Goalby. (UPI Telephoto)

Goalby Beaten In WS Playoff

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Little Gary Player, who has amassed more than a half million dollars in an illustrious 15-year career as a golf professional, picked up his check for $50,000 and headed for home.

"I'm anxious to get home. I miss my family," the 5-foot-7 South African said after he added the prestige-packed World Series of Golf title to his British Open Championship.

The 32-year-old Johannesburg star calmly rolled in an eight-foot birdie putt on the fourth extra hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday to wrest the big prize from Bob Goalby.

Only a month ago on this same tough par 70, 7,180-yard Firestone Country Club layout, Jack Nicklaus edged Lee Elder on the fifth hole of a playoff in the drama-filled American Golf Classic.

Player, who won this event in 1965, and Masters champ Goalby had deadlocked at 143, three over-par, for the regulation 36-holes before the South African won it all with his only birdie of the day.

Veteran Julius Boros, the PGA king, had a chance to forge a three-way tie but blew it when he missed a four-foot putt on the final hole.

"It's my own fault, I never gave it a chance," the 48-year-old popular pro said after he finished with his second straight 72 for a 144 total.

Goalby carried a one-stroke edge over Player and a two-stroke bulge over Boros to the 16th hole Sunday but put his second shot in the pond that fronts the green for a bogey.

Boros curled in a six-footer for a birdie that created a three-way deadlock but stumbled with his bogey on No. 18 to fall out of the chase. He took $7,500 for third place.

U. S. Open winner Lee Trevino, who dropped out of contention Saturday with a 79, added a 74 for a 153 score, 13 over par. He won $5,000. Player had rounds of 71-72 and Goalby 72-71.

Goalby, who earned $15,000 for his runner-up finish, said, "I had my chances but couldn't take advantage of them. I guess I was choking a bit."

The 37-year-old Belleville, Ill., pro missed a golden opportunity to end it all on the first extra hole, the par 3, 230-yard No. 15, when he misread the green and three-putted from 35 feet.

Player, one of only four golfers ever to cop the U.S. and British Opens, the PGA championship and the Masters, trapped his tee shot, needed two to get on and two to hole out and also bogeyed 15.

Both parred 16 and 17 before the 150-pound Player sealed it on No. 18 as darkness closed in.

Another Mays Error Gives Cards Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herman Franks' desperate three-day siege of St. Louis had the Cardinals squeezed into an unfamiliar bind ... until they got the drop on Willie Mays and started pinching back.

Franks' San Francisco Giants, bidding for a four-game sweep over the National League front-runners, led 2-1 in the ninth inning of Sunday's series finale when Mays dropped pinch hitter Roger Maris' long drive for a two-base error.

The Cardinals went on to tie the game on a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter Johnny Edwards and won it 3-2 in the 11th on a run-scoring pinch single by Phil Gagliano.

The victory sent St. Louis 11½ games ahead of the second place Giants and lowered the Cards' magic number for clinching their second successive pennant to seven. Any combination of Cardinal victories and Giant losses adding up to seven will put the leaders over the top.

In Sunday's other NL action the Chicago Cubs bombed Philadelphia 10-3, Los Angeles shaded Cincinnati 3-2, Atlanta downed Houston 4-1 and Pittsburgh beat the New York Mets 3-0.

Mays, whose three previous errors in the St. Louis series hadn't hurt the Giants, pinch hit in the fifth inning Sunday and tied the game 1-1 with a run-scoring single.

Dick Dietz put San Francisco ahead 2-1 with a run-producing single in the top of the ninth, but the Cards sent the game into overtime after Mays failed to hold Maris' leadoff shot to center. Bob Gibson, running for Maris, took third on another fly to Mays and scored on Edwards' fly to left.

Dal Maxvill opened the Cards' 11th with a single, raced to third on Lou Brock's single and tallied the winning run on Gagliano's hit through the left side.

Orlando Cepeda homered for the Cards in the fourth but Dietz' triple and Mays' pinch single knotted it before a thunderstorm held up play for one hour, 12 minutes in the fifth.

Billy Williams laced four hits, including his 25th and 26th homers, in the Cubs' romp over Philadelphia. Williams' three-run homer keyed a five-run burst in the third inning and the Cubs added three more in the fifth, with Williams and Ernie Banks hitting successive homers.

Left-hander Ken Holtzman, who scattered eight hits on the way to his 10th victory, drove in two Chicago runs with a pair of singles.

Jim Lefebvre carried the Dodgers past Cincinnati by rapping two singles, a run-scoring double and a bases-empty homer in four trips to the plate.

Milt Pappas checked the Astros on seven hits and squared his season mark at 11-11.

Southpaw Bob Veale stopped the Mets on six hits and Jose Pagan drove in two Pittsburgh runs with a single and this third homer. Veale pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the fifth, then breezed to his 12th victory in 25 decisions.

Wittenberg College, using the formula where ties count as half a win and half a loss, has the best winning percentage of any football team in the country since 1960.

Bill Edwards' team has posted a 63-6-1 mark in this decade, for a fantastic .907 percentage. Alabama is 71-6-3, for a .906 percentage. Muskingum is fourth at 62-10.

Contributing to Wittenberg's success, at least to last year's 8-1 mark, was Darryl Herring of East Liverpool. The 5-7, 167 sophomore halfback last year gained 53 yards in 11 carries, caught seven passes for 154 yards and three TDs, returned five kickoffs for 89 yards and returned 13 punts for 105 yards, leading the team in the last category. He is listed as the probable starting left halfback this season.

Other area players returning from last year's Tiger team are guard Jim Lear of Alliance, center Rick Thomas of Salem and defensive end Denny Yontz of Louisville.

Listed among "freshmen to watch" are a trio of outstanding performers from Columbiana — halfback Bill Ward, tackle Bill Cyrus and guard George Lynn. Another frosh is halfback Doug Heuer of Boardman.

WASHBURN University of Topeka, Kan., hopes to improve on its 0-9 mark of 1967. One of the main reasons for the hope is Midland's Steve Alston, who was the leading rusher on the team last year as a sophomore. Alston gained 288 yards in 93 carries.

Three Tied For Lead

Southern Local, Boston Trip Review Grid Yogis

Maybe the Review Grid Yogis should add staffer Lucille Huston to their group.

Mrs. Huston predicted all along that when Jerry Winstead said his Southern Local team was improved this year he knew what he was talking about. Of course she's prejudiced, being a resident of the Southern district, but her advice was good, as the Yogis went down in a group as Southern walked over Lisbon 40-16.

The only other game to trip up the consensus was the Buffalo-Boston game, where Rose Nuzzo was the only Yogi to foresee the 16-7 win by the Patriots. Nuzzo fell with the Cincinnati Bengals, a 23-13 loser to the San Diego Chargers, to wind up 8-2, tied for the lead with Chuck Campbell and Turk Pierce.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, a 36-6 winner over Cleveland West; Midland, a 20-0 winner over Western Beaver; Stanton, which pulled out a 36-28 win over Hopedale, and Leetonia, which whipped United Local 46-6. Everyone got Columbiana's 18-12 win over Beaver Local except Ed Clutter. Clutter and Pete Weaver went down with Oak Glen, a 13-6 loser to Fairmont East and Clutter and Bob Duffy missed with Wellsville, a 33-0 loser to East Palestine. Duffy and Bob Shaffer joined Nuzzo in picking the Bengals.

Twins Sweep Tigers Behind Nettles

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Graig Nettles keeps hitting home runs, people are going to learn the proper spelling of his first name in a hurry.

It's Graig, not Craig and not Greg. And the Minnesota rookie spelled nothing but trouble for Detroit's pennant express over the weekend.

Nettles slammed a three-run homer—his fourth in three days against the Tigers—accounting for all of Minnesota's runs in the Twins' 3-1 victory over the American League leaders Sunday.

The loss combined with Baltimore's 3-2 victory over Chicago, cut the Tigers' lead to seven games over the Orioles. Detroit's magic number for clinching the flag remained at 12.

In other AL action Sunday, New York rapped Washington 7-2, California edged Boston 3-2 and Oakland walloped Cleveland 10-2.

Nettles was called up from Denver of the Pacific Coast League on Sept. 1 when the roster limit was increased to 40 men. He hit his first major league homer Friday night against Tiger ace Denny McLain, walloped two for both Twins runs in a 2-1 victory Saturday night and then unloaded a No. 4 against Earl Wilson Sunday.

"When I hit homers," explained Nettles, "I hit them in bunches."

Nettles' sixth inning homer followed singles by Cesar Tovar and Frank Kostro and gave Dean Chance the victory over Wilson, Chance, touched for a fifth inning homer by Gates Brown, allowed six hits and struck out seven,, squaring his record at 14-14. Wilson is 12-12.

Baltimore picked up ground when Dave McNally stopped Chicago on four hits for his 20th victory and 12th streaight since the All Star break.

The Orioles scored all their runs with two out in the first inning when Brooks Robinson tripled, Frank Robinson and Elrod Hendricks followed with doubles and Dave Johnson singled.

That was enough for McNally, 20-8, who has not lost since July 5. He gave up a run in the fifth and another in the eighth but went the route to become the Orioles' second 20-game winner since the club returned to the major leagues in 1954. The other was Steve Barber in 1963.

The Yankees, who had scored 26 runs on 27 hits sweeping a Saturday doubleheader from Washington, kept the offense rolling with 11 more hits and beat the Senators again for Stan Bahnsen's 15th victory.

Bahnsen allowed four hits—two of them homers by Gene Martin and Mike Epstein—and coasted after the Yankees scored three runs with two out in the third inning on a walk, Joe Pepitone's triple, and consecutive doubles by Tom Tresh and Bill Robinson.

The victory moved the Yankees three games over .500—the first time since 1964 that they've had that good a chance so late in the season. New York is tied for fifth place with Oakland, one game back of fourth place Cleveland.

The Athletics clubbed the Indians for the third time in a row with Danny Cater, Bert Campaneris and Dave Duncan leading an 18-hit attack.

Cater had four hits, raising his batting average to .289. Duncan and Campaneris had three each with Campaneris scoring twice on two doubles and a triple.

California scored all its runs in the first inning and then hung on to beat Boston.

Rookies Jarvis Tatum and Jim Spencer each singled in the first inning uprising with Spencer's single driving in what turned out to be the Angels' winning run.

Clyde Wright pitched 6 2-3 innings of relief to earn his ninth victory after Angel starter Jim McGlothlin was forced to leave the game when he was struck on the left wrist by Carl Yastrzemski's line drive.

Lomax Scores Four TDs

South Side Blanked By Donora In Opener

DONORA — The host Dragons rolled over South Side Beaver in the opening football game for both teams here Saturday.

Malcolm Lomax led the way for Donora with four TDs and two extra points. The fleet fullback, who is also a standout in basketball, is shooting for the mark of 127 points he scored last season.

South Side Beaver could get no closer than the Donora 20. The Rams, a Class B school, were not eliminated from WPIAL play, as Donora is Class A.

Boston Surprises Buffalo On Cappelletti's Kicking

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gino Cappelletti gets his kicks out of kicking, but the Buffalo Bills sure wish he would find another way to amuse himself.

The Bills did a fairly good job of short-circuiting Boston's offense Sunday—except Gino's toe.

The precision kicker connected on three field goals and an extra point to lead the Patriots to a 16-7 victory in the American Football League opener for both teams.

Meanwhile, the AFL was aglow today over a couple of weekend games that didn't mean a thing—except a big dent in the elder National League's reputation.

The New York Jets knocked off the Detroit Lions 9-6 and Miami bumped Atlanta 19-13 in the last of preseason interleague play.

That gave the nine-year-old AFL a 13-10 edge over its 49-year-old rival in face-to-face showdowns this summer—quite a contrast to a year ago when the NFL had a 13-3 bulge in interleague play.

AFL warfare picks up momentum tonight when Kansas City, last season's runnerup in the Western Division, and Houston's Eastern Division champions make their debut in the Astrodome.

Both teams take 4-1 preseason records into the nationally televised affair (NBC, 9 p.m., EDT).

Kansas City's big chore will be to stop quarterback Pete Beathard, who hit 60 of 129 passes for 659 yards and five touchdowns in the exhibitions.

The Chiefs hope to counteract this threat with the passing of veterans Len Dawson and the running of Mike Garrett, Curtis McClinton and Wendell Hayes.

Cappelletti did all of his work after Buffalo made an impressive start with an all-rookie backfield.

Dan Darragh, elevated to the No. 1 quarterback spot because of Jack Kemp's injury, guided the Bills 77 yards in 13 plays—with end Paul Costa going the last six—to ring up a quick 7-0 lead.

But then Gino went to work.

He kicked a 10-yard field goal in the second quarter, picked up his extra point after R. C. Gamble rambled 45 yards on the first play from scrimmage in the second half, added a 28-yarder later in the third quarter, and polished things off with a 30-yard kick in the final period.

COSTA CAPER. Paul Costa of the Buffalo Bills scores on an end-around play in the AFL opener against Boston at Buffalo yesterday. Bills took 7-0 lead, but Patriots won 16-7. (UPI Telephoto)

Cappelletti's extra point effort cut to 50 the number he needs to become only the second pro to pass the 1,000 level.

Darragh hit on 13 of 25 passes for 150 yards for the Bills, while Patriot quarterback Mike Taliaferro, traded off by the New York Jets earlier this year, made only five of 13 for 60 yards.

However, the Bills had a 150-76 advantage in rushing, with Gamble accounting for 90 on 16 carries.

In other weekend games, San Diego stopped Cincinnati 29-13 Friday night in the season opener for both, and Oakland defeated Denver 23-7 Saturday night in an exhibition.

In NFL exhibitions Saturday night, Philadelphia whipped New York 21-7, Washington defeated Pittsburgh 24-17, Green Bay socked Cleveland 31-9 and Baltimore topped Dallas 16-10.

Toledo Wins IL Pennant

By The Associated Press

Toledo's Mud Hens have won the 1968 pennant in the International League in a breath-taking finish.

Trailing Columbus one percentage point going into Sunday's finales, the Mud Hens took their first IL crown by bombing Rochester 17-0 while Columbus was splitting two with Jacksonville—losing 7-3 and winning 2-1.

The almost imperceptible difference in the latest of the IL's hair-raising flag races was a half-game and three percentage points. Toledo wound up 83-64—.565, Columbus 82-64—.562.

Cancellation of the rained-out second game of a doubleheader between Columbus and Jacksonville last Thursday night left the Jets playing only 146 games to Toledo's 147.

It was appropriate that Toledo won the pennant by defeating Rochester, for the Mud Hens had found the Red Wings to be patsies all year, beating the league's third-place team 15 times in 21 games.

Sunday they showed no mercy at bat as lefty Les Cain pitched a three-hitter and hit a grand slam homer.

Jacksonville extinguished Columbus' hopes in their opening game as rookie Steve Renko and Ron Locke held the Jets to five hits.

The Governor's Cup playoffs open Tuesday with Jacksonville at Toledo and Rochester at Columbus.

Ashe, Okker In Finals; Miss Wade Upsets King

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Can a big service overpower speed and finesse in a championship tennis battle?

This was the question that divided the court wizards today as Arthur Ashe, the U.S. Army lieutenant from Highland Falls, N.Y., and Tom Okker, the catquick giant-killer from The Netherlands, squared off in the men's singles final of the U.S. Open Tournament.

"I think I would have to pick Ashe because of his powerful service," predicted Pancho Gonzales, the old pro who gave the fans a show before bowing out to Okker in the quarter-finals.

"Ashe serves as hard as any man in tennis, much harder than I do today. He has too much power for Okker."

Bill Talbert, the former U.S. Davis Cup captain, disagreed. "Okker's all-around strength will beat Arthur," Talbert said. "It's true that Ashe serves harder but Okker is quicker and has more shots."

"I'll go with the big serve and Ashe," said Jack Kramer.

"I lose only to the champion—I have to pick Okker. He's not only fast but he is capable of making some of the most fantastic shots I've ever seen," said the veteran Ken Rosewall.

The third-seeded Rosewall, who became the 13th professional to fall before an amateur racket, was Okker's victim in the dramatic semifinals Sunday, the 24-year-old Dutchman winning 8-6, 6-4, 6-8, 6-1.

Ashe, 24, reigning U.S. amateur champion and the first Negro ever to win the American title, unleashed a 115 miles-per-hour service in blasting aside his Davis cup teammate, Clark Graebner of New York, 4-6, 8-6, 7-5, 6-2.

"Arthur's serve was just too strong," admitted Graebner.

Ashe, semifinalist at Wimbledon and bidding to become the No. 1 men's player in the world, will be going for his 26th consecutive singles victory when he goes against Okker at 3 p.m. EDT before a national television audience (CBS).

The service also was the determining factor in the jolting surprise in the women's final which saw Virginia Wade, pretty 24-year-old British girl with a thunderbolt service and a powerful forehand, dethrone Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the two-time Wimbledon winner, 6-4, 6-2.

It's been a humiliating week for the pros. Thirteen men pros, including such stars as Rod Laver, Tony Roche and Pancho Gonzales, lost to amateurs. All four of the lady pros in the tournament, headed by Mrs. King, were sent to the sidelines.

But amateurs, under the new liberal international rules, this time got a little more than silverware and adjectives for their performances. Miss Wade collected $6,000 for winning the women's title, Mrs. King, a pro, got $3,000. Okker, who chose to play for prize money, got the $14,000 men's purse and Rosewall the $9,000 second money.

Ashe and Graebner, because of stricter U.S. rules, played for $15 a day and a hotel room. Next year it may be different. The United States will consider a change of its policy in February.

Four Super Rounds

Casper Tops Crampton In Hartford Open Golf

By TOM HARRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Bruce Crampton said last week that it takes four super rounds to win a tournament in pro golf today, and he turned out to be a prophet—for Billy Casper.

Casper, golf's leading money winner in 1968, put together the four super rounds in the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Tourney which wound up Sunday. Australian Crampton had only three rounds in the super category and wound up in second place.

Casper had scores of 68-65-67-66 to claim the $20,000 top prize at Wethersfield Country Club with a 72-hole score of 266, 18-under-par. Crampton had 65-67-70-67 for a 269 finish Sunday and $12,000 in consolation money.

Crampton's prophecy of sorts came on Thursday after his first round 65 led the way. He said pro golf is so much tougher in 1968 because of the number of players who can win and an improved standard of play. Three good rounds and one great one was once the winning formula, he stated.

The most spectacular aspect of Casper's play was his putting. He needed only 27 putts on the second round when he fashioned a brilliant 65 in chilling cold, rain and wind.

When the sun returned Saturday and Sunday, Casper needed only 26 putts for each 18 hole round. It was "some of the best putting I've had in several years," Casper said.

Casper is enjoying his best year in money winnings, $171,436, and although others claimed the major titles at the U.S. and British Opens, Masters and PGA tournaments, Casper's five tournament victories this year is three more than any other golfer.

In Bill Booth League

East End, Dixonville, Glenmoor Win Openers

East End, Dixonville and Glenmoor won the opening games in the Bill Booth football little league yesterday.

East End, with Darell Allen scoring, edged Northside 6-0 at Patterson Field.

Dixonville blanked St. Al's 14-0 as the Kuczynski to Green passing combination clicked for 20 yards and a TD, 65 yards to set up a TD and for an extra point. Parsons scored the first TD on a one-yard plunge.

Glenmoor whipped West End 60-0 as Gary Cunningham scored 24 points and Kevin Francis 18.

In Pee Wee games Glenmoor beat West End 14-0, Greg Golding scored twice as East End blanked Northside 22-0 and Dixonville thumped St. Als 34-6. Charley Payne scored three times, including a 60-yard run and Bell scored on runs of 34 and 49 yards. DeSarro scored for St. Al's.

At the league meeting last night, Bob Woomer and Rick Steffen were approved as officials. Officials' pay was set at $3 for a doubleheader or $2 for the main game.

Plans were made for tag day on Saturday, with East End in East End, Glenmoor in Glenmoor and the rest of the teams downtown.

The league will sponsor a pro wrestling show at the M.A. Sept. 21. The next meeting of the league will be at the gas company office at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 22.

Next week's schedule has East End and Glenmoor at Air Beacon Road Field, St. Al's and Northside at Bell Field and West End and Dixonville at Patterson Field.

EL Reserves Rout Mooney In Opener

Steve Williams scored on a 53-yard run on the second play from scrimmage and the rout continued from there as the East Liverpool reserve football team ran over Youngstown Cardinal Mooney 42-0 at Patterson Field Saturday morning.

Rick Eckles scored three times and Craig Yanni passed for three scores. Gary Cox and Steve Douglas got the other TDs.

The reserve defense held Mooney to no first downs except by penalty in the first half and never let the opposition get inside the EL 30.

Gardner Injured In Gold Cup

DETROIT (AP) — A high speed showdown between powerboating's top two drivers ended abruptly on the Detroit River Sunday when the 5,600 pound craft of Lt. Col. Warner Gardner, a retired Air Force officer, was virtually ripped to pieces in a stunning moment during the Gold Cup race.

The 52-year-old Gardner of Bay City, Mich. was critically injured when his 30-foot speedboat suddenly became airborne, flipped on its side and disintegrated as it smacked against the water.

Gardner's No. 1 rival, defending champion Bill Schumacher of Seattle, was about to make an effort to help rescue Gardner until he saw a Coast Guard amphibious helicopter swooping in to pluck the unconscious driver from the river.

"I got out of the way in a hurry for I knew they could be of more help to the colonel than I could," the shaken Schumacher said later.

Colts Down Cowboys, Packers Whip Browns

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dallas' Don Meredith tried to bomb out of the National Football League's exhibition season, but Johnny Unitas beat him to it.

Green Bay's Bart Starr, on the other hand, took his good old time and that was fast enough to get by Cleveland.

Even before Meredith could take aim, Unitas had dropped an 84-yard scoring bomb to John Mackey, and when Meredith tried his fireworks, they exploded in his face and instead set up Baltimore's 16-10 victory last Saturday night.

Starr used fullback Jim Grabowski to pick apart Cleveland's defense along with a few explosions of his own as the Packers trampled the Browns 31-9.

With the real fireworks set for this weekend, six other NFL teams ended their preseason chores last Saturday.

In other all NFL games Philadelphia surprised the New York Giants 21-7 in the afternoon and Washington stopped Pittsburgh 24-17 at night. The New York Jets of the American League beat Detroit of the NFL 9-6 and Miami of the AFL tripped Atlanta of the NFL 19-6, helping the AFL to a 13-10 edge over the NFL in preseason play.

In the AFL, Oakland beat Denver 23-7, and in regular season play, Boston defeated Buffalo 16-7 on Sunday. Houston and Kansas City play tonight.

Unitas hit Mackey with a quick pass on the first play from scrimmage and the rugged tight end ran over tacklers to put Baltimore in front in a bitter struggle between NFL power-houses.

With Meredith connecting on short passes, the Cowboys came back to tie 10-10, but then he turned to the long bombs which Dallas has used so successfully in the past. This time they got burned.

The Colts intercepted four Meredith passes, two in the final period, and Lou Michaels kicked field goals of 22 and 11 yards. The Cowboys also fumbled away two other drives inside the Baltimore 10 yard line.

"We made enough mistakes for four games," said Cowboys' coach Tom Landry of the nationally televised game in the Cotton Bowl.

Grabowski scored twice on two yard runs and once on an 18-yard pass from Starr, and set up a 13-yard scoring sprint by Donny Anderson before 84,918 fans, the largest crowd in Browns' history. Starr finished with 11 completions in 17 attempts for 164 yards.

Don Cockroft kicked three field goals for Cleveland's points in the second game of the annual doubleheader at Memorial Stadium.

Joe Namath's passes set up a touchdown and a field goal in the first half as the Jets downed the Lions in the first game. Jerry DePoyster booted two field goals for Detroit, which lost two chances inside the 10 on Mel Farr fumbles.

Sonny Jurgensen, in his 1968 debut, shook off his arm miseries and hit on 16 of 26 passes for 211 yards, including two scoring tosses to Charley Taylor in Washington's victory.

Bob Griese's passes set up a touchdown and Jimmy Keyes' second field goal in the final half for Miami. Rookie Dick Anderson ran 28 yards with an intercepted pass for the other score.

Injuries and military duty kept seven Philadelphia regulars out of the game, but the Eagles still overcame a 7-0 deficit with two second half touchdowns within 43 seconds. John Huarte drove the Eagles 68 yards for the first and John Mallory ran 20 yards with a fumble for the second.

Dick Petty Wins Race At Richmond

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richard Petty predicted Sunday that the Capital City 300 stock car race would be won in the pits. He was wrong.

But when the curly-haired Plymouth driver from Level Cross, N.C. banks his $2,200 victory check, it's unlikely he'll complain.

He led 216 laps the 300-lap event, despite slow P.T. work that time and time again gave up the lead to Ford driver David Pearson. Petty simply outran the Spartanburg, S.C., driver where it counted-on the track.

He averaged a whopping 85.66 miles an hour over the former half-mile dirt oval that was certified as five-eighths of a mile after the paving process last week.

And he had claimed the pole position earlier with a 103.6 m.p.h. lap that inaugurated high speed racing at the State Fairgrounds track. Before the asphalt machines showed up a 70 m.p.h. lap here was one for the record books.

Pearson finished second, half a lap behind Petty's Plymouth.

Finishing third in a Mercury was Cale Yarbrough of Timmonsville, S.C. Bobby Allison of Hueytown, Ala., was fourth in a Chevelle, and Buddy Barker of Charlotte was fifth in a Dodge.

Phelodie Winner Of Quebec Derby

MONTREAL (AP) — Phelodie, owned by J. Frowde Seagram of Waterloo, Ont., won the $32,385 Quebec Derby, a race restricted to Canadian foaled 3-year-olds run at Blue Bonnets Raceway Sunday.

Veteran jockey Hugo Dittfach kept Phelodie well off the pace in the early running of the 1⅛-mile test and then booted his colt home on the outside to win by a length over Big Blunder, the 4-to 5 favorite.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of our son and brother Micheal "Ronnie" Rosak who drowned Sept. 8, 1966.
From our home a light is gone,
The voice we loved is silent.
God only knows our bitter pain
Life is just not the same
But in our thoughts and prayers
You will be with us forever.
It must be for your best
God called you to your heavenly rest.
Sadly missed by
Mom, Dad, Brothers

Junior Editors Quiz on WORSHIP

QUESTION: When did worship begin?

* * * *

ANSWER: It would be impossible to give details about this, for the beginning of man's thought and feeling are shrouded in time now long past. Yet there are records, from many lands and peoples, which show that as far back as man has left a trace, he has felt the presence of a vast force greater than himself. People of different civilizations have called this force by different names. We usually use the word God. Religious people agree that men gain the greatest good by relating themselves to this mightiest power in the universe. They may belong to separate faiths, but religious people agree on a Creator who is just and good, and they agree that His commandment to us is to serve and help our fellow men. Science is extremely valuable since it uncovers facts about the world around us and the functioning of our bodies. But most people feel that religion is necessary too, because it searches for the values in life rather than just for the facts. And they feel that this search toward God-like qualities gives our lives a purpose and a meaning.
